DAVIDSON BOY OF MURPHY IS KILLED FOR DEER

MURPHY, Ore., Oct. 23.—The people of the community were put into deep mourning caused by the death of Carter Davidson, who was recently shot for a deer. We extend our most sincere sympathy to Mrs. Davidson, who has left to make her home at Crescent City.

The public is cordially invited to attend a Halloween program and masquerade dance to be held in the old school house at Missouri flat on the evening of October 31, at 8 o'clock.

The ladies are kindly requested to bring either cake or sandwiches. No admission charged.

Buster Williams has returned home from Diamond lake, where he has been working.

James Burns, an old-time friend of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cook, surprised them Wednesday afternoon by walking in on them quite unexpectedly.

Miss Lois Parke, who is teaching at Leland, was a guest of Miss Gladys Hollopeter during institute.

Miss Esther Cook called at the McFadden home one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore are now residing in Grants Pass.

George Sophie is visiting his mother, Mrs. R. Schwager.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Miller of Keno are visiting Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeon Kubli were visiting Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Kubli.

Mrs. Hugh York visited the school Wednesday.

CLIMAX CLIMBS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coy and family spent Sunday with W. R. Holman at Lake Creek.

Walter Charley and Ora Comstock made a business trip to Medford Saturday.

Shorty Kurz and Owen Austin hunted Saturday and Sunday near here. They spent Saturday night with Andrew Grissom.

Mabel Wertz and daughters spent Sunday and Monday in Medford visiting and shopping.

Alice Dennis attended the Teachers Institute in Medford Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Many noted educators from various parts of the state gave excellent lectures. Nearly every number on the program proved to be very beneficial.

Ed Dulton is hauling lumber from the Climax mill to Guy Conner.

CENTRAL POINT COUPLE RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP

By F. M. JONES.

CENTRAL POINT, Oct. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Pickett returned the first of the week from an extended tour of the eastern and north central states. They were gone several weeks during which time they visited old familiar scenes in Vermont, Minnesota and Iowa, as well as many points of general interest along the way.

As they traveled by auto it was possible to take many side trips which appealed to them and to stop at any spot for as long a time as pleased them.

Mr. and Mrs. Pickett report wonderful roads all along the way, stating also that the famous old Yellowstone national park is laced with a network of paved roads which adds greatly to the ease with which one may reach all points of special interest.

As Mr. Pickett has been "bitting the ball" pretty steadily for a number of years this was his first vacation for some time, and as a result it was fully appreciated and the improvement in health is easily noted. But with all the beauties and wonderful country covered, Mr. Pickett says that "Oregon is good enough for me."

Mrs. I. F. Williams, who passed away on Saturday, October 17, was laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

There was a short service at the brick church, of which she had long been a member, after which the body was borne to its last resting place.

The W. R. C., of which she had been a member for years, took charge of the services, their rites lending simplicity and impressiveness to the last respects which they thus paid to a loved and honored comrade. Many friends of the deceased and flowers in profusion gave some slight impression of the love and respect which the community bore this dear woman.

Mrs. Amanda Pool, wife of A. T. Pool, was laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery last Sunday, October 18.

Little could be learned of the particulars other than that Mrs. Pool had lived in this vicinity for a number of years, her husband having been for 17 years a ranger in the forestry service. Mrs. Pool was 54 years of age at the time of her death.

The Gateway theater, which has opened under new management, is doing nicely and have booked some dandy pictures for the future, plays which have never been shown in the valley before.

Loren Paxson and his mother and sister, Mrs. E. S. Paxson and Mrs. Richard Hale, left Saturday for their homes in Montana after an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Paxson of this city.

H. Fields has taken charge of the I. O. O. F. orchestra of Medford and reports fine progress, as he has some really good material with which to work. Mr. Fields also plays for the Artisans' dance Friday night, and you know what that means.

Al Hermanson's feed store is sporting a nice new coat of paint on its front elevation. Al not only painted the store front but also the truck and, in fact, most everything but the town—that comes next.

Ernest Rostel of the Mail Tribune staff breezed into town a few days ago. "Breezed" is rather inadequate though, as the leaves are still rustling from his whirlwind passage through the city.

Messrs. W. E. Duncan and J. E. Weaver are spending a few days in Portland on business. They motored to that city in Mr. Duncan's auto.

The new home being erected by Earl Leever is beginning to take form and it will not be long before it is completed.

Jones, the jeweler, is the proud possessor of a nice stock of jewelry, which is now on display.

B. F. Cummings, who suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago, has so far recovered as to be able to walk about and it is expected that he will soon be out on the street again.

L. Hatfield, city recorder, in company with H. E. Upton, C. P. Thomason and his son, Chester Thomason, returned Wednesday night from a ten days' hunting trip to Ragdale springs on the Umpqua divide. They had a fine trip and all benefited physically by the outing.

C. P. Thomason brought down a nice three-point buck, while his son bagged a forked horn.

I. Wold was a business caller in town Thursday.

Bruce Fleming of Jacksonville was a caller in town the first of the week. Mr. Fleming laid in some supplies for his tractor and called on his old Colorado friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gear of the Hotel Central.

Ed Russell and family have left the Touville place north of town and will locate in Klamath Falls.

Recent guests registered at the Hotel Central include the following: S. G. Seltick, S. P. P. Schultz, S. P. F. Martin, T. F. Pankey, Waldport; W. T. Doyle, Waldport; W. Youns, Ed Belt, Chiloquin; F.
