

Drink Water to Help Wash Out Kidney Poison

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bother You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and back-ache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

RED GRANGE BIG DRAWING CARD IN CLASH WITH PENN

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—(A. P.) East and west exchanged two of their brightest football triumphs to dazzle rival audiences in outstanding inter-sectional battles tomorrow.

With the unbeaten Colgate team westward went Eddie Ryan, scorer and one of the most colorful players of the east, to match his versatility against the Michigan Aggies of East Lansing, Mich.

The west had dispatched the widely heralded backfield midget of Illinois, "Red" Grange, to sizzle on Franklin field against undefeated Pennsylvania. Grange has never been soon in the east and thousands are clamoring for tickets which are no longer available, to see him play.

With two crack backs, Fields and Kreuze, missing from the lineup because of injuries, Pennsylvania has fallen under a Grange spell.

Yale's hopes of standing off the powerful and undefeated Army team have been further dimmed by the physical condition of its stars. Butterworth, giant tackle, is out, probably will be unable to play. Webster, guard, is out with a bruised shoulder. There is a little hope that Gutter and Kline, regular backfield men will work against the cadets. Army is in fine physical shape.

Dartmouth and Brown, rivals of years standing, meet tomorrow at Providence, R. I., with their captains on the sidelines from injuries.

Columbia has not scored a touchdown on Cornell since 1905, but is hopeful about tomorrow's classic at the Polo grounds.

Navy thinks it has an even chance to win at Ann Arbor, from undefeated Michigan.

Penn State is ready to give Syracuse warriors their first severe test in the east.

The Princeton Tiger lies waiting.

for Swarthmore with a recognized backfield. Harvard expects no trouble with William and Mary.

SCHULMERICH IS OUT OF LINEUP, O. A. C. WORRIED

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 30.—"Schulmerich will not start against Montana," was the decision of Coach Schisler last night after the big half had hobbled around on the field, unable to conceal the weakness of the leg injured in the Stanford game. All week hope was held out that he would be in condition by Saturday, but Schisler has now abandoned the idea and will throw Quinn in at left half instead.

Otherwise the starting line up will be the same as that of a week ago, and long drills on defense against the Montana attack gives hope that O. A. C. may yet take the game. Starting time has been set at 1:30.

A record-breaking number of alumni and old students of the college are expected here today and tomorrow as indicated by the responses to the homecoming letters sent out by fraternity houses and the alumni officers. A number of "alums" arrived Thursday night and will be here throughout the week end, but large numbers are expected to arrive in Corvallis tonight.

LOUISVILLE EVENS UP SERIES IN BAT-FEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—(A. P.) Whether Louisville, champions of the American association, is a better base ball team than the San Francisco Seals, champions of the Pacific Coast League, remains to be decided here today, when the two teams clash in the final contest of a nine game series in which each holds four victories.

Louisville evens up matters yesterday by defeating the Pacific coast champions in a hitting contest 12 to 11.

"The Fool" Pleases Craterian Patrons

"The Fool" which opened a three days' run yesterday at Hunt's Craterian has made as good a picture as it was a tense drama on the stage.

"Can a man live the Christ life?" is the question asked by play and picture and the author answers it in the affirmative.

It is a hard road to walk, he intimates, but one can make the journey of life on this straight line of brotherly love and forgiveness of injury and still be happy.

Daniel Gilchrist, assistant rector of a fashionable church, and part of the social fabric of the great city, is too honest to preach inoffensive sermons, and resign his pulpit. He becomes a worker in the slums, opening a mission there. The girl he loves has thrown him over and married a worthless rake. She is soon wretchedly unhappy and goes to Gilchrist for comfort and once, offers herself to him.

But he sends her back to her husband, who has been stricken and will always be a wreck. This husband has ruined the wife of a minor and managed to throw suspicion on Gilchrist. The minor arouses a lot of bores to attack Gilchrist in his mission, nearly killing him. A crippled child, to whom he has been kind, throws away her crutches and walks freely to save him. This miracle awes the mob and sends them away humbled.

Edmund Lowe is Gilchrist and a wonderful and powerful impersonation. Anne Doh is an interesting Mary Margaret and Brenda Hunt is the wife.

There are several short films and music by Raymond Hatard who has become very popular with patrons of the house.

"Night Life in New York," Rialto

"Night Life in New York" will be shown at the Rialto theater today and tomorrow.

For the first time in movie history the Way White Way has been filmed without resorting to constructed sets. Its midnight clubs, its exotic dancing palaces, its cellars and cabarets, its flirty, flashy scenes of revelry, have been caught by the camera.

The cast includes some of the big names in filmdom. Rod La Rocque, the father, is played by Ernest Torrence. Dorothy Gish plays the telephone girl. George Backlund, Arthur Houseman, Texas Guinan and Helen Lee Worthing and dozens of others are also seen.

Father With Son

SEATTLE, Oct. 30.—(A. P.)—Victor Olsen of Olympia, Wash., was charged with manslaughter in the death of a son of his, aged six years, a dispatch received here related. The boy was killed when an automobile in which he was riding and which his father was driving, upset.
