

Local and Personal

Geese have commenced their southward flight through Rogue River valley. All through last night their incessant honking were heard as they speeded from the northland toward more sunny climes. A small bunch passed over quite high last evening before dark, but the main body, it is said, passed during darkness.

Get two of those household rubber aprons for 76c at the Rexall one cent sale. 207*

Kraut cabbage 2 1/2c a pound. Onions by the sack. American Fruit and Produce Market, 109 E. 8th. Phone 875. 205*

C. E. Gates will favor the H. F. C. A. club of the Medford high school tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock with a short speech at their regular meeting at which there will be a short musical program stated by members of the club. Following the meeting to be of general interest, the club has invited the general public to attend. The meetings at other times are open only to members.

Wonderful value in underwear. Higlow's, 402 East Main. 205*

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc. 17*

Night Policeman A. H. Sunderman has been confined to his home for several days suffering from a slight attack of influenza. S. Diney, a recent resident of California City, where he was a member of its police force, is taking Mr. Sunderman's place during his sickness.

Number one sugar pine shakes at Puhar's, Central Point. 217*

With our eastern connection we are able to pay the trappers St. Louis prices for furs. Johnson Produce Co. 241 N. Fir street. 17*

Talisman Lodge, Knights of Pythias, has commenced its program of winter activities. At the regular session last evening the knight rank was conferred on Harry Schwartz. Tonight a dance will be held at the Casino hall, while next Monday the ladies will receive an official visit from Grand Chancellor Robert T. Lytle of Vale.

Rexall one cent sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday. 207*

See the 49c window at the Jap Art Store. 205*

Among out of town Oregonians here from a distance are A. D. Bennett of Hood River, Wm. Krebs of Jefferson, A. C. Smith and Harry E. White of Salem, W. A. Sullivan of Newport, W. W. Bernard of Lebanon, R. F. Wood and H. K. Adams of Eugene, L. P. Leinde of Corvallis, P. P. Lewis and W. F. Stole of Marshfield, B. J. Munnah of Monroe, and the following from Portland: John M. Sharp, J. E. Roberts, S. A. Morgan, A. M. Roberts, Miss Mary D. Martin, M. L. Hausman, C. W. Frazier, William Elliott, R. J. Lee, L. W. Josse, J. D. Rownwell, P. W. Lucas, C. B. Miller, C. E. Ford, B. G. Mann, W. R. Redhead, A. E. Rockwell and W. Hofsgood.

Alcohol for radiators. Cheap and best. Jones & Kirkpatrick. 17*

Large cotton rags wanted a Mail Tribune office.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Baptist church held their regular monthly all-day meeting at the church today, with luncheon served in the church dining room at noon attended by the families of the members.

Wonderful value in underwear. Higlow's, 402 East Main. 205*

We have room for some dead storage for the winter. Low rental. Riverside Garage, 132 S. Riverside. 17*

"Football fans of the city will see their last game on the local gridiron on Wednesday, when the locals tangle with Ashland in the final contest of the present season," says the Grants Pass Courier. "This will be the second game with the upper valley eleven, the first having been a tie game 7-7. The dose gives both teams about an even break, although Ashland was defeated by a much larger score by Medford than the locals. Grants Pass has gone through the season with defeats at the hands of Klamath Falls, Medford, Cottage Grove and Marshfield. They tied with Ashland and won from Roseburg."

Grapes, the vine—stock bears, at the Bell Vineyard. 209

Screen doors at Wallace Woods Lumber Yard. Cor. East Main and Genesee. 881*

Included among the Klamath Falls visitors arriving in the city yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. P. O. DeLap, Mrs. F. L. Houston and Mrs. G. W. Houston.

Winter is here. Get one of those 16 water bottles at the Rexall one cent sale. 207*

Lesson given in oil painting, water colors, of china decoration. Call Mrs. Vivian Norman albert at Palmer's Studio, or 821 V.

After having visited Mr. and Mrs. Cole Andrews for several days, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strado left for their home in Harriburg, Ore., today.

Wonderful value in underwear. Higlow's, 402 East Main. 205*

Turkeys wanted. Johnson Produce Co. 17*

Patrons and Sons Week closed with a bang last night, so far as the Baptist Patrons and Sons were concerned. Their Dues and Lads banquet, which exceeded all expectations, and only by a happy blunder in ordering what seemed too much food, were the ladies able to munch their fine dinner to all present. The speaking and music were especially good, and the crowd was in the finest of moods; so that when "Pop" Gates, the principal speaker, was introduced, he was given an ovation. After the program the duets and their lads played indoor baseball in the church gym.

Try that big milk shake at DeVoe's. 17

The Jackson County Creamery has an order for 20,000 pounds of turkeys to be shipped November 21st. 205*

C. A. Meeker, manager of the M. M. Department Store, is in San Francisco this week buying winter merchandise for his Medford store.

A wonderful choice awaits you in our line of Maderia and Italian wines, of which we have just received a new shipment. Handcraft shop. 206*

We have a market for any quantity of veal weighing under 150 pounds, must be fat and have liver attached. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street. Phone 271. 17*

A. K. Paris and G. Bouffe, valley residents, suffered a minor collision yesterday when their cars met several miles south of Ashland, with no serious damage resulting to either car.

Dressmaking, children's and baby's clothes, needlework. The Daisy Shop, over Heath's Drug Store. Phone 1967. 204

Gifts for the whole family, reasonably priced. Japanese Art Store, 208*

The Golden Link Bible class of the Baptist church holds its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Spencer, 224 South King, Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Members attending are urged to bring Bibles, note books and pencils.

Wonderful value in underwear. Higlow's, 402 East Main. 205*

Palmer's Photo Studio makes its best pictures. 209

Two young men traveling through the country recently attempted to prey upon the generosity of Bert Sullivan, when they ate a substantial breakfast at his Gusher Cafe on Front street. This morning with the intention of not paying the price. However, the proprietor stopped the two as they were leaving the front door and held them until the arrival of Chief of Police Adams, who placed them in the city jail. They were later escorted to the city limits by the chief and given their liberty with the understanding that they "keep moving."

T. G. Heine, M. D., physician and surgeon. Eye, ear, nose, throat. Glasses fitted. 314 Liberty building. 222*

The Handcraft Shop has a wonderful line of men's linen handkerchiefs. These are hand hemmed, some with colored hand drawn thread borders, others plain—exceptional values, from 20c to $2. 206*

Californians registered at local hotels include L. G. Casey of Fresno, Lewis Donaldson of Modesto, M. Burger and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Joy of Challenge, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. White of Stockton, J. H. Gill of Sacramento, T. E. Rodman of Oakland, William Crowley of San Francisco and E. S. Fabrik of Los Angeles. 17*

Some wonderful values in stationery at Rexall one cent sale. 207*

Christmas suggestions in needlework. Choose from a large assortment of the most desirable stamped towels, aprons, luncheon sets, and other articles too numerous to mention. Handcraft Shop. 206*

Sixteen hundredths of an inch of rain fell during the 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today, and it continued to rain at periods during today. Rain and a moderate temperature is predicted for Wednesday. The highest temperature of yesterday was 54 degrees.

Get your fresh meats and dressed poultry at the American Fruit and Produce Market Saturday morning, November 14, 109 East 8th street. Phone 875. 205*

Radio Wot and A. B. batteries recharged, called for and delivered. Williams & McCurley. 17*

Yesterday was Klamath Krafter fund day at Moe's store. In addition to an initiation into the mysteries of salesmanship, the girls from the local high school made an effort to increase the fund to be used for the development of the school paper, the Klamath Krafter. The sales for the day were good, and the girls deny the high school praise for their willingness to learn and their constant attention to business. The cooperation between the students and the regular sales force was wonderful.—Klamath Falls Herald.

Many items on the Rexall sale will make appropriate Christmas gifts. 207*

All kinds of fresh vegetables, local grown. Patronize home industry. American Fruit and Produce Market, 109 East 8th street. Phone 875. 205*

Albert Rody of Kerby is among the Josephine county visitors in the city who arrived yesterday.

The Jackson County Creamery has an order for 20,000 pounds of turkeys to be shipped November 21st. 205*

H. N. Lofland sells Ellington pianos. 210

The Delphian club group will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. as follows: No. 1 with Mrs. Steiner, No. II with Mrs. William Vaxter, No. III with Mrs. E. Daniels, No. IV with Mrs. L. B. Humphreys

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Holland Bldg., Phone 953. 17*

Buy a city lot. All improvements paid. Priced very low. Terms, Carl Y. Tengwald, Holland Hotel, Phone 953. 1081*

Instant visitors here from a distance include W. Willard and J. Boyd of Vancouver, B. C., A. B. Johnson of Madison, Wis., James E. Cooke of Philadelphia, Pa., Theo Levin of New York City, Charles Well of Cincinnati, Gen Grafman of Chicago, and E. B. Wright of Boise, Idaho.

Most any variety of apples, good quality, $1 per box delivered. Johnson Produce Co. 17*

Decorated bread boards with bread knife $1.25 and up. Jap Art Store. 208*

Cars from other states registering here yesterday with the local office of the state traffic registration bureau numbered 19.

Fresh San Juan lime, $3.75 per bbl. Big Pines Lumber Co. 1811*

Hemstitching, buttons covered, at the Handcraft Shop. 17*

Patrons and Sons Week closed with a bang last night, so far as the Baptist Patrons and Sons were concerned. Their Dues and Lads banquet, which exceeded all expectations, and only by a happy blunder in ordering what seemed too much food, were the ladies able to munch their fine dinner to all present. The speaking and music were especially good, and the crowd was in the finest of moods; so that when "Pop" Gates, the principal speaker, was introduced, he was given an ovation. After the program the duets and their lads played indoor baseball in the church gym.

Try that big milk shake at DeVoe's. 17

The Jackson County Creamery has an order for 20,000 pounds of turkeys to be shipped November 21st. 205*

C. A. Meeker, manager of the M. M. Department Store, is in San Francisco this week buying winter merchandise for his Medford store.

A wonderful choice awaits you in our line of Maderia and Italian wines, of which we have just received a new shipment. Handcraft shop. 206*

We have a market for any quantity of veal weighing under 150 pounds, must be fat and have liver attached. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street. Phone 271. 17*

Lee P. Brown of the Center National forest office, is spending several days at Pelican Bay on official business.

Dr. W. C. Schaefer, Dentist, Extraction specialist, Dental X-ray, Gas and local anesthetic. Phone 1137, 426 Medford Bldg. 17*

Atop of a high ladder aboard a truck, Harry Rinebarger, city electrician, replaced each burned out globe on the city streamer lights, lights, placed at each intersection of Main street for the length of the business section and on side streets. Approximately 150 globes were used in the operations, the lights not having been replaced for some time past.

A small deposit will hold any article in our store until Christmas. Jap Art Store. 209

Dog owners will be fined $5 every time they allow a dog to run at large in Albany, according to an ordinance now in force.

Jubilee entertainment. "Topsy puts on a style show; a real Polly Parrett will sing; choir quartette in dainty melodies; Sunday school children in musical expression at the Jubilee entertainment at the Methodist Rectory hall Friday evening at 7:30. Adults 25c, children 10c. Don't miss it—lots of fun. Proceeds to be used to purchase chairs for Sunday school. 207*

Mr. and Mrs. John Sacha of Harrisburg, Ore. are spending several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. George D. Kern, they arrived Saturday. They are much impressed with the valley and have plans of settling here later in the year or early next year.

Screen doors at Wallace Woods Lumber yard, corner E. Main and Genesee. 88*

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Love of Snowy Butte orchards have received word of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Love Jr., on Armistice Day, at Crawfordville, Iowa. 17*

Paney Yakima Gem potatoes, $3.50 per 100 lbs. Delivered any place in city, quality guaranteed. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street. Phone 977*

Leon A. Littlefield of Roseburg, a Pickwick stage driver, arrested on the Pacific highway by State Traffic Officer J. J. McMahon for failure to dim his headlights on wet pavement, was fined $10 on his plea of guilty before Judge Taylor this forenoon. At the time of his arrest one headlight was also out.

Ask your dealer for Foss Rogue brand Oregon Prunella wainuts, home grown and properly cured, 212

The "White Cargo" production which played at the Craterian theater here last night after having played at Grants Pass last Saturday night, and Roseburg and Salem previous to that time, left at 2:30 o'clock this morning for Astoria, where the drama will be presented tomorrow night. Then the company will open at the Hotel theater at Portland on Thursday night for the remainder of this week.

A new shipment of ladies' handkerchiefs at the Handcraft Shop. These are all new ideas—a large and attractive collection to choose from. 206*

Albert McManus of the Cozy Nook, was a Medford business visitor in Ashland yesterday.

Thanksgiving Maderia, one-third out at the Snedeker Shop. 208*

J. J. Steiger, former resident of Klamath county, now making his home in Medford, arrived in the city late last evening on a business trip. He left this morning for Chiloquin to look after his extensive interests there and will return home to Medford this afternoon. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Steiger purchased one of the most beautiful homes in Medford known as Oregon Terrace, and plan to make the valley city their future home.—Klamath Falls Herald.

Architectural drafting. W. N. Jewett, 206 First National Bank Bldg. 231

S. G. Stewart of Portland was a local business visitor here yesterday. Charles Ray is spending a few days vacation in San Francisco, having left last week in time to see the California-Washington game.

Crater Lake Chapter No. 32. Regular convocation Tuesday, November 17th, 8 p. m. Supper at 6:30 p. m. Royal Arch degree. All Companions urged to attend. Visitors welcome. 19*

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

FOR RENT — Housekeeping rooms. Adults. Near Armyory. 334 Apple. 207

25 OUNCES for 25 cents

Decorated bread boards with bread knife $1.25 and up. Jap Art Store. 208*

Cars from other states registering here yesterday with the local office of the state traffic registration bureau numbered 19.

Fresh San Juan lime, $3.75 per bbl. Big Pines Lumber Co. 1811*

Hemstitching, buttons covered, at the Handcraft Shop. 17*

Patrons and Sons Week closed with a bang last night, so far as the Baptist Patrons and Sons were concerned. Their Dues and Lads banquet, which exceeded all expectations, and only by a happy blunder in ordering what seemed too much food, were the ladies able to munch their fine dinner to all present. The speaking and music were especially good, and the crowd was in the finest of moods; so that when "Pop" Gates, the principal speaker, was introduced, he was given an ovation. After the program the duets and their lads played indoor baseball in the church gym.

Try that big milk shake at DeVoe's. 17

The Jackson County Creamery has an order for 20,000 pounds of turkeys to be shipped November 21st. 205*

C. A. Meeker, manager of the M. M. Department Store, is in San Francisco this week buying winter merchandise for his Medford store.

A wonderful choice awaits you in our line of Maderia and Italian wines, of which we have just received a new shipment. Handcraft shop. 206*

We have a market for any quantity of veal weighing under 150 pounds, must be fat and have liver attached. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street. Phone 271. 17*

John F. Scanlon of Seattle, traveling freight agent for the New York Central lines, was a business visitor in the city today while en route to Klamath Falls.

We pay for ashes and sell dirt cheap. Brown & White Agency, Inc. 17*

Frank Adams, a well known Central Point rancher, was a business visitor in the city today.

Have your brakes equalized and put in shape before the skiddy season comes. We specialize in brake work. Riverside Garage. 1291*

"Sleepers," or wandering homeless men apply for admission into the city prison nightly for sleeping purposes. As a rule they are given accommodations, as being locked up at night they are unable to go on possible nocturnal thieving parties.

Paney Yakima Gem potatoes, $3.50 per 100 lbs. Delivered any place in city, quality guaranteed. Johnson Produce Co., 241 N. Fir street. Phone 977. 17*

Washington state residents registered at local hotels include Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boykin of White Salmon, Mrs. H. W. MacPhail of Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lewis of South Bend, G. W. Sherwood of Tacoma, G. Gray and family of Spokane, H. L. Miller of Olympia and G. W. Walters, J. F. Scanlon, J. M. Linn, Archie H. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnston of Seattle.

Oysters are now being served at Crowson's confectionery and cafe. 1821*

John Edington of Gold Hill spent several hours in the city today attending to his business affairs.

Have you seen the Medford gem stones. If not call at 422 Park ave. Post card will bring them to your door. A. D. Barroll. 228

Lee C. Garlick has resumed his duties at the state auto registration bureau in the Chamber of Commerce building, having recovered from his recent illness.

We are equipped to do the highest class of machine work and motor reconditioning. Riverside Garage, 1501*

The criminal charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses against E. T. Armstrong, a traveling salesman, has been dismissed, following complete settlement. Armstrong is alleged to have purchased a car on time from a Grants Pass garage and to have given a full title to it when traded for another car at a garage here. The sum of $350 is understood to have been involved. Armstrong was held in the county jail a short time before the dismissal of the case.

Screen doors at Wallace Woods Lumber Yard. Cor. East Main and Genesee. 881*

A full line of late home grown vegetables was on sale this morning at the public market, together with a good supply of meats and home cooked foods. A small quantity of huckleberries were still on sale, as well as a large quantity of squashes, both of which were quickly sold out.

We are now serving oysters in a variety of styles. Crowson's, Medford's popular sweet shop. 1821*

James Gaines, a transient from Montana, arrested by Policemen Liggett and Diney Sunday evening, forfeited a $25 cash bail when he failed to appear in the city police court yesterday afternoon to answer the charge of intoxication that had been placed against him.

Feel Splendid! Nicest Laxative, "Cascarets" 10c

Don't stay head-achy, dizzy, bilious, constipated, sick! One or two pleasant candy-like "Cascarets" taken any time will in 10 to 15 minutes stimulate your liver and start your bowels. Then you will both look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed. Your head will be clear, stomach sweet, tongue pink and your skin rosy.

Because "Cascarets" never gripe or sicken, it has become the largest selling laxative in the world.

Directions for men, women, children on each box—any drugstore.

Medford Glass Co. Automobile Glass and Mirrors made to order. We call for your sash and replace broken windows. Phone 168 118 E. Barlett

After having been confined to his home for several weeks recovering from injuries received when his team of horses ran away on his ranch near Phoenix, A. N. Wright, the well known peach grower of that section, was at the public market today with a supply of apples. He is still slightly lame.

Let Lee at the Men's Shop measure you for that $37.50 tailored-to-measure suit. Satisfaction guaranteed. 1931*

The annual 18-2 billiard tournament may commence next Monday at Brown's billiard parlors. If by that time the billiard balls are sent back from Portland, where they have been sent for "being up," according to Mary of the University club, who states that the balls had developed imperfections. They had been used slightly over six weeks, following their arrival here from Chicago, where they had been selected by Gus Copulos, world's champion three-cushion billiardist, who was in Medford last summer for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Cooper arrived here this forenoon from Lakeview to spend several weeks as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Knowles and other friends and relatives.

Two cars of apples bound for eastern markets, were shipped yesterday by local packing plants, while no cars were shipped the day before. The fruit shipping season for 1925 is practically over, with the exception of fruit tonnage stored at local precooling and storage plants.

"DIAMOND DYE" ANY GARMENT, DRAPERY

Just Dip to Tint or Boil to Dye

Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can tint soft, delicate shades or dye rich, permanent colors in lingerie, silks, ribbons, skirts, waists, dresses, coats, stockings, sweaters, draperies, coverings, hangings—everything!

Buy Diamond Dye—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.

$3065.80 GIVEN FREE

1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5
1	2	3	4	5

The above amount has been given away by us in prizes. $643.00 more will be given away as follows:

First prize—1925 Ford Touring car. Besides this splendid first prize we are going to give away 37 other prizes.

Rearrange the figures in the above square in such a manner that they will count 15 each way (horizontally and vertically) and send us your answer together with your name and address neatly written on a sheet of paper and if your answer is correct we will at once mail you a splendid illustrated prize list describing the prizes and giving full information and rules. In case of ties general appearance, neatness and handwriting of entry will be considered factors. If correct we will advise you by return mail of a simple condition to fulfill. Don't send any money. You can be a prize winner without spending one cent of your money.

Send your answer—act quickly.

The Northwest Poultry Journal 6 South Commercial, Salem, Oregon

Medford Glass Co. Automobile Glass and Mirrors made to order. We call for your sash and replace broken windows. Phone 168 118 E. Barlett

WHAT PRICE GLORY

—With— EMMETT CORRIGAN

UNANIMOUS PRAISE FOR THE HARD-BOILED COMEDY

"If you miss 'WHAT PRICE GLORY,' you may as well give up theater going entirely—you have missed both the heaven and hell of it all." Dudley Burrows—"Call"

"A great comedy; a play that lives up to specifications and the extravagance of praise that have preceded it; a gorgeous picture of war." George C. Warren—"Chronicle"

"It is a great play, one of the finest of the generation, and last night's audience was unanimous that they hadn't enjoyed themselves at a theater in more years than they could count." Ideal Jones—"Examiner"

"I tell you after seeing that I'm more enthusiastic than ever, and not only does the 'WHAT PRICE GLORY' performance live up to everything claimed for it, but it surpasses all expectations." A. F. Gillespie—"Bulletin"

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVED NOW. PRICES, INCLUDING WAR TAX: First 18 rows, $2.75; next 6 rows, $2.20; last 5 rows, $1.65. Balcony, first 2 rows, $1.65; balance, $1.10. Box office sale Friday, 12 o'clock.

LOOK! BIG DANCE AT Natatorium—Wed. Nov. 18

Music by Galloway and His Oregonians The Radio Boys From KGW Admission 50c or 10c

Albers MILK-FLO

Albers Premium Milk-Flo

Albers Bros Milling Co. PACIFIC COAST MILLERS 100 Lbs Net

"Makes the Milk Flow"

Sold and Recommended By MONARCH SEED & FEED CO. —As a Dairy Feed of More Than Ordinary Value—

ROLLERS THAT ROLL

We have just received a shipment of IMPORTED GERMAN ROLLER CANARIES. Wonderfully beautiful birds. If you have never heard a real roller sing you have a treat in store for you when next you visit our store.

Your Choice for Only $15.00.

Ferns and Cyclamen See Our Australian Love Birds in the Window

Groceria Seed & Feed Co

East of Economy Groceria

TOMORROW TOMORROW ASSOCIATION VAUDEVILLE

WESTERN VAUDEVILLE MANAGERS ASSOCIATION FEATURING

TONIGHT!

"The Best People" in