MISS MABEL RAY IS WINNER ROSE PRIZE

Although the entries for the special prizes offered for roses this year were not as large as those in charge had hoped for there were a number of entries in each division, and the roses shown were beautiful. Miss Mabel Ray of Medford won the $3.00 prize offered for the best bouquet of roses and also the first prize for the best single rose exhibited—a beautiful pink Madam Crochet. Mrs. H. H. Elhart of Ashland won both seconds, one being a cash prize of $2.00 and the other a dozen Rain-bow Freesia bulbs. A lover of flowers who wishes his name withheld offered the prizes for the two best bouquets and the Monarch Seed and Feed store offered the prizes for the best single roses. Many people were keenly interested in the wonderful floral display at the fair this year and a movement is already started for a rose and sweet pea exhibit to be held in June. Select and plant both rose and sweet pea this fall and plan to enter your best next spring.
