ROGUE RIVER CALF CLUB REJOICES AT CO. FAIR AWARDS

By MRS. E. M. SCOTT.
ROGUE RIVER, Sept. 23.—The Rogue River Calf club feel pretty good over their winnings at the county fair. They won two first, three seconds and two third ribbons.
Burwell O'Kelly won first on his calf and second on showmanship and enough other points so he won a trip to the state fair at Salem.
Lloyd Heers of Evans Valley is staying with his aunt in Medford this winter and attending school there.

We are sorry to report that Fred Minthorne of Evans Valley is very ill and was moved to Grants Pass last Saturday so as to be close to a doctor. His friends all hope for his speedy recovery.
Bill Thompson is carrying his arm in a sling now on account of being kicked with his car while cranking it. Mr. Thompson's arm was broken and while getting along fine it is very sore and painful.
Walter Jones reports that the climate of southern California is benefiting his wife's health very much and that she plans now to spend the winter with her sister in Los Angeles.
Clinton Wiley returned Sunday to Medford, Calif., after several days' visit with his parents and other relatives. Clinton has recently bought him a new Star coupe.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons of Florida have been paying a visit to Mr. Simmons' niece, Mrs. Besje Burkhardt. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons travel much of the time, so have a very nice Ford house.

Fred O'Kelly was a business visitor at Ashland Tuesday.
Reed Carter made a trip to Murphy Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. William Auld from Kansas City, Mo., are visiting Mr. Auld's aunt, Mrs. Martha Seaman. Mr. and Mrs. Auld expect to spend several weeks visiting on the coast.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill White and Billy Moore have been over from Worden visiting a few days with their parents.
We are glad to report that Fred Horton is able to be on the streets once more. Fred says he feels fine—only a little weak yet.
Clinton Wiley and Mrs. M. R. Bills visited at the home of Mrs. Delta Dodge at Medford one day last week.
Albert Van Goethan is at Portland visiting his sister, Edna Gallinet.
Grant Wolter has returned to spend the winter here. Mr. Wolter has been in eastern Oregon most the summer. Mrs. Bob Grimmett has returned from the logging camp so to send the children to school.

Mrs. Overton has recently built on a front porch and had her house painted, making a great improvement.
Many from here attended the fair and all claimed it to be very good in every way.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hellman of San Francisco returned home after a visit of a week with Mrs. Hellman's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Carter.
Mrs. Fred O'Kelly was a Grants Pass caller Tuesday.
Friends in Rogue River received a visit from Mrs. William Lee Gray and daughter of Albany last week. Rev. Gray was also visiting in Rogue River from Butte Falls.
The Evans Valley school has a fine new bus this year to take the children to school in.

EXPECT 3 WILLOW SPRINGS HORSES TO DIE AT CROSSING

WILLOW SPRINGS, Sept. 24.—The owner of the three horses, a dark brown, a bay and a small roan, that have been running at large in this vicinity for the past three weeks, would save expense and trouble by taking them up and caring for them. The trains are sure to get them sooner or later at one of these crossings, as they have had several narrow escapes.
Mrs. R. C. Brophy of Chiloquin spent the week end with her parents here.

The first fall meeting of the Willow Springs Thursday club will be on October 1 at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. W. Bickholz. Mrs. Withington and Mrs. Sparrow will have charge of the program. The hostess takes this way of extending an invitation to every member.
Mrs. Sam Anderson and Miss Rose Jones entertained the ladies missionary society of Central Point, on Thursday of this week. The ladies met as usual in the basement of the church.
Lloyd Anderson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson, who graduated from the Central Point high school last spring, is a student at the U. of O. this year. He left here on the 18th and motored up to Eugene with friends.
Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Sammons of Chicago, Ill., are house guests at the W. K. Parker home. They have been visiting all points of interest in the Pacific northwest and will return home by the southern route. Mrs. Shammons is a cousin of Mrs. Parker.

Sons and Daughters Of Oregon Pioneers
Rufus C. Holman of Portland, vice president of the "Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers" was in Medford Wednesday and left some membership blanks at this office with the request that any who desired to become members could call and fill out one of the blanks.
The object of the association is for social, literary and other purposes of mutual benefit.
Cook with gas.
