The Association vaudeville bill at the Craterian last night was one of the best in weeks, and above the ordinary in entertainment value. Joe Jenks and the Empire quartette made a pronounced hit, with the audience, closely followed by Elizabeth Friedman and her Elida Ballet, a troupe of girls who could dance. Stuart Darlow offered a novelty with his smoke pictures. Trout and Jeff, burnt cork comedians, tickled the crowd.

The show closed with a balancing act by Arnold and Florence, an English vaudeville team. The man performed a daring balancing act, and the lady danced cleverly.

WATCH YOUR FRAIL, PUNY CHILD GROW STRONG—TAKE ON WEIGHT

In just a few days—quicker than you ever dreamt of—these wonderful flesh making tablets called McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets will start to help any weak, thin, undernourished little one.

After sickness and where rickets are suspected they are especially valuable. No need to give them any more nasty Cod Liver Oil—these tablets are made to take the place of that good but evil smelling, stomach upsetting medicine and they surely do it. They do put on flesh.

Ask Heath's Drug Store, or any drugist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—as easy to take as candy and not at all expensive—60 tablets 60 cents.

Be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine and give the child a chance for 30 days. If you aren't delighted with results you get your money back. Adv.
