THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

Many of our customers have frequently expressed surprise that our prices are always a little lower. This is not at all surprising if you will just bear in mind that we are not charging you for a lot of things you can't eat. Clerks, credits, and deliveries are at times convenient, but they do not add to the food value of what you buy and are decidedly expensive. We save that expense and pass the saving to you and at the same time make shopping a pleasure by cutting out the waiting for a clerk, or the hurrying because a clerk is busy. The steady growth of our business convinces us that ours is the modern way of marketing groceries.
