DEMPSEY-WILLS SIGN ARTICLES FOR 1926 FIGHT

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 30.—(A. P.)—In a country doctor's office above the corner drug store in the little city of Niles, Mich., last night, Jack Dempsey signed articles to defend the world's heavyweight championship against Harry Wills, negro challenger, in Michigan City, Ind., in September, 1926.

The scene, replete with all the drama of a motion picture ended Wills' four year chase for a championship meeting with Dempsey. The signing came after a conference of more than eighteen hours stretched out over two days, and only after the question of a referee had threatened to wreck the negotiations.

It was finally agreed that if Paddy Mullins, manager of Wills, and Dempsey could not come to terms over the selection of the third man in the ring, sixty days in advance of the contest, Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons, with two members of the financial situation backing him, would name the referee.

Just as dusk was beginning to settle over the countryside, Dempsey, Wills, Manager Mullins and his advisers, Promoter Fitzsimmons and others, motored from here eleven miles north, just over the Indiana state line to Niles, Mich.

The reason for the invasion of Niles was for the reason that boxing is recognized as a legalized sport in Michigan and the promoters wanted to avoid all technicalities in the contract that might possibly come up later.

Fitzsimmons announced that $200,000 had been posted as forfeits with the First National Trust company here. Both Dempsey and Wills received $25,000 as training expenses, according to Fitzsimmons.

The signing took place in the office of Dr. Fred N. Bonine, oculist, a staunch supporter of boxing and a personal friend of Dempsey and Fitzsimmons.

The match, according to plans will be staged in the blue-sky arena owned by Fitzsimmons at Michigan City. It has a seating capacity of about 30,000, but will be increased to meet demands. It has been the scene of numerous boxing contests, notably the Gibbons-Carpenter bout two years ago.

Neither Dempsey nor Wills will receive a guarantee. They will box on a per centage, but their respective percentages were not revealed.

Mullins declined to say what Wills' share would be, but said it was the best offer ever made Wills for a Dempsey match and that he was entirely satisfied.

BOSTON BRAVES IN 5TH PLACE AGAIN AS SEASON CLOSES

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(A. P.)—Major league teams are closing the season uneventfully.

Two games are on the schedule today and there was only one game yesterday. The contest, however, restored the determined Boston Braves to fifth place through the defeat of Brooklyn by Philadelphia 10-4.

Interest tomorrow will turn to the closing struggle of three games between the Browns and Tigers at St. Louis for third place in the American, a peg which Cobb's men held at the close of last season. Detroit must sweep the series to displace Sider's men, who are now two and one-half games ahead of the fourth place Tigers.

The schedule also calls for Brooklyn and Boston to terminate the race in a fight for fifth place in the National. After the game at Philadelphia tomorrow the Robins will return to Ebbetts field to meet the Braves on Saturday and Sunday in the final episode of their scramble for the top rung of the second division.

The champions of both leagues are called from home for their curtain series although after finishing a four game engagement at Boston, starting today, the Washington Senators will make their farewell American league appearance in a single contest with the Athletics at the capital on Sunday. The Pirates wind up in Cincinnati with three game series again—the Reds, starting Friday.

Cook with gas.

SENATORS CLAIM SUPERIORITY IN FIGHTING SPIRIT

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(A. P.)—

The foremost two infield combinations of present day major league ranks will hear much of the brunt of the world's series between them. Defensively the Senators, Judge, Harris, Peckinpaugh and Blase—have a more consistent record behind them besides the advantage of having their mettle tested in the fire of last fall's championship conflict. But on the attack, the advantage is with the Pittsburgh quartet—Grantham or Melms at first, Moore at second, Wright at short and Traynor on third.

Batting records for the season show all five of these Pirates well beyond the .300 mark, all figuring as main cogs in the club's attack, besides measuring up to their defensive responsibilities.

Only Judge and his first base understudy, Joe Harris, are in the charmed hitting circle among the Senators, but the averages do not reveal the ability of coming through in the pinch as possessed by Stan Harris and Peck. Their bats were mightiest in the critical moments of the last world series.

Washington has the older and more experienced combinations, steady, smooth working and always rising to its best in the emergency. If the Senators are to be given any edge over their rivals, at all, they are entitled to it on these points in the opinion of most observers.

DOG PURSUING CAT KILLED BY FALL

"Peggy," a thoroughbred Boston bulldog, owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Porter is dead as the result of a fall from the top of the Sanford Grocery building on East Main street to the sidewalk this morning in an attempt to reach a cat perched on top of the Warner building in the course of construction, adjoining Mr. Porter was en route to his luncheon yard, it is said, when the dog chased a cat, which took refuge on top of one of the wooden forms of the Warner structure. Peggy, not losing heart, managed to get on the roof of the adjoining building. While on a precarious perch along the roof the dog slipped and fell approximately 29 feet to the sidewalk. It died a short time later. The dog was three years old and had been raised from puppyhood by the Porters. Peggy was one of the very few thoroughbred bulldogs in the valley.

LOCAL EXHIBIT AT FAIR MAKES HIT

The Jackson county exhibit at the state fair at Salem is making a big hit and arousing many favorable comments, with the thousands of visitors there this week, according to C. H. Giles, local rancher, who had aided E. R. Oatman and Howard Warner, county fruit inspectors, to arrange the exceptionally finely arranged exhibit which consists entirely of fruit. Mr. Giles returned here last night.

Miss Ada Brewster, county home demonstration agent, and Robert Fowler, county club leader, also assisted in the arranging of the exhibit, and with Messrs. Warner and Oatman will remain until the end of the fair.

The main portion of the exhibit consists of fruit with 100 boxes of pears of fine quality and size as the background, together with attractive peaches and apples.

HOW to MAKE SURE You want a Maytag

Do This—

Call the MAYTAG dealer. Have him bring a MAYTAG to your home. Not a mite of obligation.

Make this test. Weigh your clothes. Look at your watch. Start the MAYTAG.

Wash with it—everything you have—even those things you may now believe cannot be cleaned by soap and water. Have no fear of the dainty fabrics. Don't help along the bulky pieces. And by all means throw in the overalls and cleaning rags loaded and stiff with grime and grease.

Follow the action of the turbulent, soap-laden, penetrating water. Look over each washed piece carefully. See how perfectly clean each piece is washed. See how the satin-smooth, cast-aluminum tub cleans itself—almost instantly. Watch how the wringer does its work.

Time for an entire wash of 50 pounds dry weight, when done—one hour.

There's your proof—positive proof—that you want a MAYTAG.
