SECRET PRACTICE IS STARTED FOR SATURDAY GAME

The Medford high school football team is drilling nightly for what is expected to be its hardest game of the season next Saturday afternoon at the Holly street grounds, with the Marshfield team. Williams and Jackson, substitutes, are back in the game, after rough treatment received at Grants Pass last Saturday. Several members of the local squad have black eyes, from being accidentally jabbed with fingers, when the Josephine county congregation began to take its annual kicking seriously.

The Marshfield team is as heavy as Klamath Falls, and buttressed with experience. They have been steam rolling their opponents all season, and defeated Grants Pass, 20 to 0, early in the season.

Secret practice will be held the remainder of the week by Coach Callahan, and a ghost ball is being used in practice after sundown.

The game is one of the most important on the local schedule, and one of the largest crowds that ever attended a game in this city, is expected. Many will attend from Ashland, including the Ashland team, who play Roseburg at Ashland Friday afternoon. Delegations from Grants Pass and Klamath Falls will be on hand, in the hopes the conquerors of their own squads, will be humbled.

The game will be preceded by a student rally Friday evening, and will mark the first appearance this year of the high school band under the direction of P. Wilson Waite. The rooters under the tutelage of Yell Leader Silliman will also be out in force.

The much discussed fence, barring the view of the games from the world, has been completed.

CARDS EXPECT AN EASY GAME WITH OREGON SATURDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—(A. P.)—The approach of another week's football engagements, today saw three teams occupying the first three lanes in the dash for Pacific coast conference honors. They are Washington, California and Stanford. Despite the fact that Idaho retains a perfect conference standing with two wins and no defeats, its chances for a title are not regarded seriously. The Vandals were trounced last Saturday 12 to 3 by Gonzaga university.

Washington, looming in the north as a powerful threat, has not been conquered. It has five victories, besides a six to six tie with Nebraska, to its credit. The Huskies have rolled up 223 points this year against 18 for their opponents, and defeated Montana 20 to 10 in their only conference game.

Both California and Stanford have a clean conference slate with one victory each to its credit but both have tasted the bitter pill of defeat in pre-season games. In each instance the San Francisco Olympic club was the victorious team. The Bears have won four games for a total of 116 points while fifteen points have been scored against them. Four wins and 87 points are credited to the Cardinals and they have allowed 31 points.

Next Saturday the Huskies will match wits and strength with Washington State college at Pullman for home honors. California journeys to Los Angeles for a lack with the weaker Pomona college team. The Cardinals are preparing to surmount an obstacle as presented by the University of Oregon eleven when they tangle at Palo Alto Saturday. In this not much difficulty is expected as the northern team has been on the short end of three different scores which include a 28 to 0 defeat by California last Saturday.

SPORT BRIEFS

Willie Ritola, crowned ten-mile champion in mud and water at New York Saturday, has decided to go after some of the indoor records set out last winter by his compatriot, Paavo Nurmi. Ritola aims at Nurmi's marks from two miles up.

The Haskell Indians, who pitch their tents at Lawrence, Kas., on the few occasions they are home, will create a football record in the transportation field this season. Their schedule takes them 17,000 miles by rail.

Franklin field, enlarged by the addition of an upper deck this season, seems inadequate to meet the demand for seats to Saturday's football classic between Pennsylvania and Illinois. Quaker fans are already beginning to talk about a 100,000 stadium next year.

Baseball writers, meeting at Chicago, have joined umpires in opposing the practice of major league stars lending their names to world's series articles. They asked baseball officials to stop it.

No action will be taken by the New Jersey boxing commission on the Harry Wills-Floyd Johnson fight which ended abruptly in the first round when one of Johnson's handlers tossed the towel of defeat into the ring. Both fighters were paid.

PENN STAR HURT, ILLINOIS HOPES TO MAKE A SHOWING

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(A. P.)—Hopes of friends of "Red" Grange and Illinois for victory in their first eastern appearance on Saturday soared today with the announcement that Pennsylvania's foremost backfield star probably will be out of the lineup.

Failure of Al Kreuz, triple threat ace, to appear for practice yesterday marked the second blow in as many days given Pennsylvania. Paster Fields was eliminated by injuries Monday and although it was believed then that Kreuz would be able to play Saturday with the aid of a brace, his leg yesterday was swollen to twice its normal size.

Today's drill closes Army's stiff workouts for the Yale struggle at New Haven. Captain Johnny Joss, lost to Yale during a great portion of the season on account of injuries, expects to be in the game against Army.

Dartmouth, high scoring team of the east and undefeated a year ago, looks upon the Brown game largely as an opportunity to surpass the 9 to 0 victory of Pennsylvania. With practically the same team which crushed Harvard a week ago, the big Green eleven, realizing that the mythical championship of the east will probably be decided this year on comparative scores, is bent on piling up an impressive total of points against the Providence team.

Indications are that Columbia will be able to send its strongest team against unbeaten Cornell at the Polo grounds.

Princeton players were in fine fettle today and Coach Roper expects his team to come back against Swarthmore, Harvard, after giving her regulars three days of rest from the Dartmouth battle, will spend the rest of the week in vigorous preparation for William and Mary.

NEW YORK.—"My, but the actress got it right in the neck!" said Milliecent Rogers Salm when she heard of a $37,500 verdict against Wilda Bennett, Countess Salm, who is in litigation herself, refused to pose. "My pictures never do me justice," she explained.

HILLSBORO, Ore., Oct. 27.—H. Fadelia was instantly killed today when he was thrown onto a wood-saw by falling slabs. Fadelia was working with George Pope at the home of B. B. Burkholder. He is survived by a widow and three step-children.
