RUMMAGE SALE FOR CIVIC CLUB ASHLAND, OCT. 9-10

ASHLAND, Oct. 1.—October 9 and 10 are the dates set for the annual rummage sale of the Civic Improvement club, to be held at the club house. The money to be raised by this sale is kept as a repair fund used in the upkeep of the building. All sorts of clothing is solicited and committees have been appointed to take charge of the different divisions. Mrs. Wm. Myer will have charge of the adult clothing; Mrs. Dean, Mrs. McGee and Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg have the millinery department; Mrs. Kinney, the children's clothing; miscellaneous articles under the direction of Mrs. D. Peruzzi and Mrs. Wilshire will look after the shoes. All are asked to contribute something to make the selection early that there may be a fine selection at the sale. The club house will be open from 1 to 4:30 p. m., Wednesday and Thursday of next week for receiving the contributions. If any articles are to be called for, the donor is asked to phone Mrs. Harris Dean, 240-H. Mrs. J. M. Wagner and Mrs. P. K. Hammond are in charge of the food sale held at the same time and contributions of cooked foods are solicited for this department. Mrs. A. H. Pracht, Mrs. Harris Dean and Mrs. L. A. Roberts compose the committee who have the rummage sale in charge.

A very happy surprise occurred Thursday evening with Miss Ethel Field and her mother, Mrs. Reid, as involuntary hostess, when a group of friends planned an informal little house warming with a shower of shiny and useful gifts for the new home now occupied by them. Jolly games claimed the attention of the company during the evening, and the close of which refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served. Those who arranged the pleasant affair were the Misses Ila Myers, Beryl Jarmon, Hazel Bruner, Edna Goheen, Gerlie Haan, Edna Kennedy, Clara Anderson, Mell Carter, Alice Robertson, Florence Hurd, Mildred Millon, Nora Ward and Mrs. Merritt.

Announcement is made of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Allan Autry of Medford October 1, 1925 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hodgkinson, parents of Mrs. Autry, at their home on Church street.

There is a contest on at Junior High this week in a membership drive for the P. T. A. in which the first six grades are participating. The room securing the most members will be awarded a prize. Much friendly rivalry has developed and a large enrollment is expected.

Calvin Webber, who has been in the Western Union office this summer leaves Friday for his home in Roseburg, where he will enter the senior class in the Roseburg high school.

In the flower show given under the auspices of the Civic club, a wonderful display of blossoms were shown. Hundreds were put on exhibit at the lobby of the Lathia hotel where they attracted the admiration of many visitors. An entire table, devoted to the exhibit of Harry Hosler and Clyde Costello made a most attractive display. Those who won prizes were Messrs. Costello and Hosler, Mrs. H. H. Elhart, Mrs. L. Bromley, Oscar Gustafson, Mrs. J. B. Hair, Mrs. L. Hilty, Mrs. Emil Pell, Mrs. Lewis Jacks, Mrs. A. R. Kincaid, Mrs. J. H. Monroe, Mrs. Frank Jordan, Mrs. A. H. Pracht. For the best red, white and blue entry for the D. A. R. prize was made by Maurice Robertson, Junior High. Thelma Good received a special prize for the most elaborate basket. Those who received honorable mention were Mrs. A. C. Joy, Mrs. Mary V. Wilshire, Mrs. H. Harrison, Mrs. Looney, Mrs. Blanche Hicks, Mrs. A. E. Kenney, Miss Bertha Barnhill and Mrs. J. B. Duncan.
