HARVARD REGRETS UPROOTING GOAL POSTS AT BROWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—(A.P.)—Smashing of foes' goal posts after football victories which appears to have become the fad is frowned upon at Harvard. Captain Dolph Cheek of the Crimson football team has informed the Brown university authorities that the majority of Harvard students are sorry that over-enthusiastic supporters demolished the posts at Providence on Saturday.

Harvard had every reason to boast forth in unbridled enthusiasm after the Brown game, for it was the first Crimson victory over the Bears in four years and one of three Harvard victories this season, but Captain Cheek did not hesitate in apologizing.

Yale uprooted the Harvard posts after winning the muddy battle at the Harvard stadium two years ago when Duck Pond raced 75 yards to a touchdown, and last Saturday suffered the same fate in Yale bowl when the Princetonians bore away all the wood in sight.

Tills of quick relief to aching, swollen joints

RELIEVED PAIN AND SWELLING OVERNIGHT

Long-standing case of rheumatism helped in a few hours

After having suffered with rheumatism for years, and tried all kinds of remedies in vain, thousands of people have at last found a way to get quick, sure relief.

"I have been a sufferer from rheumatism for years," writes one woman from Washington, D. C. "At times my hands are terribly swollen. Sloan's always gives me relief in a very short time. I have tried other liniments, but nothing equals Sloan's."

The marvelous effectiveness of Sloan's is due to its stimulating effect upon the circulation. Straight to the sick, aching tissues, it sends a healing tide of fresh new blood—clears out rheumatism germs—kills pain.

So pleasant and clean to use, too. You don't even have to rub. Just pat it on gently and you will get immediate results. All druggists—35 cents.

LARRY SCHADE GETS CALIFORNIA BOXERS FOR ELKS' TOURNEY

The following telegram was received this morning regarding the coming bouts at the Elks' club Thursday night:

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 16, 1925.

C. Y. Tengwald, Office Hotel Medford, Medford, Ore. Carl just played in a bunch of luck. Landed those speedy boys to fight the winners of our Thursday night bouts in Ashland on Saturday night. The fellows should see three of the best fighters we ever had. Fighters coming on ahead of me. Look after them. LARRY SCHADE.

Larry Schade left for San Francisco several days ago for the purpose of signing up fighters for the Elks' club smokers at Ashland and Medford Thursday and Saturday nights, and he has secured, from the above telegram, what he believes are some of the best fighters on the Pacific coast. These fighters will arrive in Medford Thursday night and will be introduced at that time and will be matched against the winners of the events at our local club house.

Twenty-four rounds of boxing have been signed up and comprise the following events:

Bill Robbins of Tacoma vs. Freddy Anderson, quite a Medford favorite, 150 pounds.

Harold Reese of Hollywood vs. Manila Tiger of Philippine Islands, 135 pounds.

George Dickson of Portland vs. Solly Burns of Bremerton, 140 pounds.

Joe Jewett of Klamath Falls vs. Johnny Carlson, Medford, 145 pounds.

A year ago Carlson lost a bout to Jewett on a foul and ever since he has been endeavoring to secure a return match. There are all six round bouts.

Much interest has already been manifested in this card and it is expected that the largest crowd of Elks that ever witnessed a boxing card will be in attendance at the club house Thursday night. The events will start promptly at 8:30.

KLAMATH FALLS CITY FATHERS LIKE BOXING

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 17.—Because Mayor Goddard and all members of the city council are rabid boxing fans, the boxing card originally scheduled for last night was postponed until Wednesday night when Johnnie Trambitas of Portland and Kid Starkey of Klamath Falls will meet in the ten round main event.

The city council meets every Monday night, and the city dads confessed they would be unable to transact city business with the boxers throwing blocks away. Hence, Matchmaker Johnnie Sylvester delayed the card in order to let the city officials use their passes.

The Screen

By Yo Press Agent.

"Best People" Scores Hit.

"The Best People" a Sidney Oleott production for Paramount featuring Warner Baxter, Esther Ralston and Kathryn Williams, a screen version of the Broadway stage hit by that name, is the feature at the Hunt's Craterian theater tonight.

Laughs, scenes of New York life and novel marriage complications make this story a very entertaining one. It is full of life, color, swift pace, pretty girls and wonderful comedy situations.

Einstein Versus Darwin.

DETROIT.—(A. P.)—As to the firing of Izzy Einstein and Moe Smith, General Andrews had this to say to the W. C. T. U.: "I am not in sympathy with spectacular raids, nor do I approve of any agent making a monkey of himself."

Drink Water If Kidneys Bother

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Pains or Bladder is Irritated

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer from a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids; to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; can't injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

SPORT BRIEFS

PHILADELPHIA.—Benny Bass, Philadelphia featherweight, beat Jose Lombardo, Panama, in ten rounds. Joe Bazara, Norfolk, Va., won a decision over Marty Powell, New York, in ten rounds. Cleary James, Chicago, won from Al Winkler, Philadelphia.

NEW YORK.—Eddie Anderson, Wyoming featherweight, defeated Ed-guard Mascart of France in twelve rounds. Benny Hall, St. Louis negro, outpointed Billy Levin, New York, in twelve rounds.

BUFFALO.—Frankie Genaro, New York, defeated Vic Stone, Buffalo, in the fourth round of a twelve round battle, the referee stopping the bout.

SALT LAKE.—Nobe Cervantes of Rawlins, Wyo., and John O'Brien of Boston, fought six rounds to a draw.

BAYONNE, N. J.—Petite Mack of Jersey City, 126 pounds, got a newspaper decision over Spencer Gardner, 128 pounds of Newport, R. I., in 12 rounds.

CONRAD IS OUT OF TOMORROW'S GAME

The Medford high school football team, with Coach Callison will leave in the morning for Roseburg, where they will play the high school of that city, and help dedicate the new athletic field. All the first string members will make the trip with the exception of Conrad, who is out of commission with a sore foot.

Tomorrow afternoon at Grants Pass, Grants Pass and Ashland will play. The teams are evenly matched and it should be a hard fought battle.

TRUE VERSION OF WAR IN "WHAT PRICE GLORY"

"What Price Glory" is no dress parade. Neither is the stirring canvas by Lady Butler.

It is the lusty, greasy, laughing, sobbing truth. Attention—and salute it.

In a French village in the zone of advance, a company of raw marines is resting. The captain is a hard-boiled old fighter, steeped in Cuban, Nicaraguan, Mexican campaigns. So is the first sergeant. All down the sweaty years these two have hated each other, barked at and broken each other. The authors have drawn them both with a certain grim admiration. They belong to their parts and predicaments with all the inevitability of keenest characterization. From the first encounter you know the battle will do between them, the taut and trimness of rivalry that will eventually sprout them both.

The luncheon's daughter is their only present excuse. She is worth little sentiment on the author's part and certainly gets none at all. If you are looking for twaddlesome, French-held romantics, you won't find it in this commentary of the sexes without benefit of clergy, Y. M. C. A. or Robert Keable. From soldier to soldier she moves like a dull clattering shuttles, heavy footed, big bellied, stupid, affectionate. Wate no more pity on her than they do—or than she does on herself. In the end both leave her, called back by sheer, groggy habit into their spokes of the war machine. It is the superb finish of the superb act.

The advent of Louis O. Macdon's production of "What Price Glory" at the Hunt's Craterian theater Monday night, November 23, is the dramatic event of the season.

Harold Lloyd Film 'At Rialto Tonight'

The doors of the Rialto theater opened at 1:30 today for the local premiere of Harold Lloyd's newest comedy, "The Freshman."

Those boyhood days when going to college was greater than going to congress, and you'd rather be "right tackle" than president, have been chosen by Harold Lloyd for glorification by his particular brand of wholesome comedy. "The Freshman," heralded as his best picture, regardless of which one you choose as your favorite, promises to break all records.

In this vehicle Lloyd, playing his first "college boy" role, is seen beginning his first year with great ambitions and being immediately sat upon and "razed" within an inch of his young life by everybody except Peggy, his sweetheart. She believes that while he is certainly acting like a boob he has more spunk in his little finger than anyone else in the school. And, before all the shooting and shouting is over he justifies Peggy's opinion.

Harold is that most pathetic of all living creatures when he is playing the part of someone wanting to be loved! Admiration and hero worship he craves, too, but he wants it because it means that he is "a jolly good fellow." The picture is declared to be a riot from start to finish.

Incidentally, the "big game" scenes were taken in the "Bear's Den" stadium at Berkeley just before the great California-Stanford struggle last autumn.

Potatoes Bring Riches. SALT LAKE CITY.—The value of Idaho's 1925 potato crop to the Idaho farmers is estimated at $24,548,000 by federal agricultural statisticians.

To men who still cart their tobacco around in a heavy tin

All thru the ages — Stone Age, Iron Age and Card-board Age — tobacco transportation has been a tough task... Then the Tin Age, and for years, now, smokers have bravely borne the weight and expense of the tin... But comes the dawn of a new day... The tin has been canned... Granger's new foil package takes an awful load off men — for it's not only light weight but it cuts out the heavy "carrying charges" on tobacco.

No tins, no fancy frills — but, man — what tobacco!

Granger's new foil-package is a hit with smokers everywhere. Convenient, yes, but what's more important it cuts out the costly tin — gives smokers for ten cents, tobacco of the same fine quality that costs fifteen cents in tins.

Packed in heavy foil instead of tins — hence 10¢

Look Out!

Look for the picture of the Quaker on every package of oats you get. That's the only way to get the "Quaker flavor" — the old Scotch flavor — that you want

WHAT you want in oats is flavor. Everything else takes second place. Oats originally a Scotch dish must have true Scotch flavor to be at its best — real "Quaker" flavor. Nobody has yet succeeded in imitating Quaker flavor. That enticing and toasty Scotch tang of the Quaker brand. People who ordinarily don't take to oats, find delight in that unique flavor. Once you taste it, you are spoiled for ordinary oats. So when asked to "try" a substitute, say "NO."

That flavor is not the result of gusswork but of certain Quaker milling processes applied to the finest, plumpest oats that grow. Some 50 years were spent in perfecting it. Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. It makes the finest, the most savory and quickest of hot breakfasts. Due to Quaker milling methods, it supplies, too, the "roughage" you need to make laxatives seldom necessary.
