

News From Rural Districts

FALL SEEDING OF WINTER WHEAT IS OVER, TABLE ROCK

TABLE ROCK, Nov. 6.—The seeding of winter wheat in this section is rapidly drawing to a close and will likely be finished by the end of the week.

Mrs. M. D. Lydiard is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Barnum at Phoenix.

Charles Dunlap has installed an up to date radio set in his home which is furnishing a great deal of enjoyment to the Dunlaps and their friends.

Dr. W. Beebe, the Agate poultryman delivered a portable chicken house to the Dunlap ranch Monday. Mr. Beebe reports that real estate has been quite active lately in his section, several deals having been made during the last month.

The Hilton sheep were moved Wednesday from the Modoc orchard to the Hilton ranch near Medford where they will go into winter quarters.

G. C. Nicewind took a truck load of apples to Klamath Falls last week. He reports the apple market at that place in bad condition.

There will be a meeting next Monday night at Central Point of the Central Point school board and board members of adjoining districts to discuss plans for a union high school.

The news story of the life of Madeleine Lydie Coghlin, a French refugee during the war and now a university student at Eugene which appeared in the Sunday Oregonian, was written by Eva Nealon of this place who is a student in journalism at the U. of O.

Mrs. C. Dunlap is in charge of the membership drive for the Red Cross which is underway now in this district.

The Community club are preparing a Thanksgiving program.

Mrs. R. E. Olson is traveling on crutches owing to her being in a light sedan when it skidded in the loose gravel, left the road and turned completely over twice. The accident happened about a mile this side of the Rüter orchard where Mrs. Olson and a lady friend were going to pack fruit.

A. L. Seabrooke last week purchased from J. J. Deakin of Ashland fifteen head of registered dairy cattle of the Jersey breed and said to be from some of the best known producing strains in the state.

S. C. Collins is doing some repair work on his buildings in Central Point, and when this is completed expects to move with his family to that place.

According to a notice in the Mail Tribune there will be a district road meeting at the Agate school house Nov. 18 for the purpose of voting a special road tax.

Voters of this community should not forget that this district is a part of the Agate road district and whatever is done at this meeting will be of interest to them.

The regular meeting of the Sams Valley Grange will be held at the Sams Valley school house next Saturday commencing at noon when a big dinner will be served to grangers and friends, after which the grange will hold a business session lasting probably several hours as many important matters are to be passed on.

All members are urged to attend.

Mel Atkins of Medford visited relatives and friends here Sunday.

Farmers in this section report fewer birds killed than usual during the hunting season which closed last week.

The school board have ordered some new desks and seats for the little tots starting to school this fall.

A large crowd attended the Halloween program given by the school last Friday night and enjoyed very much seeing the children go through their parents. The excellent manner in which the various parts of the long program which consisted of songs, recitations and plays was carried out showed much careful training and was a credit to the teacher and her assistants.

MISSOURI FLAT

Mrs. Gray and son spent Monday in Grants Pass.

Mrs. J. T. Cook was called away to Albany Saturday night, due to the illness of her grandson, Clifford Springer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ferguson called at the Miller home Sunday.

The Meeks family spent Sunday visiting relatives in Canyonville.

A large number of people gathered at the Community hall Saturday evening for the Halloween program and dance. Everybody reported having a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Zern Kubli of Medford are visiting Mr. Kubli's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Kubli.

Mr. George Woodridge is serving on the jury in Jacksonville court.

A number of the boys from the community attended lodge in Grants Pass Wednesday evening.

Notice to Contractors. Notice is hereby given that the City Planning Commission will hold a hearing on Monday, November 9th, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock p. m. in the city hall on the petition of the city council to consider the reclassification of a portion of the following street from a Residence District Class I to a Business District Class III.

A portion of North Riverside avenue between Jackson and Maple streets.

CITY PLANNING COMMISSION, By Lewis Ulrich, Chairman, By M. L. Ford, Secretary.

PIRATES OF PENZANCE TO BE GIVEN AGAIN IN PHOENIX NOV. 13

PHOENIX, Nov. 6.—This week the Independent Packing Co. will close their packing house which has run longer this season than any other in the valley.

So many requests have come in, both from those who saw the Pirates of Penzance produced by the elementary school and those who failed to see the performance when it was given last week, that Mrs. Fish has consented to present the opera again Friday night, Nov. 13, at the Phoenix auditorium.

The Jackson County Medical association met at the home of Dr. T. J. Malmgren Wednesday night. After the business meeting Mrs. Malmgren served refreshments.

John B. Hildebrand has bought a home in Riverside, Calif. As soon as school closes in May the Misses Hildebrand will join their parents who are already in the new home.

Miss Irene Standley is out of high school because of illness.

Everett Martin of the class of '25, visited high school Monday.

Mrs. A. H. Fisher returned Monday from Rosburg, accompanied by her great granddaughter, Jean Hayes.

The subject of the sermon by Rev. R. W. Nelson at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning will be, "Our Father's Concern." The evening sermon will be the first of a series on the disadvantages of familiarity, the first entitled "Disadvantages of Familiarity With the Commonplace."

Mr. Nelson's sermon last Sunday on the subject of law enforcement was very highly commended by Judge Kanzler of Portland. Judge Kanzler was one of the speakers for the Crater Lake Christian Endeavor Union which convened at Phoenix last week.

A 7½ pound daughter who has been named Beverly Gertrude was born Oct. 31, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stanciliff.

The funeral services for Mr. Collier, father of Joe Collier, were held Thursday and interment made in the Phoenix cemetery.

Arthur Rose has purchased the property occupied by B. A. Montgomery.

A general movement took place this week in Phoenix: L. A. Rose moved into the house formerly occupied by B. A. Montgomery; B. A. Montgomery moved into the J. A. Wilson house; J. A. Wilson moved to Griffin Creek district; J. F. Parsons moved to the Rose property which he recently bought; Mr. McDowell's family moved into R. S. Purry's cottage; Dr. and Mrs. Webster moved into the Towne house.

A mission study class led by Mrs. Morgan has been organized. The subject to be considered is Peasant Pioneers, a study of the Slav in America. The class meet for a covered dish dinner, have their study hour and remain for the mid-week prayer meeting.

The monthly tea of the Ladies' Aid was given at Clyde Hall Thursday afternoon. Sandwiches, pickles, pumpkin pie and coffee were served by the committee.

A most interesting convention of the Crater Lake C. E. Union was held last week at Phoenix. The principal speakers were State President Judge Jacob Kanzler of Portland; Field Secretary Dallas Rice, and the intermediate president, Mrs. Allen Wheeler of Eugene. James Hendrickson, former president of the Crater Lake Union, and Gladys Frye of Medford, the newly elected president.

PROSPECT

PROSPECT, Ore., Nov. 5.—A very enjoyable time was passed at the Halloween program and dance at Prospect last Saturday night. The program, which started at eight o'clock and lasted until nine-thirty, during which time there were two plays and several recitations and songs. After the program there was a recreation hour in which time all both were sold out, with the exception of hot dog and candy. A dance was then started with music from the "Hill Billy" orchestra. The dance was carried on with great enthusiasm. Only fifteen minutes were taken for supper.

Halloween was celebrated as usual by the young people. Although considerable "straightening around" had to be done next morning at several of the ranches, it was all taken in the real Halloween spirit.

One young man, after having taken his partner home from the dance Saturday night, failed to see a wire stretched across the footlog—and took a morning plunge.

The Sunday school is increasing rapidly. There were fifty attendants last Sunday. Yulte a few of the high school students are attending now.

Lola Clarke, who was unable to drive the bus Thursday on account of illness has now resumed her former position as driver.

Mr. Clem Clarke has completed hauling and placing in the basement 50 tiers of wood for the Prospect school.

The weather is turning somewhat cooler. Last night, November 1, about one-half inch of snow fell at Prospect, but it was melted by 10 o'clock.

Dick Vincent has sent up scrapers and implements to repair the Red Blanket road. He is putting sand in a mud hole near Bar Creek bridge. This piece of road has been very bad all fall, and the Red Blankets welcome the road builders with open arms.

The high school boys are glad to hear that the new gymnasium will soon be ready for them. All are looking forward to the basketball season with the hope that they may win several games.

Saturday's Bargains Will Again Attract Crowds to the Boys' All Wool Blazer Coats $4.25

An exceptional coat in every way. Beautiful patterns and colorings to choose from.

Bradley Sweater Coats $3.85

Boys' worsted sweater coats in heather mixtures. Priced unusually low at $3.85.

Boys' Wool Knit Blazers $4.45

These splendid knit blazers were purchased after a thorough search of the eastern markets for the best values obtainable. There are a large variety of patterns in beautifully blended colors to choose from. An exceptional value at $6.45.

Percale 16c

A good weight percale, with many light colors and patterns to select from. A regular 25c value.

IF YOU WILL READ THE ITEMS WE HAVE IN OUR

PIECE GOODS DEPARTMENT

you will, beyond question, recognize the money-saving possibilities offered you in that department These prices are not special for any one selling event or day, but they will remain as long as these stocks last.

Our customers may read the advertisements of other stores with the knowledge that they can make their purchases at the Golden Rule store for much less.

Underselling of

PIECE GOODS and DOMESTICS

Bleached Muslin 14c

A good quality, soft finished, bleached muslin, a regular 18c value, Golden Rule prices per yard, 14c.

La Salle Gingham 15c

A high grade gingham, 32 inches wide, a large assortment of patterns and colors. This quality of gingham usually sells for much more.

THE DAYLIGHT STORE FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

Nashua Wool and Cotton Mixed Blankets

$4.89 Pair

Full 66x90 inches in beautiful block patterns. The colors are tan, blue, grey, lavender and pink. Average weight, 4½ lbs.

81x90 Sheets

$1.19

A heavy weight seamless sheet, full 81x90 inches. A regular $1.50 value.

32-inch Gingham 8 yards $1.00

Full 32-inches wide in a beautiful range of patterns and colors to choose from. Special at 8 yards for $1.00.

DANCE

Aloha Pavilion

Jackson Hot Springs

Saturday Night Nov. 7

Music by Harry Miller's Sunkist Club Orchestra

Adm. $1.00, Tax 10c, Total $1.10 Ladies Free

MORTON HOSPITAL. REASONABLE. Our expert doctors and surgeons, excellent food, and quick service will bring you real health. 308 PINE STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

NEAREST TO EVERYTHING LOS ANGELES. HOTEL LANKERSHIP. BROADWAY AT SEVENTH. TAKE TAXI AT OUR EXPENSE.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS OF Doors, Screens, Windows and Sash Window and Door Frames, Mouldings, Cabinets of All Kinds

Our Constant Aim is to Keep Our Quality and Prices Absolutely Right.

Do Not Order From Out-of-Town Concerns Before Letting Us Figure on Your Bill.

TROWBRIDGE CABINET WORKS. MEDFORD A MODERN MILL OREGON

Jackson County Creamery. Yes, our ice creams cast a spell of delight over those who eat it. The flavors are the result of making cream with fresh fruit or genuine flavoring extracts. Serve it every day. "Perfect Ice Cream"

CITY CLEANING & DYEING CO. WE'RE NOT SATISFIED UNLESS YOU ARE. Phone 474 564 Riverside St.

We Issue Title Insurance Policies

By arrangement with the Title and Trust Company of Oregon, we can now insure your ownership of real estate against any defects of title or adverse claims, and relieve you of all risk of loss in that respect.

The issuing company guarantees the soundness of your title and assumes all risk of loss and the cost of defending your title in court, if such necessity should ever arise.

$100,000

on deposit with the state for protection of policy holders.

Ask for details covering your property.

Jackson County Abstract Co.

Pantorium CLEANERS PLEATERS DYERS HATTERS. Phone 244 23 N. Fir St. Large cotton rags wanted at Mail Tribune office.

Home for Christmas

Five splendid Canadian Pacific liners will sail this December on Special Schedule, offering "Home for Christmas" service to the many persons who will wish to spend the Holidays in the Old Country. Sailings on December 5 to Liverpool; December 10 to Cherbourg, Southampton, Antwerp; December 11 to Liverpool via Greenock; December 16 to Liverpool; December 23 to Liverpool via Greenock.

Special sleeping car service direct to ship's side at St. John from Vancouver B. C. will be arranged. Further information and reservations may be had at Canadian Pacific. With Dealers - Genl Agent - Pass Dept. 557 North Main Street, Portland.

