Medford Rotary Club News

The weekly luncheon of the Medford Rotary club was held this week at the Hotel Medford.

Thomas Temple, pastor of the M. E. church, made a very able talk on the problems of boys' work and the opportunities it afforded the men of the community to help in the education of the boys.

Richard W. Price made a brief address on the beauties and hospitality of southern Oregon.

Visiting Rotarians were W. E. "Will" Hibbs, a merchant of Cameron, Mo., making his second visit to the coast after an absence of 20 years; A. S. Ruhl of Rockford, Ill., father of "Bob" Ruhl; R. W. "Dick" Price, Crater Lake; Frank C. Bramwell, Salem, state bank examiner.

Visitors were O. H. Ruhn, Law Harlan of Portland, Rev. Thomas Temple and Mr. Anderson of Medford. V. DIXON.
