NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(A. P.)—Major league clubs are engaged in their final inter-sectional tussle of the 1925 season today with first division teams pitted against the leaders in both circuits.

Pittsburg regained its winning stride after taking four setbacks in a row by whacking out a nine to four victory over the Robins yesterday. Vic Aldridge was masher in the box, hanging up his seventh consecutive triumph.

As the Giants were sweeping westward to open a series with the third-place Cincinnati Reds, the victory advanced the lead of the Pirates to six and one-half games.

The Athletics lost ground in their forlorn pennant chase by dropping the final of a six game series to the Yankees, 3 to 1. Sam Jones limited the Mackmen to two singles.

Although idle, the world champion Senators gained by the Athletics' defeat and their lead was stretched to eight games.

Washington had the Tigers for opponents in the opener of a series today. Since their last visit to the capital the Bengals have become a more formidable club and are now hard on the heels of the Browns for third place.

"Goose" Goslin, left fielder for the Griffins, was re-instated after a conference with Manager Bucky Harris and President Clark Griffith. He was indefinitely suspended by the Washington pilot after a wordy battle during the game with the Athletics Sunday in which Harris brought the player to task for misplays. At the time he was fined $100, but whether the penalty has been remitted was not learned.

FANS RAZZING TOO MUCH FOR JACQUES, WILL QUIT BROOKLYN

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(A. P.)—A special dispatch from Pittsburg to the New York Evening World says that First Baseman Jacques Fournier of the Brooklyn Nationals now playing here, has announced that he will not play another season in a Brooklyn uniform. Fournier says his treatment by the fans has been of such abusive character as to make him wish to withdraw from baseball. He has a contract for next year at $12,500.

In announcing his intention not to wear a Brooklyn uniform next year, Fournier said:

"I have been sixteen years in baseball and am accustomed to the fickleness of crowds, but the razzing I have received in Brooklyn has been so savage that I cannot play in a Brooklyn uniform and retain my self respect. Every vile name has been hurled at me because I made the ordinary run of errors or had not done something which foul mouthed persons had expected me to do."

"The abuse has been continuous for a long time and has been totally undeserved. I have hit 300 or better most of the time since I came to the Brooklyn club three years ago from St. Louis. I have led the National league in driving in runs."

Other members of the Brooklyn squad are known to have taken the abuse by the fans almost as much to heart as has Fournier.

GALAXY OF STARS BADLY BEATEN IN K. C. FIELD MEET

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Results of the Knights of Columbus meet at the Yankee stadium last night left the track world stunned.

Alan Helfrich, Penn State flier, and American half-mile champion, was beaten; Olfred Leoney, Jackson Scholz and Chet Bowman lost at three different dash distances to the negro star from the middle west, Delbert Hubbard; Jole Ray was left in fourth place in his farewell appearance on the cinder; Albin Stearns and Jimmy Hennigan were compelled to retire by the speed of a fifteen mile contest.

Pincus Sober of the College of the City of New York who only a few weeks ago captured the metropolitan A. A. U. title for the half mile in a race with George Marsters and Johnny Holden at East Orange, N. J., beat Helfrich last night in the desperate sprint at the end. Marsters, formerly of Georgetown, gained second place. The time was 1:25 2-5.

Hubbard won the century in 10:1-5 seconds, with Scholz second; Leoney third and Bowman fourth. Leoney placed second to the Michigan star in the 75 yard event, with Scholz third and Bowman fourth. The time was 7.45. In the fifty yard dash Bowman took second, Scholz third and Leoney fourth. The time was 5:3-5.

Ray's effort was at two miles, too long for him, and Willie Rhola, Finnish-American flash won without any trouble.

Confessed Murder He Didn't Commit To End His Misery

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—H. W. Gibbons, 51, who last week walked into a newspaper office and told reporters he had murdered Claude I. Button in a Los Angeles warehouse eleven years ago, told the police that his murder story was false. He said he confessed the unsolved murder of Button in the hope that the state would hang him and thus end the suspense he had been under since he discovered that he could not muster nerve enough to end his own life. Marital troubles prompted his desire to die, Gibbons said.

Vadueville Wednesday Instead Tuesday

The Knox Comedy company, a male comedy quartette, heads the lists of acts on the bill of Western Association vaudeville, at the Hunts Craterian theater. A lively strain of comedy runs through the entire performance. It is one of the best singing acts in vaudeville, outside of the big time.

Something for the children, and of entertaining value to the rest of the folks is the Mantell Manikins, that have been developed to a high degree of perfection. The figures are almost human, and a cabaret, including the musicians, dancers, singers, waiters, are shown, also a circus side show, etc.

Beautiful costumes and stage settings mark the act of Sinda Dale and Dixie DeLane, who present "A Musical Comedy surprise," with vocal and instrumental number. Both the girls dance.

W. C. Dornfield, a world war veteran, and formerly a member of the troupe of Elsie Janis and Her Gang, offers "Trix and Chatter," which consists of music and comedy, combined with a winning personality.

The "Blue States and Mack, musicians and singers, roused out the bill. They play the mandolin and piano and sing and dance entertainingly.

There will also be the usual popular "Popups of the Day" and lively comedy films to open the show.
