ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

NARROW ESCAPE IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT ROGUE RIVER

By MRS. E. W. SCOTT.
ROGUE RIVER, Nov. 4.—What might have been a serious wreck, occurred Sunday night on the Evans Creek road near the home of E. W. Scott. Mr. Buddie Oden was returning to his home in Evans valley Sunday evening, and on the way out from Rogue River another motorist kept driving slow in front of Mr. Oden and every time he would try to pass the car the driver would speed up and pull over in front of him. At last he acted like he would let Mr. Oden pass but when he tried to do so pulled across the road and to avoid hitting the other car Mr. Oden pulled over and being close to the end of a large culvert slipped off. The car was overturned and sustained a broken wheel and other damages. Mrs. Oden received a bad cut over the eye but the others in the car were unharmed. One thing to be regretted was that the driver of the other car was unidentified and the number of the car was not obtained. A driver who tries such jokes as that should be given a good lesson so as to not try such pranks on any one else.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Carter will leave Thursday morning by motor for Berkeley, Calif., to visit a couple of weeks with Mr. Carter's sister and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Scott and Mrs. M. R. Bliss were visitors Sunday at the home of Mrs. W. W. Scott in Central Point.

Born October 25 to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conway, a 9 pound girl. Mother and baby doing nicely.

The Odd Fellows held a jolly stag party Tuesday night, October 27, after the regular session of lodge. Cards were enjoyed until a late hour when the committee served refreshments. A large attendance of members were reported.

A few cases of scarlet fever is reported in the Evans Valley and the Wimer school was closed for a few days, but has reopened.

Mrs. Martha E. Saman attended the postoffice one day last week while Mrs. Sandry inspected the rural route.

The Live Oak Rebekahs held a social hour after lodge Thursday night. The hours were spent visiting and playing games after which lunch was served. All present report a good time.

The sum of $16 was netted from the food sale held at O'Kelly's by the ladies of the Civic Improvement club. This will help out the school loan fund.

Mr. Dicee met with a very bad accident one day recently. While carrying a double bladed axe over his shoulder, he fell down and the axe struck him in the back of the head, cutting a deep gash.

Hot lunches are now being served at school. This is of great benefit to the students who have to bring a lunch. The school district has purchased a hot point electric stove to aid the girls who prepare the lunch.

November 8 to 16 is father and son week. An interesting program is being prepared for one night of that week.

The students of the high school held a party Friday night. Each class put on a play or some stunt, but the main event was the initiation of the freshmen. At a late hour the committee served refreshments.

Sherman Estell has sold his property across the river on the highway to Colorado parties, who are building a service station and will later build cabins and other buildings. Among other improvements is a new garage and a new front porch and the house repainted at Albert Milford's. Grandpa Britton is also repainting his house. Mr. Beck is giving his new house a coat of paint. Mrs. J. E. Corey has been improving his store building.

MINERS RETURN TO GOLD HILL FOR THE WINTER

GOLD HILL, Nov. 6.—Sam Dresbach, the old time southwest gold miner who came to Gold Hill from Colorado two years ago returned to Gold Hill during the week from employment in the valley orchards and will take up mining again this winter. He, John Plekard, of the Gold Hill meat market and Clyde Thornton recently took a lease and option to buy on the "Jumbo Consolidated" gold mine on Galls creek, consisting of three very promising claims yet to be developed. This property belongs to W. D. Clark of Portland, who was here in Gold Hill recently in letting the property to the Gold Hill people. In the meantime Clyde Thornton, formerly of Gold Hill but now residing near Eagle Point has drawn out from the partnership and a new partner yet to be announced will take over Thornton's interest. Sam Dresbach is preparing to move out to the property and start the development work for the winter.

Albert Young, formerly of Gold Hill who left last spring for southern California returned to Gold Hill during the week from Los Angeles. He has been carpentering during the summer in the south but has returned to Gold Hill to again take up mining. He formerly worked at the Kelmars-Vaupet mine when work was first commenced on the 800-foot tunnel, and was also one of the lessees of the Roaring Gimlet mine last year. He reports that southern California is over ridden with working men and mechanics and many on the farms are compelled to leave that part of the state for new fields of employment. Mr. Young was formerly partner with Clyde Thornton and Sam Dresbach in several mining leases in the Gold Hill district.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Earhart of Rogue River, accompanied by Albert T. McIlvain of Rogue River were in Gold Hill looking after business matters last Tuesday and the party extended their visit to Jacksonville. Mr. McIlvain who recently purchased the Boyer estate property in Rogue River reports that he has sold a half interest in the property to Mr. Earhart. The new owners propose to remodel and rebuild the several buildings on the premises in good shape and make that part of Rogue River more sight-seeing. Mr. Earhart is one of the prosperous farmers out from Rogue River and an old time road supervisor for the county in the north end, while Mr. McIlvain is a Rogue River real estate broker.

C. F. Davidson, the well known Lower Applegate farmer-miner, and brother of our townsman, Jay E. Davidson was here in Gold Hill the first of the week looking for placer mine pipe and other equipment to re-inhabit the old Miners Creek placer mining premises in Missouri Flat district. He and his son recently sold this property to Messrs. Anderson & McDonald of Portland, who are on the ground preparing the mine for the winter's run. This property has been idle for several years and is known as very rich coarse gold diggings with banks running from 10 to 20 feet in depth. Mr. Davidson reports considerable activity in re-opening and developing both placer and quartz mines in his district, and that during the war period the placer mines throughout southern Oregon were stripped of equipment and with the high prices for new equipment is hampering the re-opening of many profitable placer diggings in this region.

FOOTS CREEK NEWS

George Lance took his wife to a vaudeville show at Grants Pass last week and he laughed so hard that he came near needing to be carried out.

Rev. Mr. Wilson and wife were calling on the Creek lately. They expect soon to be seen at every home in the district.

Miss Hope Vieux celebrated her second birthday on the 30th ult. by a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vieux. The guests to the afternoon tea were Wallace, Betty and Alice Boling with their parents and Grandma Poyer, Genevieve Stumbo, Harriet, Johnny, Carl, Tommy, Jimmie and Grandma Short. Rev. and Mrs. Wilson happened in and made a pleasant addition to the company. At supper were Mr. and Mrs. George Lance and Mr. and Mrs. Carle, the event being also a celebration of a birthday of Mr. Lance.

Lester Boling is moving his family to the house of Ed Prefountain so as to be closer to his work at the Foots Creek mine. Mrs. Poyer will visit for a while in Grants Pass.

The Lance Bros. have delivered all the wood which they have sawed and are now at work getting ready for mining.

Charles Champlin has been given the job of janitor of our Sunday school so no whose who arrive on time can expect to find the house open and a fire going. Mr. Wilson is due next Sunday promptly at 10 o'clock.

H. E. Reed was hauling lumber from Messinger's mill to George Martin the first of the week.
