

Local and Personal

Because of tonight being Halloween night, with its spirit of frivolity among the youth of the city, other portable furniture from their porches and yards into the house. Much small damage was done by the premature celebration of boys last night, such as roughly carrying away outside portable objects from homes to distant points from there, and upsetting things generally. The police tonight warn that they will not only patrol the city on motorcycles and make arrests of all violators, but will also arrest every boy or girl found on the streets after midnight.
