REAL ESTATE IS BOOMING AGAIN SOUTH OF MEDFORD

By Mary O. Carey.
EDEN PRECINCT, Oct. 9.—Real estate has been changing hands in rapid succession in this locality the past ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rose sold their small ranch just west of Phoenix, to Mr. Parsons. Then Mrs. Rose bought the home of A. H. Fisher in the town of Phoenix.

J. E. Roberts bought all of the railroad lots in the north-west portion of Phoenix as far out as the depot. Mrs. Eva Carlless sold her fine home just east of the depot, while further west of Phoenix, out in Eden valley two orchard properties changed hands.

Will High was able to drive his Ford to Ashland and down to Phoenix the latter part of the week. Mr. High has been bedfast for a couple of weeks since he had his fall while working in a chicken house.

Ed Foss is having a large drying house built in his walnut grove, for the drying of his big nut crop. Mr. Foss has one of the heaviest crops of English walnuts this fall that has ever been grown in the valley. The trees are all holding from one to a dozen props, to keep the heavily laden limbs from breaking. When Mr. Foss gets his own dry shed he will be able to hold his crop until the market is good before selling.

Miss Tella Rader of Phoenix entertained the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church at Phoenix last Monday evening. The evening was happily spent with music. Light refreshments were served the guests consisting of individual pumpkin pies and Cider.

Mrs. A. J. Daron of Phoenix left Thursday morning on the Jitney from Medford to Salem to attend the branch of the M. E. missionary society. Mrs. Daron will most likely go to Portland to visit her two brothers, who live in Portland.

Mrs. O. V. Cheffney and her two children, June and Edward, of Portland, who have been visiting her father, Paul Demmer of Medford, spent last Thursday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Daron of Phoenix, also Mrs. Cheffney's friend, Mrs. Isaacs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis of Medford were out to the plant farm on business Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Hill of Hill Mercantile company of Ashland was in North Talent last Thursday and said he had just heard from Harry Pierce, former Talent man, who now resides in Idaho, on a big cattle ranch, where he is foreman. They like it up there and are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jones of the Log Cabin station on the Siskiyou were calling on your correspondent last Thursday. They were accompanied by Mr. Jones' niece, Miss Mattie Brackman. Miss Brackman is a trained nurse and expects to remain in the valley.

Mr. Bond of the Talent Mercantile Co., owned by Mr. Brown, was delivering a lot of groceries in North Talent on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. S. S. Stevens has the prize winning flock of white leghorn pullets in this part thus far, out of 216 pullets she is getting as high as one hundred and nineteen eggs.

Rev. and Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Morgan's mother, Mrs. Bailey, were guests at the Carey home last Sunday.

Mrs. M. Rose is in Medford at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. Cate, where she will spend several weeks.

Many of the apple growers in this vicinity are delaying the picking of their apple crop until they know just where they will market the crop. The price quoted to them thus far has not been satisfactory.

Mrs. Lily Blackwood has been spending the past two weeks in Portland, where she went with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Corlies, when they went down. Mrs. Blackwood is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Stain, who were former Phoenix friends of hers.

PRESBYTERIANS TO MEET AT PHOENIX FOR CONFERENCE

The Presbytery of southern Oregon, comprising all the Presbyterian churches and ministers in Douglas, Josephine, Jackson, Klamath and Lake counties, will hold its stated fall meeting next week at Phoenix, convening on Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, and continuing through Wednesday. On Tuesday afternoon there will be a conference on evangelism and Christian education and home life led by Rev. Harvey Klaer of New York City and by Rev. W. L. Van Nuy of Portland, Ore., with questions and general discussion. This will be of interest, especially to Sunday school teachers and workers, and is open to everybody, with a special invitation to all to attend, as also are the meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Tuesday evening Mr. Klaer will give an address on evangelism and President Clarence W. Greene of Albany college will address the Presbytery on "The Building of a Christian Social Order," with brief opening exercises and music arranged by Rev. Nelson of the Phoenix church.

On Wednesday evening, Rev. C. C. Hulet of Merrill, the president of the Presbytery, will preach from the subject, "On the Edge of Success," with brief addresses by other ministers to take part. It is expected in the installation service for Mr. Nelson as pastor of the church.

Wednesday morning and afternoon will be given to the business, reports, etc., of the Presbytery, much of which will be of interest to all interested in the work of the church. The Presbytery meets regularly in April and October, and this meeting promises to be one of unusual interest. On account of sickness, Rev. D. A. Thompson of Portland, executive secretary for the synod of Oregon, will not be present.

Judge Fines Daughter.
SAN FRANCISCO—When his own daughter, Mrs. Burlington Carlisle, prominent in east bay society circles failed to appear in his court on a traffic charge Police Judge Green-major of Piedmont declared her bail of $10 forfeited.

EAGLE P. SCHOOL TEACHERS GIVEN HEARTY RECEPTION

EAGLE POINT, Oct. 9.—A reception to the teachers was given Friday night in the hall. Quite a number of townspeople gathered to enjoy this occasion. Rev. W. Lee Gray of Butte Falls gave an interesting address and a short talk was heard from each teacher. Mr. Butler and Mrs. Weidman each sang a solo followed by a duet by Mrs. Mittlestead and Mrs. Weidman. A song by the audience completed the program after which delicious refreshments, consisting of cake and cider, were served.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beamsley visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Charley for a few days enroute from Chicago to their home in Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Cora Smith of Klamath Falls has been visiting with the George Loys for a few days. Mrs. Loys has been ill but is much improved at present.

Rev. W. Lee Gray of Butte Falls preached an interesting sermon at the church last Sunday and will preach again next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hinshaw and sons John and Lauren returned from the camp at Lake of the Woods. They moved into an apartment over McTherney's store and John will enter high school soon.

The new room at the school house was completed and Mrs. Butler took charge Monday. It is much more convenient for both teachers and pupils.

The Eagle Point Grange met Tuesday night at the hall with the usual business meeting followed by the social time and refreshments.

Mr. Hughson and family from Oklahoma are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ward. Mr. Hughson is a brother to Mrs. Ward.

PILES

The Testimony of Others
IN my new book which may be had FREE upon request, on PILES and other Rectal and Colon disorders, I have reproduced nearly 100 letters from among those received from my thousands of patients. These tell you frankly of their years of suffering of their trying home remedies and even operations, and, finally, of their complete cure by my NON-SURGICAL method. These are from men and women of every station, many of whom you may know. You will learn by reading this book why I can give a WRITTEN GUARANTEE to cure your Piles or return your fee.
