Far from satisfied with the showing his team made again at Klamath Falls, when they took a 2-7 trouncing at the hands of the Gillians, Coach Walt Hughes gave his men a tough work out last night. The next tussle scheduled for the locals is with the Roseburg high outfit. This game was originally scheduled for Saturday, but at the request of the Roseburg school officials it has been moved up to Friday. The tussle will be started at 3 o'clock. Roseburg is in the same predicament which faced Ashland at the beginning of the season. The Roseburg men are light and inexperienced, and the Roseburg coach has had a tough time working a team into shape. The Roseburg game will be the final tussle for the Ashland squad before their first game with Medford high, which will be staged at Medford on Armistice day.—Ashland Tidings.
