

WORLD COURT IS ADVOCATED BY ASHLAND PASTOR

ASHLAND, Nov. 11.—The Chamber of Commerce Forum luncheon Tuesday program was in recognition of Armistice day and there was an unusually large attendance of members of the American Legion. President Briscoe opened the meeting and then turned it over to Randall J. Woods, who acted as chairman. Mr. Woods served in the late war first as a Canadian soldier, next as an English soldier and finally with the American troops. He said the big idea with most boys who went to Canada to enlist was to find out what it was all about. He introduced Rev. H. B. Pemberton, the new Methodist minister in Ashland, who delivered a good and forceful address on various sub-topics leading up to the proposed world court. Rev. Pemberton pointed out that, irrespective of personal opinions as to the advisability of the United States entering the league of nations, the league is in working order as a combination of the strongest nations of Europe and has demonstrated its capacity to be effective toward the prevention of war. Also, he said, the United States cannot maintain isolation from the rest of the world as we are dependent upon Europe and Europe upon us commercially, financially and politically; therefore, our country eventually will have a part in the preservation of the peace of the world in connection with the activities of the other powers. Rev. Pemberton is of the opinion that the enforcement of the decrees of a world court will be accomplished through pressure brought to bear upon the nations by their peoples who desire to avoid war and its fearful results and who are becoming educated to the utter uselessness of armed conflict.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson left last week for a two weeks' vacation in California. They will visit in San Francisco and will later go to Los Angeles, where Mr. Tomlinson will attend a convention of men interested in the ice and cold storage business.

Word has been received by Ashland friends from Mrs. Emma Layton Jack and Mrs. Aurelia B. Ferguson that they are having a very interesting and restful stay at Pau, in France. Mrs. Jack and Mrs. Ferguson have spent two interesting years abroad and will probably not return to the United States until March 1. Lately they have made a tour of the chateau country in France.

Dallas J. Sidwell, agent for the Prudential Mutual Life Insurance company of Philadelphia, has spent several days in Ashland the past week. The junior class of the high school has 500 megaphones on sale for the Armistice game at Medford. Sales were begun at the high school at noon Monday.

Mrs. J. E. Peck of El Centro, Cal., writes to Ashland friends that she, with her father, P. G. McWilliams, and her brother, Charlie McWilliams, reached El Centro safely after a motor journey that was rather delayed on account of car trouble. Mr. McWilliams Sr. stood the trip very well. Charlie McWilliams has taken a position in California and will remain there this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Butterfield are expected home after a three weeks' vacation spent in southern California. They motored as far south as Los Angeles, where they visited with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pierce, Mrs. J. B. Mosier and Ray Clay have returned to Ashland from a tour of southern California and visits in San Francisco and Bakerfield.

Group meetings of the Delphian club were held on Tuesday afternoon. The group under the leadership of Mrs. D. Perozzi met at the home of Mrs. A. H. Pracht; Mrs. H. C. Gale's group met with Mrs. Don Whitney on Gresham street, and Mrs. John Finerman's group met at the home of Mrs. Albert Farlow Jr. These group meetings occur once a month and are well organized for study. The groups have just finished two months' work on Egypt.

The latest of the vanishing chain affairs was an attractive afternoon tea at which Mrs. Randall Woods was hostess to a group of five friends. The whole plan is a benefit to raise funds to erect a woman's building at Albany college.

The afternoon at Mrs. Woods' home was one of friendly chat and a short session with hand work. The decorations of bright laurel berries and fine chrysanthemums were most effective. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served. The guests were Mrs. B. C. Forsythe, Mrs. F. S. Engle, Mrs. O. Winter, Mrs. C. A. Haines and Mrs. H. Claycomb.

Mrs. O. K. Kronenburg of Bandon, Ore., stopped for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Wilmer M. Poley, as she was on her return from San Francisco to Bandon. Mrs. Kronenburg arrived Monday from San Francisco and was joined Monday evening by her son, Jack Kronenburg. They left for Bandon Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. A. C. Joy returned Sunday from a four days' trip to Portland, where she attended the Pacific International Livestock exposition and also attended a meeting for leaders of Boys' and Girls' clubs.

Miss Blanche Hicks, public librarian, will have a fine line of new books on display at the library this week. This display is made in recognition of "Better Book Week" and is planned to stimulate interest in better books. The trackless train created considerable interest as it puffed along through the city streets on Tuesday morning. The arrival of the train was expected Monday, but delay occasioned a stop-over in Medford. H. B. Hays and several other townsmen journeyed to Medford to make the trip south as far as Ashland on the little flier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller will open a shoe department in McGee's fine new dry goods establishment. Mr. Miller is well prepared for the work, having had experience with the City of Paris in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kearns of Los Angeles visited in Ashland Monday with Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Crandall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Porter of Long Beach, Cal., were recent visitors in Ashland. The high school students supported through the streets Tuesday evening in anticipation of the Armistice day game. After waking up the downtown sections the youngsters finished with speeches and yells and songs about a big bonfire on Hawthorne grounds.

'THE PONY EXPRESS' CRATERIAN TOMORROW

The widely heralded and long expected winter special, "The Pony Express," with a brilliant cast of several thousand players, headed by Betty Compton, Ricardo Cortez, Ernest Torrence and Wallace Beery, will make its local debut at the Hunt's Craterian tomorrow matinee. This mighty frontier epical masterpiece gives Crater the unique distinction of producing the only photoplay that seriously threatens the supremacy heretofore maintained by his first great epic, "The Covered Wagon." And there is much more than two classics have in common.

Like its distinguished predecessor, "The Pony Express" is a powerful story combining historical fact with the element of romance that characterized the west of pioneer days. But although its climax is as tremendous, and its ending as emotional and beautiful as that of "The Covered Wagon," its love theme is more appealing. Its background more fascinating, and its dramatic episodes more startling, more thrilling and more colorful.

The action of the plot is laid in 1850, in the dark days just before the Civil war, and deals with the struggle between North and South to gain control of California with its prestige and enormous resources of gold. In this bitter political contest, with its plotting and intrigue, gun-fighting and bloodshed, the crack riders of the Pony Express played a significant and important part.

Besides the heroic achievements of the Pony Express, the production vividly and authentically depicts the violent yet picturesque life of the primitive west. Of the many historical characters who are portrayed, particular interest attaches to the youthful Mark Twain, the strapping Buffalo Bill and the famous Mormon leader, Brigham Young.

FOOTBALL GAME STARTS AT 2.30, TEAM CONFIDENT

Bright skies and a record breaking crowd will mark the annual Armistice Day football game between the football teams of the Medford and Ashland high school teams this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the new Holly street grounds.

The locals are heavy favorites to win, and will endeavor to avenge the 54 to 7 defeat administered to them in 1921 by an Ashland team.

A rally and down town serpentine was held by the high school students last night followed by a bonfire. Boys students of both schools spent most of the night chasing each other, through the business district. A party of Ashland youths invaded this city and an epic bombardment started about ten o'clock, the Chamber of Commerce building being the only thing hit. Medford youths armed themselves with decayed apples, and started out in search of their tormentors.

A large number of people from out of town points are in the city for the football game, and the festivities.

The local team held a short practice and scrimmage last night, and the opening line up will be:

Hughes, center; Neff and Jackson, guards; Hubbard and Morgan, tackles; Singler and Sanders, ends; Herriot, quarter; Moore and Conrad, halves; and Senn, fullback. Substitutes: Archer, Dunn, Williams, Zeek, Green and Deane.

Between halves the local DeMolay drill team will evolve, and the routing forces of both schools serpentine over the field.

The officials for the game are: Manerud, referee; Bliss, umpire; Dave Evans, head line man; Manerud and Bliss are former Oregon football stars, and Evans, coach of the University freshman football team.

SCOUTING

L. Hayward, who is in the first regular inspection tour of this territory. The local district council executive board will meet with Mr. Hayward Thursday noon to receive his reports and recommendations.

All Boy Scouts who took active part in the "Bundle Day" campaign collecting old clothing for the Near East Relief last Saturday are loud in their praise for the fine way in which the people of Medford contributed to make this collection the success that it was. About a ton of old clothing was collected and is being prepared for shipment. The contest results have not been made known, but it is boy were bathing in the Comite river (La.) when the small girl suddenly slipped into a deep hole. The child screamed as she struggled in the water.

"I swam to her and caught her arm. Just as she was going under, and dragged her to shallow water," young Gill explained. "I looked for my brother, as he had started for sister, too, and I saw water bubbling up where it was more than eight feet deep. I dived in and grabbed him by the strap of his bathing suit and pulled him up to shallow water. When I pulled him up I saw Earl Price had his arms around James' head, so I grabbed Earl by the arm and brought them both to the bank, where I stumbled, and dropped James. That's about all."

According to the boy's modest summary the rescue was a trifling matter. But letters from witnesses to the local scout executive described the feat as the finest piece of such work they had if asked to "try" a substitute for Quaker. That is, if you want real Quaker flavor . . . that famous Scotch flavor . . . in breakfast oats

THERE is only ONE way to get the true Scotch flavor in oats which distinguishes Quaker flavor . . . and that is by getting the Quaker brand.

Oats was originally a Scotch dish. It must have true Scotch flavor to be at its best.

Remember this, for your own sake, when tempted to "try" some ordinary brand.

That flavor is milled in. Nobody as yet has successfully imitated it. Grown-ups and children who ordinarily don't take to oats, respond to this unique flavor. And flavor, as you know, is the all-important point in food.

Milled under exclusive Quaker methods applied to the finest, plumpest grains, Quick Quaker is the world's fastest cooked breakfast dish.

Takes 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast.

Due to Quaker milling methods, it supplies, too, the "roughage" you need to make laxatives seldom necessary.

Look for the picture of the Quaker on the label. See that it is there before you buy breakfast oats.

Healthy Hair Gleamy, Thick, Wavy —Full of Life

The constant curling and waving demanded by modern style in hair dress, slowly burns the color, lustre and very life from the hair, leaving it dry, faded, brittle, streaked with gray; then the hair roots shrink and the hair falls out fast.

Try this for one week! While combing and dressing your hair, moisten your hair brush with a little "Dandering" and brush it through your hair—the effect is startling! Your hair immediately takes on new life and that healthy, youthful lustre, becomes incomparably soft, wavy and appears twice as thick and abundant.
