HALF BOY SCOUT CAMPAIGN FUND IS SIGNED UP

The Boy Scout Financing campaign under the generalship of C. E. (Pop) Gates, is progressing better than any campaign of community interest launched in Medford for sometime. Local citizens as a whole are very responsive when asked by the solicitors for a donation. Today found nearly half the sought for amount collected, with hopes that the remaining half will be collected by the end of next week.

The campaign, it is expected, will end September 30. It is also said that the individual donations are larger than was the average in last year's campaign. Six teams of local business men are devoting their time to the worthy cause, making possible the satisfactory results thus far.

The chamber of commerce is the headquarters for the drive, with Scout Executive Cecil A. Cooke, who recently returned from a regional executives meeting at Spokane, Wash., in charge. Scout Commissioner J. B. Coan is also devoting his time there checking in reports.

Oregon Weather. Cloudy and unsettled tonight and Sunday; probably local rains, cooler in east portion Sunday. Gentle variable winds.
