

ASHLAND EPWORTH LEAGUE ENTERTAINS SCHOOL TEACHERS

ASHLAND, Sept. 21.—Jack Edwards and Nate Simpkins, who were reported as found Friday after being lost since Wednesday and for whom a searching party had started Friday morning from Ashland, were located by Fred Furry of Phoenix, who, thoroughly acquainted with that country had started to hunt for them when he heard they were lost.

The next day and night were the same, rain and fog confusing them. Thursday they killed a calf they found in the woods to furnish food and the skin helped to keep them warm during the night. Friday morning found them going down a stream which comes in near Lost Prairie, and it was here that Fred Furry found them. Neither man seems much the worse for their trying experience and both were out fishing at Lake of the Woods Friday afternoon.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church expects to have a social evening with the teachers of the city schools as special guests. An interesting program is planned for the occasion and a pot luck supper is a delightful feature of the affair, which will be given at the parlors of the Methodist church Friday evening of this week at 7:30. Committees have the plans well in hand and a most enjoyable time is expected.

The Misses Edna Goheen and Gertrude Hagan entertained Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock and daughters, Doris and Marion, and son Dick, at dinner Saturday evening at their pleasant apartment at the Van Sant home on Oak street. The evening was spent very happily in the delightful visit of good friends.

Mrs. L. N. Woodside, after spending a few days visiting her friends in Ashland, left Monday morning for Eugene, where she expects to take advance work in music the coming year. Mrs. Woodside sang Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church. During last winter Mrs. Woodside directed the choir and sang at that church. Her wonderful gift gave much pleasure to her friends while in Ashland, and her going away is a serious loss in musical circles.

A large concourse of friends both from Ashland and the old home, were gathered Saturday to pay their last respects to Mrs. R. L. Luke, whose funeral occurred Saturday afternoon at Stock's Undertaking Parlor. Beautiful flowers testified to the esteem in which she was held. S. R. Luke, the son, of Arizona, was present, having arrived the night before, and Mrs. Davis, the daughter had been here for some months caring for her mother, who had been ill since in June.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lamkin who have been living on their wheat ranch near Montague for the past year or more have come back to the valley and are established on their dairy ranch near Talent. Their friends in Ashland rejoice that they have come home. They have been missed in church and social circles and welcome the change that brings them again to Ashland.

Mrs. Lou Reeder, whose illness was reported last week is making an excellent recovery. She will be able to be up and around this week. A new building is to be constructed in the city, at a cost of $36,000. It is to be built of reinforced concrete, two stories high, located on First street directly across from the Lithia Springs hotel. A. L. Lamb is the contractor, and it is understood C. L. Brown of Medford is heading the company financing the project. It is thought that the structure is to be used as a garage.

With last Sunday's meeting, which was a joint one, at the Methodist church, the union meetings which have been held Sunday evenings, alternating in the different churches, were brought to a close. Tonight, each congregation met in its own church. At the September meeting of the Mount Ashland Chapter, D. A. R., which postponed its first program because of the fair, the Rev. W. Judson Oldfield will deliver an address on the Constitution. Mrs. J. P. Dodge is hostess and with her, Mrs. Louise Dodge, Mrs. Chas. Loomis and Mrs. H. C. Galey will act as assistant hostesses in completing the committee. At the meeting also the program for the year will be announced.

BOTH SIDES SEEK INJUNCTION J'VILLE ROAD DISMANTLING

The much discussed controversy about the dismantling of the Jacksonville-Medford railway, which last week was a bone of contention before the public service commission, has now reached the legal fighting stage in the courts with both sides represented, the cities of Medford and Jacksonville on the one side, and W. S. Barnum, the owner, on the other side, each filing injunctions in circuit court at Jacksonville this forenoon.

The injunction suit of Jacksonville, Medford was filed by Fred A. Williams, attorney for Jacksonville, and City Attorney John H. Carlin for Medford. It seeks to enjoin Mr. Barnum from dismantling the railroad until after the public service hearing in October. The commission had ordered the dismantling work to cease until after this hearing.

The suit of Mr. Barnum, through his attorney, W. E. Phillips of Medford, seeks to enjoin the public service commission from interfering with Mr. Barnum in dismantling of the road. Judge Thomas set temporary hearings on the injunctions for next Monday at 10 a. m., and issued a temporary restraining order, with Mr. Barnum's consent until that date.

By mutual agreement between all the county exhibitors and the state fair management no prizes will be awarded at the state fair this year. The competing counties, however, which welcome this innovation, will as usual exhibit their best products. The change was made because of the old method of awarding prizes for county exhibits caused so much dissatisfaction.

In attendance and in charge of the Jackson county exhibit at Salem will be County Fruit Inspectors Elmer Gutman and Howard Warner, County Agent Cate, County Club Leader Fowler, and Miss Ada Brewster, home demonstration agent. The vaudeville to be given by the fair association, announced for tomorrow has been postponed, owing to the absence of some of the principals from the city.

It will be given some time next week, possibly Tuesday evening, and further announcements will be made later. The vaudeville to be given by the fair association, announced for tomorrow has been postponed, owing to the absence of some of the principals from the city.

Hunt's Craterian has an unusual film, Edmund Goulding's pictorialization of "Sun Up," the North Carolina mountain play by Lula Volman. Its story is stark and simple, much as the people concerned are creatures of few interests, living almost animal lives with hate and love balancing the gamut of their emotions. Goulding uses the King technique in his fight between Rufe and the sheriff, which takes place inside the sheriff's shack.

The Oregonian Screen Review, showing scenes of the Pendleton Round Up, "Hello Goodbye," reels of comedy and Raymond Ballard at the organ, completes the program. At the Rialto, Marion Davies in modern comedy drama, "Zander the Great," begins an engagement of three days at the Rialto theater. As Mammie, the little orphan girl, the star is seen in an entirely new sort of role, and is a revelation in her portrayal of it. The supporting cast is notable, including Holbrook Blinn, Harrison Ford, Harry Watson, Harry Myers, Richard Carle, Hedda Hopper, Hobart Bosworth, George Seligman and many others.

PENNANT WINNERS IN BOTH LEAGUES KNOWN THIS WEEK

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Settlement of the major league pennant races this week is probable. The Pirates need only four victories out of their remaining ten games to capture the flag and the Senators five of their twelve contests.

Irish Mousell had a big day in helping the Glens top the Cubs, 6 to 2 yesterday. He singled out four safeties, 4 homers, two singles and a double, scoring twice himself and driving in two other tallies. As Pittsburgh was not scheduled its lead was cut to seven and one-half games.

BRAZIL LEADING COAST HITTERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—(A. P.)—A gain of four points at the expense of the Angels gives Frank Brazill, of Seattle batting honors of the Pacific Coast league, unofficial averages show. Taking the top position he held earlier in the season Brazill is hitting .394, only one point ahead of "Lefty" O'Doul, Salt Lake. Paul Waner of the Seals trails O'Doul by a single point, with an average of .392.

VON ELM DEFEATS DOLPH, GOLF TITLE

DEL MONTE, Calif., Sept. 21.—(A. P.)—George Von Elm, the brilliant golfer of the Rancho Golf club, Los Angeles, has added another title to his string by defeating Frank Dolph, Portland youngster, for the amateur championship of California. The final round played over the Pebble Beach course yesterday was one of the most spectacular matches ever seen on the course. The Southern Californian slipped tragically from five up at the end of the first eighteen to "even up" at the thirty-first after Dolph won four holes in succession. The match ended at the 35th green with VonElm, the victor, two to one.

WALKER FAVORITE TO BEAT SHADE FOR WELTER BELT

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(A. P.)—Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N. J., will step into the ring at the Yankee stadium at ten o'clock tonight to defend his world's welterweight title against Dave Shade of San Francisco after side-stepping his relentless challenger since he lifted the crown from Jack Britton at Madison Square Garden in 1922.

Walker is 7 to 2 favorite to win the fifteen round bout. Both boxers are expected to weigh in under the limit of 147 pounds. Shade is taller than the champion by two and one-half inches and has a longer reach by about four inches which may count heavily in a close fight.

NIPPON CUE ARTIST TO MEET FUGI

T. Saganuma, one of the leading Japanese billiardists of today will play Fugi, city champion, at Brown's this evening in an exhibition match. Tomorrow Saganuma will play Maru on the University club tables. At tonight's exhibition he will execute fancy and masse shots. In 1923 he won the Junior 18.2 balkline championship, and is a protegee of Yamada, famous Japanese cueist.

Don't Eat, Policy. NEW YORK.—Mr. Zero, champion of the jobless, is now urging them to fast. He has exhibited to them a weaver, who he says has worked 40 days at his trade without food.

A. C. JOY SELECTED CROP OBSERVER

Appointment of A. C. Joy of Ashland as crop observer in Jackson county for the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation Index, is announced from Chicago by P. V. Ewing, director of research for the foundation and editor of the Index. He will form a link in the nationwide chain of county agricultural observers elected because of his first-hand knowledge of farming conditions and his ability to observe these and intelligently interpret them.

The index, to which the observer will contribute from this county, is a compilation of the monthly reports of 3650 observers in every section of the country, and this number is being added to steadily. All the observers are practical, thinking, farm-minded men, each chosen because of the opportunities he has to observe the needs of agriculture in his own locality and for his ability to apply economic principles to current farm problems.

WHAT 1800 FAMILIES KNOW ABOUT ELECTRIC COOKING. THEY will tell you it is a new kind of luxury—one that doesn't cost more to enjoy. Of course you have always appreciated the advantages of cooking by electricity. You know that it means no more fuel to carry; no more ashes to lug. You know that electricity is the ideal cooking heat; economical because it is turned on when you need it—not before; turned off when you're through—not later. But perhaps you would like to know exactly what it costs—in dollars and cents. The 1800 satisfied families who now use electric ranges served with electricity by this company would gladly show you their bills, if they could. We have made an average of these bills, so that we may give you the facts. The average cost of electric lights alone in all homes served by this company in Oregon is $2.20 a month. The average cost of their electric lights and electric cooking together is $5.62 a month. For the difference, could you buy ordinary fuel for cooking? And if you could, would you want to? Whenever you decide to investigate this question of electric cooking closely, your nearest dealer will tell you many interesting things. And he is prepared to install your new electric range at once, on convenient terms. THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY
