We Now Issue Title Insurance Policies In Medford

through arrangement with the Title and Trust Company of Portland, the largest institution of its kind in the state.

This means that you can now get through us an insured title to your real estate—an indemnity contract guaranteeing that your title is sound and free from adverse claims of any kind.

A Title Insurance Policy will be issued only after a thorough examination of the history of a title. Such a policy covers everything an abstract does but in addition guarantees your title and protects you against any loss because of defects or lawsuits.

The premium for a Title Insurance Policy is payable only once and amounts to no more than the cost of an abstract. Our policies are backed by $100,000 of deposits with the state of Oregon for protection of policy holders.

Call and let us explain in more detail the advantages to owners of real estate, investors and mortgagees in having an insured title.
