

MOVE TO DISMISS LOCAL ORCHARD APPEAL DENIED

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 17.—The supreme court today, in an opinion written by Justice Belt, affirmed a jury verdict in Judge Robert Tucker's court in Multnomah county where a judgment of $2500 was awarded Clifford Voshall against the Northern Pacific terminal company. Voshall alleged that while he was employed by the company to polish brass trimmings in Pullman and observation cars the company furnished him a preparation to use on the trimmings which was poisonous, but did not inform him of its poisonous nature. As a result he alleged that he breathed its fumes and absorbed the preparation into his system with the result that he was permanently injured.

Other opinions were handed down as follows: Hollywood Orchard company, appellant, vs. Dennis, Kimball and Pope; appeal from Jackson county; motion to dismiss appeal overruled in opinion by the court.

Helen Ingerslev vs. Charles W. Goodman and Dora Goodman, appellants; appeal from Multnomah county; action to enforce contract. Opinion by Justice Hand. Judge George Rossman affirmed.

A. G. Hawkins, plaintiff and appellant vs. C. E. Fuller and Nettie Fuller, appeal from Multnomah county; action to determine amount of attorney fees. Opinion by Justice Burnett. Judge George Tazwell affirmed.

State of Oregon, ex rel, Pacific Livestock company, plaintiff and appellant, vs. Jasper Davis, et al; appeal from Harney county. Suit to determine water right. Opinion by Justice Burnett. Judge Louis F. Hewitt affirmed.

In the matter of the estate of Pierce Riggs, deceased, Etta Mae Riggs vs. Seth Riggs and others, appellants; appeal from Multnomah county; action to contest will and dismiss previous proceeding. Opinion by Chief Justice McBride. Judge George Tazwell reversed and motion to dismiss overruled.

A. C. Forrester, R. W. Lincoln and L. R. Steiger vs. Hauser Construction company, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; action to recover on contract. Opinion by Justice Brown. Judge Robert G. Morrow affirmed.

Charles B. Coppock and Beatrice Coppock, appellants, vs. L. H. Roberts, appeal from Marion county. Action to recover money. Opinion by Justice Bean. Judge George B. Bingham affirmed.

Michelin Tire company of California vs. Amelia E. Cutler, alias Mrs. W. S. Cutler; appeal from Multnomah county; appeal from judgment of non-suit granted defendant. Opinion by Justice Coshov. Judge Robert Tucker affirmed.

Joseph Day, appellant, vs. Pete Celoria and Emma Celoria, et al, appeal from Multnomah county; appeal from decree sustaining demurrer interposed by the defendant. Opinion by Justice Coshov. Judge George W. Stapleton affirmed.

Petitions for rehearing denied in Denney vs. Watt; in estate of Johanna Dietz Reinbrecht and in Knober vs. city of Portland.

DYNAMITE STORY HOLDS UP SEWER

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 17.—Because a sewer for which bonds were voted a year ago would run to the bay through a natural ditch instead of through a covered pipe, property owners near the proposed site of the sewer held the street department at bay all day yesterday with a story of dynamite being buried on the proposed site of the sewer. At dusk the street department disregarded the warning and excavated the site of the fictitious explosive.

START WORK ON EUGENE STATION

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 17.—Work on the proposed terminal of the Southern Pacific Railway company here will be started at once and will be rushed, according to E. L. King, superintendent, who was here today. Work of clearing the 220-acre tract northwest of Eugene will start Monday, under direction of Kelly and Sullivan, contractors. All funds for the work, amounting to $907,000, have been authorized and are now available.

The first unit will include a series of four storage tracks, each with a capacity of 100 cars. The contract for a ten-stall roundhouse will be let shortly. The largest creosote plant on the coast will be constructed.

Other work will also be rushed to completion, as the favorable fall weather has speeded work on the Natron cut-off, and first trains will be run over the shortened Eugene-Klamath Falls line on July 1, it is said.

SLAYER OF LITTLE GIRL CONVICTED

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—(A. P.)—Harrison W. Noel, a youth who twice escaped from institutions for the insane and who capped his career by the murder September 3 and 4 in Montclair of a negro taxi driver and a little girl, faces death in the electric chair.

A jury which yesterday convicted him of murder in the first degree, spent an hour and ten minutes in reaching a verdict. Sentence will be pronounced next Monday. The death penalty is mandatory.

AGAIN TRY TO OPEN UP M'KENZIE PASS

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 17.—H. C. Hickman and Reed, proprietors of the Eugene-Bend stage line and Ed Jensen, tractor mechanic, have left for the McKenzie pass, where they will again attempt to put the new snow motor over the road. Mechanical trouble has been blamed for the unsuccessful attempts of the motor to negotiate the pass so far.

The company bus which was broken down on the Bend side of the pass has been repaired and taken back to Bend, according to word here. "The new snow motor, contrary to general belief, will not open the pass for cars, even though successful, but will itself go over the snow, carrying passengers."

EUGENE AUTHORIZED TO CUT OUT CROSSING

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 17.—By an order of the public service commission issued today, the city of Eugene is authorized to eliminate the grade crossing of Blair boulevard over the Southern Pacific tracks in the northwest part of the city, one of the most heavily used crossings on the Pacific highway.

Blair boulevard is the main artery of traffic into the city from the north and in addition to motor vehicle traffic carries the street railway line of the Southern Pacific company in Eugene.

WANTED, -HOMES FOR 2 DOGS LEFT ALONE TO STARVE

Homes are sought for two dogs that belonged to Wah Hop, aged Chinaman, who died a week ago, and was buried as a county charge. They were the companions of Hop. One is about 15 years old and can understand only Chinese, the language in which his master always addressed him. The other is a lively little black dog, who understands English. Kindhearted people on South Elverside have taken an interest in the fate of the canines. For three or four days after their owner died, they went hungry, but have been enjoying a feast since it was realized they were starving. The dogs stay close to the shack of their late owner, on the banks of Bear creek.

The older dog is fat and asthmatic and is named Chong. It will probably be a bullet from a policeman's gun for him. The other one is a beautiful creature, and would make a fine house pet. Anyone desiring a pet, can have one by taking it away.

Wah Hop, known as "Charlie," was an old resident of Medford, who did janitor work and odd jobs here for years and was well known. For the past three years he has been very sick, and took herbs sent by San Francisco friends. His condition three weeks ago became pitiful and he was taken to the poor farm and later to Sacred Heart hospital, where he died.

Besides his dogs, Wah Hop had one other friend—Wah Kim, now in China. They lived together in a house on North Grape street. A dispute arose over room rent and board and they took their troubles to court for trial. Wah Hop, disgusted with American legal procedure, blurted out in the midst of his attorney's oration: "Too much talk! Too much fool! Me go home."

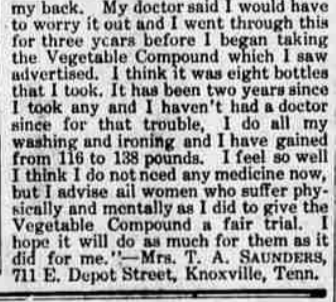

He remained by an order he never understood, and Wah Kim won the suit, and lost the friendship of Wah Hop. The judgment was for $70.50. His observation on the verdict was a classic: "Wah Kim ketchum fifty cents. Talkee-kian ketchum seventy dollars."

Wah Hop was buried in Potters Field, and the last rites were exceedingly plain and simple.

NEARLY INSANE AT TIMES

Mrs. Saunders Tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieved Troubles of Change of Life

Knoxville, Tenn.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound while going through the Change of Life. I was very nervous, could not sleep and had melancholy spells. In fact, I was nearly insane at times and my memory was almost a blank. I was so weak I could not do my housework half of the time and suffered dreadfully with my back. My doctor said I would have to worry it out and I went through this for three years before I began taking the Vegetable Compound which I saw advertised. I think it was eight bottles that I took. It has been two years since I took any and I haven't had a doctor since for that trouble. I do all my washing and ironing and I have gained from 116 to 138 pounds. I feel so well I think I do not need any medicine now, but I advise all women who suffer physically and mentally as I did to give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. I hope it will do as much for them as it did for me."—Mrs. T. A. SAUNDERS, 711 E. Depot Street, Knoxville, Tenn.
