ASHLAND TIDINGS CELEBRATES NEW GOSS COMET PRESS

ASHLAND, Nov. 12.—The Ashland Tidings on Thursday published a twenty-four page issue to celebrate the installation of a fine new Goss "Comet" press. The installation of the new equipment marks the beginning of a new era of expansion and promotion which the Tidings has hitherto been unable to support owing to the limitations of the old press. From now on it is proposed to make the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday papers six page issues while those of Saturday, Monday and Tuesday will be four page issues as before. New features will be added in the six page issues. A woman's page will be printed on Thursdays and there will be other material particularly interesting to women.

"Ma Pop", a comic serial will add to the joys of the reader and two other comics, "Over Our Way" by Williams, and "Ever True" by Condo will give spice and fun.

New events of the world will be furnished by the N. E. A. Service Inc. of Cleveland. Present features in the Tidings will be continued.

News has been received of the death of Mrs. Fannie Standard Winchell, who passed away November 3 at her home in Eugene. Mrs. Winchell spent her girlhood in Ashland and is well known here. Mrs. Winchell is survived by a daughter, Gail Maxine Winchell, by two sisters, Mrs. Emma Witten and Mrs. Leatha Grove two nieces, Miss Ethel Standard of San Francisco and Mrs. L. F. Stanley of Portland, and two brothers, L. M. Duncan of Portland and K. M. Duncan, who lives in California.

Mrs. G. W. Shortridge and J. A. McGee were hostesses on Friday afternoon at one of the most charming of the fall picnics. The affair was held at the Lithia Springs Hotel and covers were laid for sixteen in the small dining room. The table appointments were of unusual daintiness, green candles glowed in silver candlesticks, and the centerpiece in delicate yellow, blue, and pink in silver bowl gave the final touch of distinction. After the luncheon, the guests were entertained at bridge in the ballroom. Mrs. Earl Crow was the fortunate winner of high score, and Mrs. Andrew McCallen won the consolation. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Shortridge and Mrs. McGee were Mrs. Henry Enders, Mrs. John Enders, Mrs. V. J. Mills, Mrs. Louis Dodge, Mrs. John Finerman, Mrs. William Briggs, Mrs. R. L. Burdie, Mrs. O. A. Paulsen, Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg, Mrs. Domino Provoost, Mrs. N. H. Harrison, Mrs. Frank Billard, Mrs. W. H. McNair, Mrs. Clyde Malone, Mrs. Andrew McCallen, and Mrs. Earl Crow.

Mrs. D. McCarthy has returned from Eugene where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Frank Moore. Mount Ashland chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will hold a luncheon on Friday, November 20th, at the Lithia Springs hotel. The Ladies' Elks club held a most enjoyable card party on Thursday afternoon at their room in the Elks building. Mrs. Tony Franco and Mrs. G. H. Hedberg were the hostesses.

Mrs. A. C. King who was formerly Miss Angie Nell, of this city is visiting friends and relatives here. She is the guest of Mrs. Robert Nell. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Whittle are enjoying a two weeks vacation in California. They will visit at Oroville and Fresno. J. H. Fuller is spending a few days in Salem where he was called to attend to business affairs. James Morgan and family have moved to Portland to reside. Betty Mergler celebrated her twelfth birthday on Tuesday afternoon a group of eleven girl friends were invited to the Mergler home where they made merry with games until supper time. The table was lovely in pink and blue with all the dainty appointments of nut cups, place cards, candles, and of course the splendid birthday cake bearing twelve small candles. Those who enjoyed the birthday festivities were Nedra Crews, Lola Wiley, June Carey, Anna Jane Von Hadenburg, Jeanette
