

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

REPORT OF DEATH FALSE, CARR BOY NOW RECOVERING

By MRS. E. M. SCOTT.
ROGUE RIVER, Oct. 21.—I am glad to correct the item of last week in which it was stated that Leslie Carr had died from the accident he met with. The report was false, and in a letter from his mother she states he is getting along nicely and that his leg was not amputated. His friends are all rejoicing that his recovery is certain now.
Mr. Fred Dingler of this city received the sad news of the death of his brother, George Dingler, at Portland, who was injured by a limb falling and hitting him on the head. He was rushed to the hospital, but passed away before gaining consciousness.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Kelly went to the Greenspring mountain on a deer hunt the last day of the season, but were unsuccessful.
Mr. and Mrs. Reed Carter, Mrs. E. W. Scott and son Richard and Mrs. M. R. Bliss were shopping at Grants Pass Saturday night.
The marriage of Miss Sarah Blakely of Evans Valley and Grant Orin of Grants Pass is reported to have taken place at Crescent City, October 13th. Mrs. Orin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Blakely and has grown to womanhood here, where she has a host of friends who join in wishing the young couple a happy wedded life.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heilmann of Berkeley stopped over night and visited with Mrs. Heilmann's brother, Reed Carter, while enroute to their new home at Tacoma, Wash.

Oscar Shepherd, is suffering with blood poison in one of his hands and is under the doctor's care. His friends hope he will soon be alright.
Mrs. Clarence Steihl is receiving a visit from her sister, Miss Nora Jordan and her friend Miss Mae Robinson, who have been attending school at New York; also her brother, Carl Jordan and family from Minnesota. All are en route to Los Angeles, Calif.
Miss Arlene Earhart spent the week end with relatives at Medford.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Julian of Redmond, Ore., are visiting Mr. Julian's parents here, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Julian.
The Winters family who have lived here for several years have moved to Grants Pass to reside. Their friends all regret to see this family move away.

TALENT CLUB TO HAVE HALLOWE'EN PARTY SATURDAY

TALENT, Oct. 23.—The Talent Community club has announced a Halloween party to be given Saturday evening, October 31st, to which the public is invited. At a business meeting held Oct. 21, Mrs. A. L. Penland was elected president, to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mrs. W. D. Weller, and Mrs. Chester L. Wrd was elected vice-president. Refreshments were served by Mesdames Wm. Brown, Louis Brown, C. Bond and C. E. Borg.

Mrs. Alve Hendrick Carey Heller, wife of William Heller, passed away at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, October 20, after an illness of several months, following a severe stroke of paralysis. She has been a shut-in for a good many years and had a great many friends among the older residents. Funeral services were held at the Stocks chapel in Ashland at 2 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, and interment took place in the Central Point cemetery in accordance with her wishes. Her husband, William Heller, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Cassie L. Blakely of Astoria, Ore., are the only living relatives.
Dean Simpson, who has been attending school in the third grade, and his grandmother, Mrs. C. E. Martey, left Monday by motor for their home in Portland. Mrs. Martey has been spending the summer and fall with her daughter, Mrs. Harry H. Lowe.

Born, Friday, Oct. 16, to Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hopper, a baby girl.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Anderson of Medford have bought the Talent Confectionery, formerly operated by Mrs. W. D. Weller, and will make their home in Talent. Miss Inga Erikson of Medford was visiting them Monday and assisting them in opening their shop.
James Speira was suffering Tuesday with his shoulder and was obliged to call a physician.
Byron Works of Glendale was calling on old friends in Talent Wednesday.
Mrs. C. W. Long was an Ashland visitor Tuesday afternoon.
Mrs. Hurley will be hostess to the M. E. Ladies' Aid Thursday afternoon at her home across Bear creek.
All the teachers of the Talent schools attended the county institute at Medford. They report a very fine institute, helpful in a great many ways.

Mrs. A. L. Penland and Jeanette were in Medford shopping on Saturday.
Frank Centers was a Medford visitor Saturday.
Russel Alford returned Tuesday morning from Klamath Falls, where he spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends.
The car belonging to Miss Velda Walgamot caught fire Monday near the Ed Foss ranch, and was almost totally destroyed.
Friends of the Deen family were saddened when news was received of the death of Mrs. Oliver J. Deen, which occurred at Sacred Heart hospital in Medford last Saturday. The Deens resided in Talent several years but were in Derby the past year.
