The public market, Marketmaster Runyard announced this morning, will hereafter open at 7 a. m. on market days, due to the fact that the season is becoming far advanced, making it difficult for farmers and others who bring produce to the market to reach the market at 6 a. m. Ground cherries from Prospect were among the produce on sale today, together with an exceptional fine lot of apples. Tomatoes were scarce and peaches are expected to be gone next week.

GIRL'S LEAGUE AT H. SCHOOL ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

By MARY McKENDREE.

Two meetings of the Girls' League of Medford high school were held this week: the first on Monday, October 5th, and the second on October 7th. The first meeting was for the purpose of discussing the club and of nominating the officers for the coming year. Miss Carroll, the dean of girls, briefly stated the aims of the club, which are as follows:

1. To provide a medium through which the girls may work for the common good.
2. To teach girls to be leaders.
3. To set higher standards of character both for the individual girl, and for the girls as a whole.
4. To keep up scholarship.
5. To do away with cliques.
6. To promote a more democratic feeling.

At the second meeting the following girls were elected for office:

Emily Brown president, Mary Edwards vice president, Helen Lavelle secretary, Ruth Lawrence treasurer. In Medford high school last year under the leadership of Victor Sether, there was organized a club called the H. E. C. A's. To be eligible for membership in the club a student must make and maintain a grade of A or A plus in any one of the following subjects: history, economics, civics, sociology or any other social science. The club has a commission form of government instead of the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, which is usually followed. This plan of government gives more students a chance to train for leadership, and also divides the responsibilities more equitably. Last week the following commissioners were elected: Philip Lounsbury as chairman, Margaret Turner, Oliver Gaylord, Dorothy Young and Dwight Randall.

The purpose of the club is to arouse interest in civic problems and to give the students a chance to become more familiar with affairs of the community, state and nation. It is to promote higher grades, and to afford the members an opportunity to learn public speaking.

At intervals throughout the year, prominent men of the community and of the state, and if possible, of national fame, will speak. At the meeting held at the high school, Wednesday evening, October 7th, ex-Mayor Gaddis spoke about the issues to be put before the people at the special election. At this meeting about 45 new members were initiated into the club. This brings the club membership up to forty.
