

Local and Personal

A change in the fine weather that has been prevailing lately is indicated by the official prediction for Sunday, which forecasts cloudiness and probable rain. Nevertheless quite a number of residents of Medford and the valley, and also some visitors, plan to take a trip to Crater lake tomorrow. The road to the lake and the weather there were declared today to be ideal.

SUSPECTS PROVE TO BE CONVICTS LET OUT ON PAROLES

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 17.—Oregon Smith and B. Harris, two of three youths who were arrested on the Pacific highway Thursday by Officer Reinhart of the state traffic squad, have proved to be paroled convicts named Cotter and Elroy, and were returned to the state prison today. George Green, a third member of their party, has been released.

The trio was nabbed on suspicion and it was found that their automobile carried license plates belonging to a car of the Blake, McFall company of Portland and that they had a kit of burlar tools in their car, including a revolver that was stolen two years ago from William Ellenburg of Corvallis. The men are also said to have stolen their car from Eugene.

Cotter is under sentence of the penitentiary for automobile theft and Elroy for forgery.

THE DALLES, Ore., Oct. 18.—(A. P.) Two funerals, one that of the girl, this afternoon, the other that of the youth, tomorrow, are to be held instead of a wedding, as the result of the tragic ending of the romance of Harold Stedman and Cressa Crane.

The coroner's inquest last night developed that the pair who were found shot to death on a road four miles south of The Dalles yesterday, had planned to be married. The girl had not changed her mind, but would not marry until Stedman had saved some money and provided some furniture for a home.

The jury's verdict was that the girl came to her death from gunshot wound inflicted by Stedman and that he had died from a self-inflicted wound. The youth was also known by the name of Steel.

It was brought out at the inquest that the note in the girl's purse regarding notification of her father in case of accident was not put there by her through fear of Stedman, but was written by her father. She had driven Stedman's car a number of times and was an inexperienced driver and her father feared she might meet with an accident.
