OBITUARY

SMITH — Andrew J. T. Smith, known as Major Smith and a pioneer resident of Gold Hill passed away suddenly during the early hours of the morning of November 2. The cause was given by his attending physician, Dr. Chisholm, as mitral insufficiency (heart trouble). He had been in poor health, but upon retiring the evening before was feeling as well as usual. James Burns, who had resided with him for many years, was sleeping in an adjoining room, but knew nothing of his passing until morning.

Major Smith was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the Gold Hill post, G. A. R. He had been a resident of Gold Hill for the past 40 years and is well known in Odd Fellows circles of southern Oregon, being a member in good standing of every branch of the order, and his presence was always assured at every function. He leaves no relatives, but a wide circle of friends, and Gold Hill has sustained a loss long to be remembered.

Funeral services will be in I. O. O. F. hall at Gold Hill at 2:30 Wednesday, conducted by Rev. D. J. Howe and assisted by the Relief Corps of that city. Honorary pall bearers will be composed of members of the G. A. R., The Gold Hill I. O. O. F. will officiate at the grave. Conger Funeral Parlors in charge.

SERGEANT OWEN TO LEAVE CITY

Sergeant Grover Owen, in charge of the local U. S. army recruiting station, will leave Thursday for Aberdeen, Wash., where he has been transferred from this city, following an uninterrupted duty of two and one-half years. Sergeant Peter Alsip of Portland arrived yesterday with his family to take charge of the local station.

During his stay here Sergeant Owen had made many friends who will regret his leaving. The sergeant has been in the army for 15 years, served two years in Siberia, five in the Philippine Islands, and has been on duty in all parts of the United States.

The transfer to Aberdeen is a form of promotion in recognition of his efficient services here, he having enlisted, it is said, several hundred men.

"I like Medford and I'm sorry to leave," Sergeant Owen said this morning, "but I'm coming back and visit every once in a while."
