Fashions Favored Modes are here

The exquisite black needlepoint coat with the gorgeous Silver Fitch fur trimming that is pictured, was shown in our style show and greatly admired. This coat and all the other style show garments are on display in our garment section, as well as hundreds of the newest, smartest dresses and wraps shown this season. Many new garments out for the first time, especially has the new vogue for "bell sleeve" coats brought out a wonderful display. As our coats and dresses are all new and correct we are not offering special prices this Saturday, but our same usual low prices on apparel will make this display very attractive for you. However, we do believe in "specials," as every good business person knows that they do stimulate business and competition is the vital thing that makes "Medford a good place to shop and a good place to buy reliable merchandise from your own dependable merchants."
