Judge Thomas left for Medford Wednesday, having tried all matters that were ready for trial at this time, where the parties had witnesses available. As there was only one case calling for jury trial, the jury was dismissed on Monday, until the further order of the court. Except for the regular visit of the judge to handle ex parte orders and the like, and the possible trial of injunction matters, which take preference in the courts, the work of the last two weeks will close court work in this county until next January, when the jury will be again called. Judge Thomas explained that the work done here in June and July took the place of the usual September term in Josephine county. —Grants Pass Courier.

HAVE A DRINK OF BUTTE SPRING WATER

Medford is planning a new water system and sentiment is very much divided. You have been advised to inspect both waters, which would involve a trip to the spring. Knowing that but few can take this trip, we have brought down a truckload of the spring water, so come in Saturday and have a drink.

This not done as propaganda for or against the water project — Vote as you please — but here is a chance to sample both waters.
