

Local and Personal

Yesterday in addition to being the first day of the autumn season was also one of the two days during the year when day and night are of the same length. Hence from yesterday on the days will be shorter than the nights until some time next March when day and night again become of equal length.

Landscaping—Those desiring to beautify their homes and lawns, with wisely selected and artistically arranged shrubbery and ornamental trees, may have the free advice of an experienced landscape architect from Portland, who is visiting our city for a short time. Phone 372 between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. except Sunday. Mail Tribune office.

The condition of Wm. A. Hanna, who has been seriously ill in a Portland hospital, and which improved last week so much after a transfusion of blood operation as to lead to hopes of his ultimate recovery, is again quite bad, according to last reports from Portland. Last Saturday night or Sunday another blood transfusion operation was to be done in hopes of bettering his condition, but nothing has been heard since as to his condition, which fact local close friends interpret to mean that his condition is about the same as Saturday night. Mrs. Hanna has been at her husband's bedside since their arrival in Portland, as have been Herbert Hanna, his brother, and his wife, for the past ten days.

The estimated yield of from 20,000 to 25,000 lugs of grapes in Josephine county will be decreased but slightly, if any, by the recent rains, in the belief of local grape men. While a few of the grapes have cracked and a few have been spoiled by the excessive moisture, the rains were not prolonged enough to do serious damage. The next two weeks will see the greater part harvested. The yield this year will approximate 25 to 30 cars. The grapes are to be shipped principally by express or in express cars.—Grants Pass Courier.

Lowell, Massachusetts. — "I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the little books that you send around and felt very good after I had taken a couple of bottles of it. I had been in the Hospital and felt pretty well at first but I went down to nothing. I was weak and had to lie in bed almost all day. I had dizzy and faint spells, pains in my back and lower parts and was so nervous I could not bear my children around. I hope the Vegetable Compound helps other women who are like me. I do all my own work now and feel so well. I have told my friends about it and my sister and my aunts." Mrs. OLIVE AUGER, 19 Howard Street Lowell, Massachusetts.

Over 200,000 women have so far replied to our question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

98 out of every 100 of the replies say, "Yes!" and because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women it should help you.

CRATERS 'ROASTED' BY COPCO CREW AT FALL OPENING

Collectively and individually the Crater club membership was placed on an electric toaster and roasted to a delicate brown at last night's meeting which inaugurated the fall and winter activities of the organization. The roasting process was conducted by local California Oregon Power company men who presented a comedy skit portraying a scene in the company's office. Busy telephones, buzzers and the clicking of typewriters off-stage heightened the effect, while Wally Drew as the hard-boiled office boy piled the pseudo Copco officials' desks high with uncollected bills, complaints, damage claims and other grief. After the storm was over the cast proceeded to raise their own salaries.

Other features of the Copco entertainment included a monologue by
