

COUNCIL FAVORS CITY RETAINING JACKSONVILLE R. R.

In addition to passing a number of ordinances relating to recent sale of city owned lots and transacting much other business, the city council last night found time to discuss the proposed taking over by purchase, or a year's option, by the city alone, or in combination with Jacksonville, of the Jacksonville-Medford railroad.

Fred A. Williams of Salem, former public service commissioner, Dr. J. P. Reddy, W. H. Gore and H. L. Walther of this city and Fred Pike, George A. Gardner and Frank Salisbury of Jacksonville, boosters for this project, made arguments showing the importance to the prosperity of the city and valley of retaining this road as a possible future nucleus of a new railroad which should reach the big timber and mineral resources of the Applegate section.

In addition, a petition signed by many Medford business men, including all the bankers, asking that the council take action to keep this railroad in existence, and not allow it to be junked by Mr. Barnum, its owner, who has been given permission to do so if by November 10 the railroad is not purchased, was presented. This petition was just circulated for an hour or so, but had there been time it was confidently proclaimed that it would have been signed by every business man of the city.

A motion finally prevailed that the matter be left in the hands of the city council finance committee, and city attorney, to work out a feasible solution by which the necessary money can be obtained to either purchase the road, or obtain a year's option on it to purchase.

It developed at the meeting that Mr. Barnum, if allowed to sell one of the road's engines now, will sell the road to the city for $11,000, and that if junked the railroad has a salvage or junk value of $12,000 to $15,000.

The finance committee and city attorney has been working on the matter today, and will possibly make a report to the city council at its special meeting tonight with the city water commission. If not ready in time for this meeting, the report may be presented at Friday night's special meeting of the city council.

The council is practically unanimously in favor of the city's obtaining possession of the road, to hold for future possible developments, in a way of raising the necessary purchase money can be found. The idea is for the city to hold the road as a holding company to be disposed of to a new railroad or other purchasers, who would operate it and extend it into the Applegate.

The whole situation was summed up by H. L. Walther last night in his remarks, as follows:

"I look upon the city's keeping this railroad in existence as a good business proposition to gamble on."

The preamble of the petition presented to the city council last night reads as follows:

"We the undersigned citizens and tax payers of Medford, believe it would be very unwise for the city to allow the Barnum road to be junked, especially in view of the fact of the promising condition of railroad development in southern Oregon.

"As the time is short and it is difficult to finance the purchase by public subscriptions, we favor the city taking over the road, either alone, or in co-operation with Jacksonville, as it is deemed best."

GERMAN DIE-HARDS START MOVEMENT TO KILL LOCARNO

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—(A. P.) The united patriotic societies, whose leaders include such men as Count Reventlow, noted "die-hard" nationalist and Prince Oscar, fifth son of the former kaiser, were arrayed today among the opponents in Germany of the Locarno security treaties.

Meeting in a national conference convoked yesterday these organizations passed a resolution to the effect that the Locarno security pact means voluntary recognition of the dictates of the treaty of Versailles and is therefore unacceptable.

The conference was attended by prominent German fascists.

It was announced at the conference that the patriotic societies have entered into a working agreement with such nationalistic, anti-Semitic organizations as the Stahlhelm, the Wehrhof and Tannenbergs.

of bringing to the assistance of the present Copco group the nationwide utility organization and financing abilities of the Byllesby company.

The Byllesby management has authorized Mr. McKee to state that they propose to carry on the active program of development which has been initiated by the Copco people and that it is probable that this program will be expanded because of the enlarged financial resources which will now be marshaled for the benefit of this property as a result of this arrangement.

Known On Coast

Byllesby & Co. have long enjoyed a splendid reputation as expert engineers, financiers and utility managers. The company was organized in 1902 by the late Colonel H. M. Byllesby, who had a remarkable career as a pioneer in the utility business, reaching the vice-presidency of the Westinghouse Electric company at the age of 26, and thereafter spending many years as a pioneer in various utility enterprises in Oregon and Montana. The company was established primarily as an engineering concern, but the activities of H. M. Byllesby & Co. soon acquired a much broader scope and within a few years the firm became prominent in the financing, designing, construction, operation and management of electric and gas companies. A large staff of experts was gathered and maintained, who are specialists in all phases of public utility administration, engineering, construction, financing, legal, operation, commercial and advertising. Since the organization of the Byllesby company many utility properties have been purchased, reorganized, financed and developed. The matter of public relations has been handled with remarkable success and the company was one of the first to adopt the now widely-known customer ownership policy of financing. The management has, from the first, been conducted along broad lines, and its reputation for fair dealing, both with respect to the public and the members of its organization, is in evidence in all of the many properties in which the company is interested. The Byllesby company is already well known on the Pacific coast, being interested in the Mountain States Power company

TIGER WINS IN NEW YORK

Walker, who defeated Mayor Hylan for the democratic nomination in a bitter primary battle, was elected mayor of New York yesterday by an enormous plurality over Frank D. Waterman, republican, and manufacturer.

Four proposed amendments to the state constitution, for which the governor stumped the state and which were opposed by the republican machine, were approved by the voters.

This new proof of the political power of the governor is something of a vindictory if he carries out his announced intentions. He has said he will return to private life when his term as governor expires a year from next January.

For four years beginning January 1, next, the chief executive of the country's largest city will be a Tammany product, who arose much as the governor himself, from the sidewalks of New York.

A semi-professional ball player, a song writer in New York's famous "tin pan alley," and a stage manager earlier in his career, Walker has been in the legislature for 16 years. He has been an active supporter of welfare legislation. He was sponsor of laws permitting boxing, Sunday baseball and Sunday movies. He is a lawyer.

His defeat of Waterman by a plurality of nearly 400,000 came on the SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 4.—(A. P.) The petition for a writ of habeas corpus to free Alfred Lindsley, editor of the Humboldt News of Eureka, from the county jail, today was filed in the third district court of appeals. No action has been taken by the court on the petition. Lindsley held that no contempt was intended and that Judge Denver Sevier who sentenced him exceeded his jurisdiction in the case. The claim also is made that the sentence was excessive and cruel.

EUREKA EDITOR PROTESTS FROM HIS PRISON CELL

Lindsley was judged guilty of contempt of court for a series of editorials and stories he published in the news in connection with the trial of the editor on a charge of criminal libel.

SAVE

This fact we can't get away from: We must have money. We need it daily and we need it yet more at vacation time, or at Christmas, or for college, or for a home, or to get a start in business.

When saved money is safely invested, it earns more and still more money, day in and day out, so long as you leave it with an institution like ours.
