COWBOY IS ROMANTIC, BUT GETS POOR PAY

SA FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—The romantic cowboy of yesterday must now toil for $50 a month and keep, while the lowly sheep herder commands wages of $90 to $100 a month. Such was the testimony today in the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission on general rail rate increases. Vernon Metcalf, secretary of the Nevada Livestock Growers' association, said that stock and agricultural conditions of Nevada were unsatisfactory and producers were not able to meet higher freight rates. While the sheep business was improving somewhat, cattlemen were making small profits or none at all. R. L. Vance and John J. McGinnis of Los Angeles, officials of two big Portland cement plants in southern California, asserted that their business needed a blanket rate to place all plants in their region on a par

Summons. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Jackson. Plaintiff, vs. Luella M. Adams; the unknown heirs of Luella M. Adams, also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, Defendants.

To Luella M. Adams, the unknown heirs of Luella M. Adams, also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, defendants: You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the last day of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, said period of six weeks being the time prescribed for publication hereof; and if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in its complaint, to-wit: That a decree be entered adjudicating any and all right, title, estate, lien or claim which you or any of you have or claim to have in, to or upon the property situated in the City of Medford, Jackson County, State of Oregon, described as follows: Lots 9 and 10 in block 26 of the Original Town (now City) of Medford, Oregon.

And declaring any and all such claims to be null and void, and decreeing that said plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of said premises and of the whole thereof, free and clear of any and all right, title, estate, lien or interest in said real estate, and that each and all of the defendants herein and each and all of their servants, agents and employees and each and all persons claiming or to claim by, through or under them or any of them, and all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in said real estate be forever enjoined, restrained and barred from asserting, attempting to establish or claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in or to said property or any portion thereof, and that plaintiff's title to said premises be forever quieted and set at rest.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable C. M. Thomas, presiding judge of the above entitled court, made and entered in said court and cause on the 14th day of November, 1925, prescribing that this summons be served by publication thereof once each week for six consecutive weeks in the Medford Mail Tribune, a newspaper published in Jackson County, Oregon. November 21st, 1925, is the date of the first publication of this summons, and January 2nd, 1926, is the date of the last publication of this summons.
