WILLOW SPRINGS TO GIVE A SHOW ON HALLOWE'EN

WILLOW SPRINGS, Oct. 15.—There will be a Halloween entertainment at the Willow Springs school house on the evening of Oct. 31. Every one is cordially invited to attend. Ladies are requested to bring cookies; the rest of the supper being furnished by the Willow Springs Thursday club. There will be music and readings followed by a mock trial. A noted judge will occupy the bench and some eminent lawyers have been secured. The following is the jury panel: Oscar Blackford, Earl Nichols, M. E. Young, P. A. Bonney, Mrs. Fred Straub, Mrs. J. W. Birkholz, Mrs. Clyde Richmond, B. St. Bush, Jeff Single, Mrs. H. Ching-wit, A. V. Carlson, Miss Rose Jones.

There is considerable building in this district. The barn on the Feldenhelmier place was finished in record time and the foundation is in for the new residence on that place. The new house is to face on Seaside avenue and Roy Nichols and family will live there when it is finished. Earl Heft and family will occupy the house where Nichols now live.

A. V. Carlson and J. W. Birkholz have the foundation in for a cottage they are going to build for Dr. L. A. Salade. Mr. and Mrs. J. Boardman will occupy the new house and Edwin Boardman and family the other cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Duwe left last Saturday with a party of friends for a hunting trip along the Umpqua divide. They expect to stay until the hunting season is over unless the weather gets very bad.

J. S. Miner is somewhat improved in health and able to sit out in the sunshine.

A. V. Carlson has just built a new fuge on his house.

Roland Birkholz caught three eight-pound pack salmon at Highbanks Sunday.

Messrs. Nichols, Heft, Hammond and Mills left Thursday morning on a hunting trip to the sugar pine country. They will be gone a week.

This week Billy Penninger had a 70x40 foot canvas stolen from a hay-stack.

DE MOLAY GIVEN VENISON BANQUET AT GRANITE CITY

ASHLAND, Oct. 15.—The southern Oregon chapters of the order of De Molay were guests of the Ashland Lithia chapter on Wednesday night. Seventy-five members gathered to do honor to the venison feast which was provided by Mr. D. M. Lowe, chairman of the advisory council. Among the guests were members from Yreka, Grants Pass and Medford. The venison was furnished by D. M. Lowe, who lately had the good fortune to kill two fine deer. The feast was finished off with a watermelon feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williamson of Medford spent Thursday visiting at the Will M. Dodge home on the Boulevard.

The rummage sale put on by the Civic Improvement club on Friday and Saturday of last week was a decided success. While the sale did not reach the dimensions of similar sales of previous years, still the proceeds were over $200. Much of the success of the sale is due to Mrs. A. H. Pracht, who was chairman of the committee in charge. J. H. McGee very generously gave the use of part of the room which he formerly occupied with his stock of dry goods, and in addition donated 10 per cent of his Friday and Saturday sales in his old store. The corner which had been arranged for the sale of food was most attractive with autumn decorations and the supply of cooked foods was soon disposed of. There were departments of adult clothing, children's clothing, millinery and miscellaneous wares. The bed spread which was offered as a prize to the holder of the lucky number given at the gun sale, was won by Cash Walker.

The Mount Ashland chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will meet on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Stearns at her Oak street home. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. W. E. Blake and Miss Carol Mitchell.

Old Resident Given Up by Physicians

"Given up by five doctors, my only hope an operation. I rebelled on cutting me open, as I am 75 years old. A neighbor advised trying May's Wonderful remedy for stomach troubles. I got relief right away. I had not eaten for 10 days and was as yellow as a gold piece. I could have lived only a few days but for this medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.
