CHARLEY PURSEL BADLY HURT IN FIGHT WITH HOBO

Charles Pursel, well known local truck driver with the Medford Transfer company, lies in a Roseburg hospital suffering from three broken ribs, a mangled arm, and a ear nearly severed from the head, and possible internal injuries, as a result of being pulled under the wheels of a truck while attempting to prevent a tramp from climbing aboard in the Wolf Creek canyon Wednesday evening.

The truck, driven by a brother, Nelson Pursel, was enroute to Medford from Roseburg when a tramp hailed for a ride. The man clambered on the side, and in an attempt to push him off, in compliance with the company's rules against giving strangers rides, as the truck was going at a slow speed, Pursel was pulled under the wheels while the tramp made his escape. Before the machine could be stopped the rear wheels had passed over his body, grinding one ear into the dirt, besides causing the other injuries mentioned.

Mrs. Pursel is at the bedside of her injured husband, who, it is expected, will be removed to his home in the city some time next week. His brother, Nelson, returned to the city with the truck the next day.

After he had finally started his motorcycle this morning near the Nash Hotel with several persons watching, G. O. Travis of the hill country lost control of the machine. The throttle was wide open, apparently, as his machine gained great speed in a few feet before it crashed into the rear of a closed car owned by Mrs. Haezberg and parked a few feet ahead. No damage resulted except a bent bumper. As the motorcyclist left he declared, "I guess I'll take this thing to the mountains where I got more space to roam."

PLEADS GUILTY TO TAKING BATTERY, GETS 40 DAYS

On his plea of guilty to petty larceny, involving the theft of a storage battery from J. T. Davis, William Woods, a former truck driver was sentenced in Justice Roe's court at Jacksonville yesterday to 40 days in the county jail.

He was arrested yesterday morning by Chief of Police Adams and at that time denied any part in the theft. When the missing property was found in an outbuilding he admitted that he had stolen it. Woods was a former employe of Davis, driving a truck used in the transfer business and was familiar with the location of the property, it is said.

According to the district attorney's office, Mr. Davis has lost over 100 worth of property within the past several years through petty thieving. Law enforcing officials expect that the sentence given to Woods will serve as an example to others.
