RAILROAD MAN DIES RESULT OF INJURIES

LA GRANDE, Ore., Oct. 7.—N. R. Woods, 37, whose arm was severed when he fell under a freight train Sunday night, died here last night. This is the second fatality on the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company line near here in the last fortnight. H. S. Groves was killed at Meacham, September 23, when cut in two by a freight train. Woods is survived by a widow and two small children.

The Higher Education.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY—Three hundred members of the freshman class were doused in a three foot deep mud hole by the sophomores, who won the annual mud fight.

Refuses Life Belt, Drowns.

TACOMA—Calling to fellow workers: "Boys, I'm through," Paul Tomquist, 26, pushed aside a life belt which had been thrown him after his leap into the sound from the Tacoma smelter dock, and sank to his death.

Polk Co. Rancher Indicted.

DALLAS, Ore., Oct. 8.—Carl Frakes, Polk county rancher who pleaded guilty to shooting at E. C. Kirkpatrick, former county judge of Polk county with intent to kill, was this morning sentenced to serve not to exceed eight years in the state penitentiary by Circuit Judge Ramsey.

Cotton Prices Drop.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Cotton prices broke about $3.75 a bale today on publication of the government crop estimate of 14,759,000 bales which was about 500,000 bales more than the trade anticipated. Heavy selling which preceded the sharp decline later was offset by trade buying in fairly large volume.

Card of Thanks.

To each and every one whose kind heart prompted the sending of the sympathetic words and the beautiful flowers, during my recent loss, I wish to tender my heartfelt thanks. The many exquisitely lovely floral offerings were symbols of comfort and peace and memories of them and their senders will ever be cherished. To the sisters and nurses of the Sacred Heart hospital my appreciation is great for their untiring efforts, devoted service and loving sympathy.
