WINTER REIGNS IN THE MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Snow has made its debut in the east and middle west showing of the current farce of "Weather Unsettled." It took the leading role in the northern states, Pennsylvania and northern New York, accompanied by a fanfare of killing frosts, sleet and cold. Its premiere brought gloom to sportsmen yesterday resulting in postponement of the world's series and Chicago city series and soggy fields for today's football games.

Rising temperatures were promised the mid-west today or tomorrow as the troupe of elements extended its run in the east.
