

RABBIT BREEDERS

PLAN WINTER SHOW IN JACKSON COUNTY

A meeting of the Jackson county branch of the southern Oregon Rabbit Breeders' association was held at the home of Gus Beck, the secretary, on Wednesday night. Members from every part of the county were present and about twelve new members were received. After reports of committees were given, interesting addresses were given by 15 members on different features of the rabbit industry. C. B. Orr of Medford spoke on the subject of publicity and Secretary Beck led a discussion on the advisability of holding a winter rabbit show in Jackson county. A shot was also taken at fake concerns which advertise fabulous prices for rabbits raised from mink stock by them.

Unanimous endorsement of the Jackson county fair and the fair program of improvement as outlined by Secretary Sid Brown was given. A committee consisting of W. W. Walker, Gus Beck and A. R. Renner of Klamath Falls was appointed to

OREGON EXHIBIT IN L. ANGELES FAVORED

Jackson county was among the counties represented at a meeting of the county exhibitors held at the booth of the Portland Chamber of Commerce at the Pacific International Livestock show held at Portland last week, where the following motion was carried:

"That it is the opinion of the county exhibitors at the manufacturers and land products department of the Pacific International Livestock show for 1925, that a state-wide Oregon exhibit should be maintained at Los Angeles, Cal., during 1926, with the necessary help and advertising to be paid by the land settlement department of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, and the rent of an office to be paid pro rata by the different counties participating in the exhibit."

Cook with care.
