

FRANCE SEES NO GOOD IN LATEST DEBT AGREEMENT

PARIS, Oct. 2.—(A. P.) The first tangible effect here of the temporary debt settlement offer in Washington was to send the dollar from 21.10 francs at the opening of the bourse to 21.30 at 1 p. m. A pessimistic view of the events in Washington was manifested in official circles, where opinion prevails that the temporary arrangement for annual payment of forty million each year for the next five years had served to complicate the whole debt situation. It was felt that the course events had taken would make it extremely difficult for parliament to accept the provisional arrangement because of the uncertainty involved and the belief that the termination of the five year period would find France faced with the same or perhaps more serious problems than she is meeting now.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(A. P.) The French debt commission, which will call for Paris tonight on the liner La France, arrived at 12:30 p. m. today. Members of the commission, including Finance Minister Caillaux expected to devote much of the afternoon to sight seeing. The finance minister obtained all available morning papers at a city enroute from Washington and after reading their accounts of yesterday's proceedings declared he found them "fair and impartial."

FLAPPER DEFENDED BY SEATTLE D. D.

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—The flapper era is but a test period from which a new order of women will arise, the Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins, pastor of a large Seattle church, declared last night in refutation of contentions of Armand T. Nichols, director of the Atlantic City beauty pageant that the American beauty is not only dumb but wicked. "Womanhood is on trial today as never before," said Rev. Hawkins, "and I'm not worrying about the outcome. It isn't externals, like the cut of a girl's hair, that determines her womanliness," Dr. Hawkins asserted. "Skirts that do not pick up germs are a sign of progress."

nig, a 12-year old girl was assaulted and then thrown out of the speeding machine some distance from the city. She was found in a helpless condition by motorists. The child was placed under the care of physicians, who described her condition as serious. Police and sheriff's forces of all counties in this section joined in the hunt for the abductor.

A Secret And sunny shampoo

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I have glorious hair, as millions of women know. Its glint is like a halo, on the stage or on the street. I don't know how I get it. I only know that it comes to me through what they call a Fruity Shampoo. Very wonderful men perfected it for me, but they never would give me the formula. They say that one ingredient gives that matchless glint, but they never would tell me what it is.

But they make it for me to supply to you, just as they make it for me. It is the greatest shampoo in existence. I say that after trying scores of them, and searching the world for the best. I want you to try it. I want you to see the luster that it adds to hair. I would not take a fortune for what it has done for mine. I cannot tell you the secrets of its wizard-like results. They have never been told to me. But those results will amaze and delight you. Ask any toilet counter for Edna Wallace Hopper's Fruity Shampoo, and you'll get exactly what I use. The price is 60 cents. And your dealer will return your money if you think that any other shampoo comes within a mile of this. For your own sake, see what it does. Mail the coupon for a sample bottle and by Beauty Book.
