

SUNDAY AGREES TO CONSIDER AN ASHLAND MEETING

ASHLAND, Oct. 10.—There is a possibility that Billy Sunday may come to Ashland for an extended evangelistic campaign to extend over the last of May, through June and into July. The final decision has not been given by Rev. Sunday but he is willing to consider the proposal and is apparently rather favorably inclined towards southern Oregon. The Sundays visited Ashland several years ago and liked this section. Several members of the local ministerial association made the trip to Portland to visit the Sunday meetings and to urge the needs of this end of the state. Those who made the trip were Rev. W. Judson Oldfield of the Congregational church, Rev. Myron S. Woodworth, of the Baptist church, Rev. V. K. Allison of the Church of Christ and Rev. J. C. Mergler of the Presbyterian church. The Ashland ministers were deeply impressed with the earnestness and vigor with which Rev. Sunday preaches the gospel. The ministers had long conferences with Rev. Sunday and his wife and talked over every possible phase of the organization necessary for effective work. The cost of a series of meetings here would be only about half of the cost in other cities, owing to the fact that Ashland has adequate room for the crowds in the Chattanooga building. It is hoped that in the final decision that Ashland will be included in the Sunday schedule for the coming year. Secretary John H. Fuller of the Commercial club of this city, and J. W. McCoy of the First National bank, and president of the State Bankers' association made the trip to Crescent City this week to be present at a discussion of the completion of the Crescent City harbor. Both Mr. Fuller and Mr. McCoy were speakers before the committee urging the promotion of the harbor work. Fifty members are reported for the Oregon State Motor association. The fine showing is due to the efforts of the Kiwanians and the Lithians during the past week. The goal set is 150 members and that number seems assured with the fine start already made. At the Kiwanian club luncheon today, names of possible members were distributed to each Kiwanian to solicit. The Lithians, in contest with the Kiwanians are confident that by means of some new and secret scheme they will be able to vanquish the Kiwanians in the struggle for membership. The campaign is successful beyond expectation. In the statement of B. C. McHenry who has the work in charge, Mr. McHenry is field secretary of the Oregon State Motor association. Mr. McHenry says that he thinks the membership will exceed the goal set. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wenner returned Thursday evening from Emmet, Idaho, where they had gone about three weeks ago on account of the illness of Mrs. W. S. Hall. The prevention has been the topic discussed by several organizations this week. At the Kiwanian luncheon on Friday at the Lithia Springs hotel, E. C. Chief Clinton Baughman spoke in regard to local problems in fire prevention. Homer Billings spoke on national waste caused by fires, and A. V. Mills on fire with its relation to human life. John Shortridge, Raymond Shortridge and Rudy McVie have returned in a week's outing and duck hunt at Buck Prairie. Mrs. Milton Fraley has returned from a visit to Portland. The directors of school district No. 2 have issued a call for bids for the erection of the new grade school building on the property recently acquired on Beach street. Tourist and Hummel of Portland are the architects. The Ashland high football team will meet Klamath Falls on the Klamath field on Saturday afternoon. A number of Ashland people will go over to see the game and to cheer on the boys in their efforts to wrest a victory from Klamath Falls. Ashland's team is short on veterans this year and the men are tight, but Ashland expects a real game in spite of those drawbacks. Eighteen boys have signed up for the high school band. The band was completely reorganized this year as nearly all of the old members have graduated. It will be hard to replace the old players but it is hoped that every boy who can play any band instrument will turn out and do his bit towards the new organization. For several years the Ashland high band has been one of the finest community organizations for the boys of this city and Ashland has been proud of their work. Credit is chiefly due to Carl Loveland, who has worked untiringly to bring about the success of the organization. There will be no school sessions held in Ashland on Thursday and Friday of the coming week. The teachers will be in attendance at the county institute at Medford. Miss Albertine McCall will leave soon for Los Angeles to study music there. Two father and son banquets were held in the Baptist and Presbyterian churches of Ashland on Friday evening, October 9th, at 8:30. About 145 men and boys gathered at the two places for a real get-together time. After the supper social speakers gave talks pertaining to the relations between fathers and sons. Among the speakers were Supt. Michael of the Grants Pass schools, A. E. Young, V. M. C. A. worker from Portland, V. O. N. Smith and V. D. Miller of Ashland. Rev. S. J. Chaney presided at the Baptist church, and W. M. Wright at the Presbyterian church. Philip Bryant responded to the welcoming address to the boys at the Presbyterian church. A quartet composed of Dr. H. L. Burdick, Wm. M. Briggs, V. D. Miller and G. H. Yeo sang good selections at both gatherings in turn.

MRS. M. L. ALFORD, PIONEER WOMAN OF COUNTY, DIES

Catherine K. Alford, mother of M. L. Alford, city recorder of Medford, and one of the early pioneers of Oregon and Jackson county, died at her home in Talent Friday, October 9, at 2:20 p. m., after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Alford crossed the plains by ox team, eastward bound with friends, her parents being dead, in 1850, locating in Linn county. She was married to Albert Alford in 1854 and came to Jackson county in 1869, locating first on the Kahler ranch near Tolo and moved to Talent in 1874, where she has since resided and where Mr. Alford died in October, 1921. The deceased was born in Missouri December 24, 1838 and was 84 years, 8 months and 15 days old at her death. She was a devout member of the Baptist church, in which she was active until a few years ago when her health commenced to fail. She was a devoted wife and mother and a friend to everyone. Her splendid deeds of kindness from pioneer days up until her death will be remembered by many people in this county. Deceased was the mother of four children: H. A. Alford of Klamath Falls, M. L. of Medford, Mrs. L. F. Willis of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. C. W. Walters of Talent, deceased; and leaves five grand children and six great grandchildren, living. The three children who are living were present at the time of her death. Funeral services will be held at her late residence in Talent at 2 p. m. Sunday, interment in Medford cemetery, Conger Funeral Parlor in charge.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 10.—Coach Schisler's Aggies suffered one casualty in their 22 to 0 victory over the Gonzaga team here yesterday, as Robbins, first string end, who made the first touchdown for his team was taken to the hospital with a torn ligament. Robbins was taken from the game early in the second quarter after a vicious tackle laid him out. Aggie's stock leaped wonderfully since the one-sided victory yesterday over a veteran team undefeated for two years. Though the team play was ragged in a number of cases, the Beavers displayed abundance of power in the line, improved tackling and blocking, good offensive and defense in the passing game, and an accurate shifty backfield. Their greatest weakness was in punting, averaging but 35 yards in fourteen tries to 45 yards for the visitors.

RACES POSTPONED BY WINTER GALE

MITCHEL FIELD, NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A 65 miles an hour wind caused the postponement of today's events in the national air races. The Pulitzer speed classic and other contests scheduled for today will be held Monday. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(A. P.)—Chilling weather with more to come was the frapped forecast handed out today by the weather man to the thousands of baseball fans as they trooped their way out to Griffith stadium for the third game of the world's series. There was no indication of any climb in the temperature, which hovered around the 40-degree mark near game time. Heaviest winter overcoats and sweaters were in fashion at the ball park.

Herman KO's Ritchie MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 10.—Tiny Herman, Portland heavyweight, knocked out Earl Ritchie of Klamath Falls, in the fifth round of a ten round bout before one thousand fans here last night. Ritchie was knocked out in the previous round, but the referee thought the gong had sounded.

Yesterday's Results. At Portland, 6; Sacramento, 3. At Seattle, 3; Salt Lake, 2. At San Francisco, 2; Vernon, 1. At Los Angeles, 3; Oakland, 2.

Easy Lessons in AUCTION BRIDGE. New Series by WYNNE FERGUSON. Author of 'Ferguson on Auction Bridge'. Copyright 1923 by Hoyle, Jr.

ARTICLE No. 1

Auction is a game of contrasts. One hand will play well and the next one badly; that is, on one hand you will get all the "breaks," and on the next, everything will go wrong. It is a game of such infinite variety that no player can ever hope to master all its quirks and turns. Even the best of players lose their judgment at times and allow their own hand to influence their bidding to their disadvantage when they should realize that their partner has an unusual or freak hand. The other night, the writer noticed two examples of this failure to be on the lookout for the unusual or freak type of hand. The dealer with the following hand: Hearts—A, 7 Clubs—A, 9, 4, 2 Diamonds—A, Q, J, 8 Spades—A, K, 4 bid one no-trump. Second hand passed and the dealer's partner bid two hearts. Fourth hand passed and the dealer bid two no-trumps. When his partner bid three hearts, the dealer failed to realize that if his partner had a justifiable three heart bid, they had a sure game in hearts, and bid three no-trump although there was no sure game in no-trump. The 100 aces were too much for his judgment and as a result he went down three tricks undoubled, a net loss of 50 points on a hand that would have scored game at hearts. His partner's hand was as follows: Hearts—Q, J, 10, 9, 6, 4 Clubs—Q, 6, 3 Diamonds—10, 9, 7 Spades—5 Don't allow 100 aces to impair your judgment. The same player made a similar error on the following hand: Hearts—A, Q, 10 Clubs—none Hearts—5, 4, 3 Clubs—A, Q, 7, 5 Diamonds—6, 4 Spades—8, 7, 5, 2 Hearts—K, Q, 7, 6 Clubs—10, 4, 2 Diamonds—K, 9, 3 Spades—A, 6, 4 Hearts—A, J, 10, 9 Clubs—K, 8, 6 Diamonds—A, 8, 5 Spades—J, 9, 3 Z, the player in question, dealt and bid no-trump. All passed and A opened the five of clubs. Z won the trick with the king and led four rounds of hearts. B discarded two diamonds on the last two rounds of hearts. Z was now in a position where he could make two odd but figured that if he could force B to make another discard, he might possibly make three odd by making three diamonds or two spades. At trick five, therefore, he led the ten of clubs, forcing A to win the trick, who thereupon led three rounds of clubs. B was now forced to make another discard. He could have discarded either a spade or diamond. If the former, Z would discard a diamond and make two spade tricks. If the latter, Z would discard a spade and make three diamond tricks. It is a perfect example of the "squeeze" play. Study the play of this hand carefully for it was cleverly thought out. It is very unusual to win a game by leading your opponent's suit.

Problem No. 1 Hearts—none Clubs—8, 5, 3 Diamonds—6, 4 Spades—Q, 8, 6 Hearts—K, 8 Clubs—J, 9, 3 Diamonds—K, 8 Spades—5, 3, 2 There are no trumps and Z is in the lead. How can YZ win six of the eight tricks against any defense? Solution in the next article.

UNADJUSTED LIGHTS RESULT IN ARRESTS

Mrs. M. Anderson of this city, is the first woman arrested and fined for driving at night with improper lights, not having been adjusted in compliance with the state law. On her plea of guilty in Justice J. L. Roe's court in Jacksonville yesterday, she received a fine of $10. The arrest was made by J. J. McMahon. Willard Clark, a Trail youth, is the first man arrested by C. P. Talent on the Jacksonville highway, he was fined $10 by the same court. Bert Beckelhymer is a third traffic violator fined $10 by Justice Roe yesterday. He pleaded guilty to driving a motor vehicle without an operator's license.

WASHINGTON WINS THIRD GAME

(Continued from page one.) double play, Peck to Stan Harris to Judge. No runs, no hits, no errors. Washington—Rice up. The dust was worrying the infielders, blowing into their eyes. Rice hit the first ball, and was thrown out. Carey took in Stan Harris' fly. Goslin up. The home folks called on Goose for a home run. Kremer worked a slow ball on Goslin. Goslin struck out and on a passed ball, which Smith did not catch, ran clear to second base. The Pirates kicked vigorously but to no purpose. Judge up. Strike one, called. The umpire called for the ball and after looking it over threw it back. The four umpires came in and had a discussion near the plate. It was then decided to send Goslin back to first, being only a matter of time on the passed ball. The one strike was then withdrawn on Judge. Judge popped to Grantham. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning.

Pittsburg—Traynor up. The official scorer has given Smith an error as well as a passed ball. Traynor got a three-base hit to right, which got away from Harris when he fell down. Traynor scored on Wright's sacrifice fly to Goslin. The official scorer has now decided that Smith does not get an error. Peck made a remarkable catch of Grantham's pop fly. Peck took care of Smith's fly. One run; one hit; no errors.

Washington—Harris was a strike-out victim, swinging hard for his third strike. Myer went out. Kremer to Moore to Grantham. Peck up. Carey walked three feet to his right and dropped Peck's easy fly. Peck went to second while Carey was recovering the ball. It was the first Pirate error of the series. Ruel sacrificed to first on four balls. Ferguson struck out, missing a wide curve for the third strike. No runs; one hit; no errors.

Third Inning.

Pittsburg—Kremer up. Kremer took a third strike with his bat on his shoulder. Moore up. Muddy Ruel took Moore's foul near the visitors' bench. Muddy Ruel took Carey's bunt and threw him out at first. No runs; no hits; no errors.

Washington—Rice up. Rice singled over the middle bag and the crowd was happy. Stan Harris sacrificed, Traynor to Grantham. Goose Goslin up. "Come on, Goose," cried the crowd. Goslin fled out to Cuyler and Rice raced to third on the catch. Rice scored on Judge's two-base hit along the right field foul line. The crowd cheered and Mrs. Coolidge clapped her hands. Wright took Harris' grounder and threw wildly to first, but Judge was out at the plate trying to score. Grantham to Smith. One run, two hits, one error.

Fourth Inning.

Pittsburg—Cuyler got a two-base hit to left center. Barnhart up. Barnhart singled into left and Cuyler scored. On the throw-in Barnhart raced to second. Marberry is warming up for Washington. Traynor walked. Wright up. Peck took Wright's grounder and threw him out at first, no sacrifice, Barnhart

Fifth Inning.

Pittsburg—Moore up. Moore struck out, swinging futilely at a sinker. Carey singled over second base and then stretched it by fast running, making two bases when Sam Rice momentarily held the ball. Carey caught the Washington club asleep on his hit. Myer threw out Cuyler. Carey going to third. Myer made a pretty play on Cuyler's roller. Barnhart fouled out to Judge. No runs; one hit; no errors.

Washington—Ferguson up. Ferguson struck out, for the second time. Rice beat out a roller to third for his second hit. He topped a slow ball, driving it into the ground. No play was made to get him. Stan Harris hit into a double play, Moore to Grantham. Harris' liner went right at Moore and Moore had no trouble in disposing of Rice who was on his way to second. No runs; one hit; no errors.

Sixth Inning.

Pittsburg—Traynor up. Rice took Traynor's long fly as it was about to go into the center field bleachers. The crowd breathed a sigh of relief. Peck took Wright's grounder and threw wide to first. It was Peck's fourth error of the series. Ruel almost picked Wright off first. Grantham whiffed. Smith up. Smith singled into right and Wright by fast running made third, getting in ahead of Harris' throw. Wright scored on Kremer's hit which took a mean hop past Harris. Smith stopped at second. Moore up. Moore walked and the bases were filled with two out. Carey up. Carey struck out and was thrown out at first. Ruel to Judge. One run, two hits, one error.

Washington—Goslin up. The crowd cried for a rally. Kremer was pitching good ball, mixing up his delivery, hooks and fast balls. Goslin got a home run into the right field stands and the crowd cheered. It was a terrific smash. Judge sent up a fly to Carey who had trouble gauging it in the wind. Harris singled past Moore. Myer struck out, swinging weakly at a fast ball. Peck singled into left Harris stopping at second. Ruel up. Traynor took Ruel's roller and touched third. One run, three hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning.

Pittsburg—The blanchettes gave Goslin a cheer when he went into the field. Peck took Cuyler's grass cutter and threw him out. Goslin took Barnhart's fly after a long run. Traynor sent up a little fly to Stan Harris. No runs, no hits, no errors. The crowd stood up for the usual seventh inning rally. The president and Mrs. Coolidge also stood up.

Washington—Leibold batted for Ferguson. Kremer and Smith went over to Manager McKechnie to discuss Leibold's batting weakness. Leibold is a little man and hard to pitch to. Leibold walked on four pitched balls. Rice up. McNeely ran for Leibold. It was the hit and run play and McNeely was nearly to second when Rice fouled the ball. Barnhart made a beautiful catch of Rice's seeming hit and McNeely had to race back to first. Stan Harris scratched an infield hit toward third. It was his first hit of the series. McNeely went to second on the hit. With Goslin up the crowd was cheering like mad. Goose hit a long foul to right. Goose Goslin bunted safely, catching the Pirate infield fast asleep. Traynor was flat on his feet. McNeely scored on Judge's sacrifice fly to Carey. Stan Harris held second as Carey threw to third. Joe Harris up. Harris went after a ball on the outside of the plate. Stan Harris scored on Joe Harris' single to left Goslin stopping at second. Everybody was cheering for the old rally. Myer up. Smith went out and took Myer's splash and touched him on the line. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning.

Pittsburg—McNeely went into center for Washington and Rice into right. Wright up. Marberry now pitching for the Senators. Wright struck out, his third strike being a fast curve. Grantham also struck out, missing a drop curve for a third strike. Rice robbed Smith of a home run with a wonderful glove-hand stop just as the ball was about to go into the bleachers for a home run. It was one of the most remarkable catches ever seen in a world series game. It duplicated in brilliance the catch of Harris' hopper in one of the Boston Red Sox games in 1912. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Washington—The Pirates claimed Rice did not catch the ball, but Umpire Rigler would not allow it. Traynor made easy work of Peck's hopper getting him at first. Ruel sharply singled over Wright's head. Marberry sacrificed. Rice up. He got an ovation. Mrs. Coolidge joining in the applause. Wright threw out Rice at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ninth Inning.

Pittsburg—Bigbee batted for Kremer. Bigbee fled out to McNeely, making a nice catch. Moore up. Moore got a single over Peck's head. Carey up. Some spectators got into the field from the right field bleachers and were sent back again. Carey up. Carey singled into right, Moore going to third. Cuyler up. Cuyler was hit by a pitched ball and the bases were filled. Barnhart up. Barnhart popped to Ruel. Traynor up. Traynor fled to McNeely. The count was three and two. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Washington—Goslin up. Goslin hit to left center. Barnhart up. Barnhart singled into left and Cuyler scored. On the throw-in Barnhart raced to second. Marberry is warming up for Washington. Traynor walked. Wright up. Peck took Wright's grounder and threw him out at first, no sacrifice, Barnhart

He now has a $2,000,000 mill on the Eugene-Klamath Falls line and declared that statements belittling service by a single line were not true. He said a line from Odell to Crane would cross a desert with no traffic and "only two places where you could get a drink of water in eight miles." H. C. Hallmark, general freight agent of the Southern Pacific at San Francisco, described the traffic that may be expected by the company's projects and produced a digest of the distribution of shipments of lumber in 1924, showing that most of the lumber consumed was in states where the shortest route would be by the new Southern Pacific lines.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 9.—Impetus was given the proposed Harding Memorial Park at the summit of the Blue mountains last night at an enthusiastic gathering of representatives from Oregon and Inland Empire towns. The meeting was for the purpose of bringing the project which will commemorate the late President, prominently before a larger body of people. At the meeting it was stated that coinage of gold dollars to facilitate building of the project will be started as soon as congress can pass a law authorizing such an act. A bill will be introduced at the next session in regard to the coinage of dollars which will sell for $2, half of which will go into the park fund.

State Senator Bruce Dennis, presiding over the meeting stated the project was one of the greatest missions undertaken by people west of the Rockies. Cook with gas.
