

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

REV. R. W. NELSON INSTALLED PASTOR PHOENIX CHURCH

PHOENIX, Oct. 16.—The closing session of the fall meeting of the Presbytery of southern Oregon at Phoenix was given over to the formal installation of Rev. R. W. Nelson as the settled pastor of the Phoenix church. Mr. Nelson has been serving the church for about a year, and yesterday received from the north Montana conference of the M. E. church and enrolled in the Presbytery of southern Oregon.

The meeting last night was attended by many of the Phoenix people and some from Medford, Ashland and Rogue River. Rev. Joseph W. Angell, the present moderator of the Presbytery, presided and put the constitutional question to the pastor and the people. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. C. Hulet, recently the moderator of the Presbytery, and the pastor at Merrill and Malin. He has just accepted a call to the Myrtle Point church in Coos bay Presbytery and moved his family there last week.

Rev. O. T. Morgan gave the charge to the pastor and Rev. E. P. Lawrence, pastor of the Medford church, charged the people. Other ministers taking part in the installation service were Rev. W. Lee Gray of Butte Falls, Rev. W. S. McCullagh of Roseburg and Rev. J. R. Lamb of Sutherlin.

On Tuesday evening Rev. Harvey Klaier of New York gave an address on "Evangelism," and President C. W. Greene of Albany college an address on "Building a Christian Social Order." Tuesday afternoon was given over to a splendid conference on "Evangelism, Christian Education and the Home," in charge of Mr. Klaier and Rev. W. L. Van Noy of Portland.

At the business sessions yesterday plans were started for a suitable memorial at Jacksonville to the Rev. Moses A. "Father" Williams, the pioneer minister of this section, who was buried at Jacksonville after 49 years of labor in southern Oregon, resulting in establishing six churches. Among these are the Presbyterian churches in Jacksonville, Medford, Ashland and Phoenix. The memorial plans are in charge of four elders, one from each of these churches, C. B. Lamkin of Ashland, A. H. Fisher of Phoenix, H. F. W. Spilner of Medford and Otto Neidermeyer of Jacksonville.

Rev. J. K. Howard, formerly living in Medford and preaching at Jacksonville, and more recently at Oakland, was dismissed to the presbytery of southern Arizona, where he is now serving the church at Globe. Rev. Joseph L. Beatty of Cottage Grove, and for many years a minister in the M. E. church, was received at his own request and enrolled in the presbytery of southern Oregon. He was formerly pastor of the united Methodist and Presbyterian churches at Central Point and is well known in the valley.

Rev. Joseph Mikovsky, who has recently taken up the work at Malin, Ore., was received from the southwest Bohemian presbytery of Texas and enrolled. He is doing splendid work at Malin and has just refused a very fine offer in Texas to come to a smaller church in southern Oregon.

The delegates chosen by this presbytery to attend the national general assembly of the Presbyterian church in 1926, which meets in May at Baltimore, Md., are: Ministers, Rev. J. W. Angell of Glendale, principal; Rev. A. L. Elise of Klamath Falls, alternate; elders, John S. Bonar of Phoenix, principal, and B. S. Nichols of Roseburg, alternate.

Rev. W. H. Amos, who has been the Sunday school missionary of this presbytery for about three years, resigned to enter business, probably in Seattle. Leonard C. Brown of the Phoenix church and now a student for the ministry at the seminary at San Anselmo, Cal., was licensed temporarily to preach, as he is serving part time the St. James Mission church at San Francisco in connection with his studies.

At his own request Rev. J. B. Quick, formerly the Presbyterian pastor at Roseburg and for a year past the minister of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church at San Diego, Cal., was dropped from the membership of this presbytery.

Elder James Martin of the Rogue River church and the lay delegate in 1925 to the general assembly which met at Columbus, Ohio, gave a splendid report of that meeting, one of the best reports given for years.

The death of Elder W. S. Slough of Klamath Falls since the April meeting was noted with an appropriate memorial adopted yesterday. Mr. Slough having been one of the best liked and most helpful laymen in the Presbyterian church in southern Oregon.

The Phoenix church people, as usual, royally entertained the good number of delegates in attendance. Next April the meeting will be in the Ashland church.

The Ladies' Aid served luncheon and dinners for the visiting delegates. Clyde hall, which served as the dining room, was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and leaves. Delegates were entertained at the homes as follows: Rev. W. H. Amos by A. H. Fisher, J. W. Angell and Mr. and Mrs. Martin by John Bonar, Rev. J. R. Lamb and Rev. W. S. McCullagh by J. M. Baker, Rev. and Mrs. Arthur L. Rice by T. M. Norris, Rev. W. Lee Gray and Rev. McVicker by C. C.

Hartley, Mrs. Day of Butte Falls by R. W. Nelson, Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Hulet by Mr. Walker, Rev. Mikovsky and Mr. Jinnette by Dr. Miller and Mr. Slack by Henry Frame. Others attending were Rev. J. C. Mergler, Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Lawrence, Rev. and Mrs. Carle, Rev. Joseph McVeigh, and a number of people from Medford, Ashland and the surrounding country.

The personnel of the presbytery of southern Oregon is as follows: R. W. Nelson, Phoenix; W. H. Amos, Ashland; Joseph W. Angell, Glendale; W. M. Calle, Rogue River; E. H. Edgar, Jacksonville; W. Lee Gray, Butte Falls; Fred Gordon Hart, Grants Pass; John K. Howard, Oakland; C. C. Hulet, Merrill; John W. Knott, Independence; Jasper R. Lamb, Sutherlin; W. S. McCullagh, Roseburg; Joseph A. McVeigh, Glendale; Oscar T. Morgan, Ph. D., Medford; Arthur L. Rice, Klamath Falls; W. Alex Smith, Rogue River; Rev. Wilson, Rogue River; George A. Wilbur, Lakeview; E. P. Lawrence, Medford; Jacob C. Mergler, Ashland. Candidates are Martin D. Paulin, Kobe, Japan; Adams A. Jack, Los Angeles, and Quick L. Bowring, San Diego.

FOOTS CREEK NEWS

G. W. Matthews was hauling corn to Mr. O'Kelly at Rogue River the first of the week.

Preliminary work at the Black Channel gold mine is now under way to prepare dwellings for the men.

Mr. Carle, accompanied by his wife and Rev. W. A. Smith, went to Phoenix Wednesday to attend the meeting of the presbytery of southern Oregon.

Harry Slevin was home for a brief look at his place but went away again Tuesday, taking the stage for Grants Pass. He did not reveal his destination but seemed to be going away for an extended period.

F. C. Elliott is making quite a hit displaying nice apples for sale at 35 cents a box.

Mr. Carle has been peddling sauer kraut at Rogue River and Grants Pass this week. He is still making more. It is said to be fine stuff.

TALENT TALK

Wm. High who several weeks ago fell from his chicken house and sustained severe injuries is out and around and is feeling pretty spry again.

H. H. Lowe and son were down to Medford Thursday on business.

Principal E. E. Evans, who was confined to his bed last week with the flu, is about again and is attending the Teachers Institute at Medford with his teachers. H. H. Lowe substituted for Mr. Evans during his illness.

Glen Bond caught a fine silverside at the river Thursday. Glen hooked another big one which proved too large for his tackle and after a few moments of play Glen decided the safest thing to do was to give the fish his tackle.

Ernest Williams and Elsie Newby were taking in Medford Thursday.

MISSOURI FLAT

Mrs. George Moore and children have returned from Texas where they have been spending the past two months.

Miss Etta Miller has gone from the hospital to her aunt's home in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. B. McFadden spent Saturday shopping in Grants Pass.

Jack Newman has been sawing wood for J. T. Cook.

Dixie York has been absent from school, due to illness.

A number of the boys from the community have gone on a hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Woolridge were called to Grants Pass, owing to the death of Mrs. Woolridge's sister.

Mrs. George Woolridge has moved to Grants Pass for medical treatment.

Cook with gas

Follow up your "daily dozen" with the breakfast food that keeps you fit!

Shredded Wheat

A FULL MEAL IN 2 BISCUITS

RANGE CATTLE AT SARDINE CREEK IN FINE SHAPE

SARDINE CREEK, Oct. 16.—J. U. Smith and sons, John and Harold, drove out a fine bunch of beef cattle recently, which they sold to some parties south of Ashland, for winter feeders. The range has been unusually good this summer, with few forest fires, and the range cattle are all in fine shape for the winter.

Word has been received from Mrs. Eva Kimball, who has been at the bedside of her brother, Judge E. H. Miller of Hedonia Beach, Calif., for several weeks, that he passed away on October 6, after a lingering illness of three months. He was laid to rest in the beautiful Inglewood cemetery in Los Angeles. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, two sons and three daughters, of Los Angeles, one brother, Curtis Miller, and sister, Mrs. Kimball of this place, and another sister, Mrs. Hopkins of Holly, Colorado, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. H. H. Elhart and son Billy of Ashland, were visitors at the Wait home Sunday, and were accompanied home by Mrs. Wait, who remained till Tuesday.

Florence Miller and Mrs. Lulu Dusenberry were Medford visitors one day last week, where the former had some dental work done and the latter had her eyes tested and glasses fitted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dusenberry and Mildred Dusenberry were Sunday visitors at the Carter saw mill near Hill, Calif., with Sam Dusenberry and family. The newcomers visited plenty of rain and fog on the return over the Siskiyou mountains.

Tom Griffiths and George King have purchased a team and wagon, and are marketing a fine lot of dry wood in Gold Hill and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fiene were business visitors in Grants Pass on Tuesday.

Art Bickerdyke and family of Talent, were Sunday callers at the home of his cousin, S. A. Dusenberry. Mr. Bickerdyke's mother was a sister of the late R. L. Dusenberry of this place, and spent one summer visiting relatives here, several years ago.

We were visited by our first killing frost of the season on Tuesday morning, and that was only in spots, plants that were in any way protected escaped freezing and even some that were entirely in the open were not hurt.

John Smith, our road supervisor, has a team and some men at work on the left hand fork of the creek, removing some slides from the new grades built there, to prevent the fall rains from washing out the road.

Our school has two days' vacation this week, Thursday and Friday, as the county teachers' institute convenes at that time, which all teachers must attend.

RUSSELL'S Sensational SALE OF WONDERFUL COATS COMBINED WITH THE October Dress Sale

WILL MAKE SATURDAY THE BIGGEST GARMENT DAY WE EVER HAD BECAUSE VALUES ARE THE MOST REMARKABLE WE EVER OFFERED

COATS AT TWENTY-FIVE

Vicuna Suede, Velours, Brytonia, American and Raritan Bolivia—all the best fabrics of the season. Cracklehead Blue, Sea Swallow, Tauegar, Black Prince, Grenat, Landscape and Black—the best colors being shown. Great gorgeous fur collars, mandel dyed in the colors to match the fabrics, Wolf, Coney, Squirrel and other real good furs that add so much to the attractiveness of the Coats today. Crepe de Chene and Satin linings, many of them interlined. Sizes range from 14 size to the extra outside coats. These Coats were made to sell at prices way over $25—some are $35 coats, others range in value up to $45. They are new Coats and the price is only made possible by the manufacturer's desire to help us put over this big Coat event Saturday at $25

$15

for Dresses

Regular $25.00 Values . .

In dresses as well as Coats there is nothing but the newest numbers just in from New York. Velvets and velvet and plaid wool combinations—big right now, satins by the dozen, fine wools and flannels and high class balbriggans—other balbriggans can be had as low as $6.75. Such wonderful dresses at so low a price that we know you'll be agreeably surprised at the beautiful, entirely new circular flare effects and other entirely new creations. You'll find these dresses copies of the highest type dresses made and it's a fact that these dresses selling at $25 are the biggest selling numbers in the cities today. We emphasize the word COME, you'll be well repaid by the wonderful saving on Dresses Saturday $15

100 Girls' New Balbriggan, Wool, Velvet and Silk Dresses Just in Today for Special Saturday Selling—Ages 6 to 14 Years at $3.50 and $5.00