

UGHERTY WILL BE CHIEF SPEAKER GOLDEN R. DINNER

ree hundred fifty places will be in the dining hall of the First Methodist church Tuesday evening on occasion of southern Oregon's Golden Rule dinner. The immediate purpose of this dinner which has been rather noted this season as the country, is the presence of William E. Dougherty of New City, and foremost in knowledge experience in the great relief work in the Near East.

READER TO GIVE SELECTIONS

reading of be given at the Presbyterian church on Sunday night 8 p. m. will be out of the ordinary in that it is the speaker's own selection and given not to depict ideal characteristics of life but to read universal message of Christ-Brotherhood so sorely needed in our torn world. It fits in at this time so well in the hour of the signing of the Locarno treaty between Germany and France in which they have agreed to disarm their arms of the past wars and any possibility of future wars.

WOMEN'S CLUB FEASTS, ELECTS OFFICERS

First Men's club gathering of all at the Presbyterian church a most happy one. Thirty-five sat down to the bounteous and delicious supper served by committee. There being two ladies among the officers created dignities, they were filled by Miss G. O. Sanden to the office of secretary and W. D. Welch to the office of treasurer. Plans are being made to give every possible assistance to the Men's Bible class, the gospel work through the valley, the Boys' club for which the church is strong, other phases of church activity.

The Sky Pilots' Forum

EDITED BY THE MEDFORD MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

"I Have Set Watchmen Upon Thy Walls, O Jerusalem." Isa. 62:1.

Best Wishes to Dr. De Yoe. It was with deep regret that the religious circles of the community as well as the ministers and his own congregation heard that Rev. J. W. De Yoe would not return to Medford, but had accepted the urgent appointment to a larger field in Salem.

Mr. De Yoe impressed the community with an exceptionally genial personality. Coming as he did during the illness of Dr. Gilbert, and subsequently his death, the new pastor gathered up the reins of a rather broken parish and in a short time had the departments of the church running smoothly and in form.

Harold Bell Wright. The Mail Tribune's editorial on the work of Harold Bell Wright is certainly worthy of more than passing notice. While some of his books may not outlive the century, still he has given to our generation some clean wholesome fiction, neither immoral nor unamoral, but with positive morality of the kind that makes an impression upon many youthful minds.

Decency and Propriety. The Holy Year committee of the Roman Catholic church in Rome has issued a circular to directors of pilgrimages telling them that women must conform to the rules for proper dress when attending services in Catholic churches. The regulations prescribe that women must have their heads covered; their clothing must be opaque; reasonably long, closed up to the collar, and the sleeves must come at least below the elbow.

A Bit of Esthetics. We are glad to learn from Mr. Fehl, who is constructing a concrete building next to the post office, that the building will have a finish coat of some nature which will not mar the beauty of the block from the front and postoffice side. Vines will also be planted between the windows which will add shortly to the sightliness of the view.

Do Your Duty as Jurors. "Trial by Jury always has been regarded as one of the greatest achievements of English jurisprudence. Two factors of serious import have brought the system to grave jeopardy. First, there is the lawyer's often abused right of election in the abuse tending to place a premium on stupidity and cupidity; second, the still worse habit on the part of reputable citizens of employing any artifice or device to escape jury service. In a recent Chicago murder case the presiding judge, after nine days had been spent impeaching the jury, asserted with indignation that men of good standing had "told me lie after another," and that under oath, to keep themselves off the jury, crime means crime, grows in appalling proportions. Jury service like voting, is a duty of citizenship, not only one of its privileges."—The Continent.

Judge C. M. Thomas in his address at the minister's dinner to the law enforcement officials of the county at the beginning of the year, pointed out clearly how that many good people of this county sought to escape jury duty or allowed themselves to be made to think they were super-conscientious on some line of law enforcement. Don't allow yourself to be excused for stupidity.

The Screen

At the Rialto. Do you know a cat from a cranial? If you don't, see "White Man" at the Rialto theater tonight, with Alice Joyce, Kenneth Harlan and Walter Long featured.

In "The Trouble with Wives," opening tomorrow matinee at the Rialto is shown a few of the reasons for quarrels in the modern American family. Of course, cafes, pretty women and husbands who cannot be left out of a normal eye's sight aid in putting over the plot. Comedy prevails at all times, being nothing in the picture that leans toward a preachment.

Hunt's Craterian, Sunday. "The Teaser," in which Laura La Plante introduces a new kind of screen flapper to theaterdom, is the attraction at the Hunt's Craterian theater, beginning tomorrow matinee, starring Laura La Plante, with Pat O'Malley in a featured role, is presented with a large cast of well known screen artists in support of the two stars.

Mr. W. M. Barber of the Convalescent home of Ashland, was among the Medford visitors today.

The Scout leaders' training course which opened last night at Scout headquarters was well attended by men wishing to study methods for conducting Scout troops. Those enlisted were formed into patrols and selected as their patrol leaders George J. Kuzman for the Bear Cat patrol and O. L. Cornwall for the Owl patrol. Tenderfoot tests were the subject of the evening and competition has started to produce the first tenderfoot Scout. The next class session will be on October 29, at the Methodist church (South), 500 West Main street, at 7:30 P. M.

The entire responsibility of the collection of old clothing for the relief of the refugees of the near east has fallen upon the Boy Scouts of this council. This is a big and important job and arrangements are being made to take care of it in a systematic and big manner. Full details have been issued to scoutmasters and the different troops will be in competition to secure the largest quantity of old clothing. On October 31 Scouts will give out tags and request that bundles be prepared for the Scouts to collect on the following Saturday, November 7.

Oregon Patrol Leaders' Conference in Portland, November 27 to 29. The Oregon patrol leaders' conference, to be held in Portland, November 27 to 29, will be conducted by Boy Scouts from all parts of the state. They will arrange their own program and preside over it. Scout executives will be in the background in this event to find the Scouts' idea of the manner in which to handle his problems properly. Every troop in this council should send at least one of its patrol leaders to this conference. The details of the program will be published in these columns.

COPCO FORUM TO BE HELD TONIGHT

A total of about 50 people, including division managers, division accountants and members of division office and outside forces, are expected to start arriving in town some time this afternoon to attend the annual meeting and party of the Copco forum, to be held this evening at 7 p. m. in the Masonic hall.

The entire Glendale delegation is already here, as are some of the forum members from Grants Pass and Yreka. More are expected to follow throughout the day and the majority will stay over the week-end to visit friends in Medford and will probably return late tomorrow.

The committee in charge has been working diligently until a late hour the past few evenings preparing a stage and various sets of scenery for the different acts, ten or twelve in number. The entertainment will be real vaudeville acts with appropriate backgrounds for each number. Dinner will be served promptly at 7 o'clock, and with a live toastmaster punishing various members for infractions of the forum rules, should prove to be a very lively affair. "Politics" will play an important part in the election of officers to follow the dinner, and just who will be elected is uncertain. After the business is dispensed with, dancing will begin and will continue until midnight.

MRS. IDA CALLAHAN TO HEAD W. C. T. U. HOME

HOOD RIVER, Ore., Oct. 24.—Over her telegraphic protest that she would not serve as a director of the W. C. T. U. children's farm home at Corvallis if re-elected, the state organization in convention this afternoon almost unanimously voted Mrs. Ida Callahan of Corvallis back into office. Mrs. Mry. L. Mallet of Portland was re-elected president. Cook with gas.

BANK YOUR BOUNTIFUL HARVEST What a joy, what a blessing is Harvest Time to the average farmer, when crops are bountiful and prices high enough to realize a tidy sum for the season's work!

It is after such a successful harvest that the farmer takes his surplus, stores it for future use, and protects himself against any threatened famine of the future. And so it should be with the layman, who when he or she is earning plentifully, places aside what is not needed for current expenses, and puts it in a Savings Account. While enjoying your bountiful harvest set aside a stipulated sum each pay day, bring it to this bank for safe-keeping and let it accumulate interest.

Here's Instant Relief From Bunions and Soft Corns

Actually Reduces the Swelling—Soft Corns Dry Right Up and Can Be Picked Off.

Druggists say Emerald Oil must give complete satisfaction or money cheerfully refunded.

Get a two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) today. Every well stocked drug store has this, with the distinct understanding that your money will be cheerfully returned if it does not reduce the inflammation, soreness, and pain much quicker than any remedy you ever used. Your bunions may be so swollen and inflamed that you think you can't go another step. Your shoes may feel as if they are cutting right into the flesh. You feel sick all over with the pain and torture and pray for quick relief. What's to be done? Two or three applications of Moone's Emerald Oil in fifteen minutes all the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the swelling reduces. And as for Soft Corns a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off. No matter how discouraged you have been with pads, shields, or other applications, if you have not tried Emerald Oil then you have something to learn. Something that will end your foot troubles for ever. It's a wonderful formula—this combination of essential oils with camphor and other antiseptics so marvelous that thousands of bottles are sold annually for reducing varicose veins.
