RAIN FALLING IN SALEM, HOPES OF BIG GATE FADE

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 29.—With four contenders in the field, the drum and bugle corps of the McMinnville post of the American Legion won first award in the competition at the state fair stadium last night. Portland placed second and Eugene third. Hood River failed to get into the money. All prizes were in cash. The Salem organization, as the host, did not compete. While the Sheridan post did not enter the competition it had a band on the grounds, the only Legion band in the state, which furnished music in the grandstand and elsewhere throughout the day. Judges of the competitive events were Al Sirpa of Corvallis, Mayor Tom Riley and Oscar Steelhammer of Salem. Attendance yesterday is estimated at about 3000 and was exceeded by the number of persons who entered the grounds on Sunday when a half admission was charged. Today broke rainy and cold, throwing a damper on the hopes and enthusiasm of state fair officials, and cutting down the prospect for a record breaking attendance which yesterday was bright.

Vaudeville

"The Peter Pan Revue," one of the prettiest, daintiest and entertaining acts that has come over the Western Association circuit, is the feature number of the vaudeville bill at the Hunt's Craterian tomorrow. It is presented by Bernice Brin and Co., which consists of herself, a young man and three pretty girls, whistling, singing, piano playing and dancing. Charles Calvert, who styles himself a "Jazzologist," is an orchestra by himself. He is a dancer of merit and plays the ukulele and jazz horn. Eccentric dancing, comedy and acrobatics is offered in the European novelties act of Bart, Roberts and O'Neil. One of the trio does a number of stunts on stilts, highly out of the ordinary. Bell and Darling present "The League of Nonsense," a "ant" act, and intended for laughing purposes only. Lyle and Irma Conner provide entertainment with a thrill in their wire act, which opens an exceptionally well balanced bill. The playlet portion will consist of "Topics of the Day," and a Mack Bennett comedy.
