

INTER-CITY MEET OF ROTARY CLUBS HELD THURSDAY

The inter-city meet of the Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and Medford Rotary clubs was held Thursday evening at the Lithia hotel at Ashland. District Governor Ed Campbell of the Seattle club was the guest of honor. Mrs. Campbell accompanied her husband on this tour of southern Oregon clubs.

A very elaborate dinner was served to over one hundred and fifty Rotarians and their wives and guests. Several Ashland business and professional men were guests of the Medford Rotarians.

The dinner was an unusual one in that the Klamath Falls Rotarians, headed by Bill Houston, contributed over one hundred ducks for the feast and these, with all that is necessary for an elaborate feast, were served under the able guidance of Rotarian Dick Price of the Lithia Hotel.

The entertainment was furnished by the three clubs after Win Vincent, who was chairman and toastmaster, had seen that each Rotarian was properly introduced and a tribute paid the guests.

Bert Hall of the Klamath Falls club, assisted by Paul Landry, James Swanson, Jack Kimball, John Boyle, Earl Whitlock, Barney Ray and Lynn Sablin, put on a burlesque that was exceptionally well received and was very up-to-date in points of interest to the entire Rogue River valley and the Klamath Basin, touching on the local problems and products. The excellent action given by Wilson Wiley was the climax of the Klamath Falls feature, it was well received and appreciated.

The Grants Pass club part of the entertainment was unique and their club brought many gifts to Governor Ed, which had been selected with great care and were either of the "Camel" or "Camel" brand. Ed and wife should have a well stocked larder for the winter after the many gifts of the Grants Pass club. Gordon Hart, the "Canny Scotchman" in his kiddie and excellent Scotch songs, and dialect made the hit of the evening, especially after Governor Ed had had a few incidents as to Gordon's ability as a real Scotch golf player while on his recent visit over the Canadian border.

Jay Gore of the Medford club furnished plenty of entertainment by clever tricks that were equal to the greater known magicians. Jay demonstrated his unusual ability to a puzzled audience.

Irving E. Vining of Ashland, in his usual unexcelled manner, made a response that will long be remembered by covering the unity of purpose and friendly relation existing between the communities of this section and of the opportunity to be of real service in the upbuilding of our country.

Short talks were made by the presidents of each club. The music and club singing of the Klamath Falls club was appropriate. Dad Hamilton led the Medford slinging, and all clubs sang together. Alfred's orchestra furnished music during the dinner and for the dance following in the Lithia ball room.

Ed Campbell, governor of district number one of Rotary, in his address, called attention to the work of Rotary over the world and that Rotary clubs with over one hundred thousand members were located in over thirty countries. He also called attention to the coming conventions in 1926 at Denver, Honolulu and Victoria, and some of the work to be done at these conventions.

Both Klamath Falls and Grants Pass sent large delegations and on account of the ideal weather the trips were made in the most comfortable manner, while many stayed late and enjoyed the ball following the banquet. Others drove back to Klamath Falls after spending a most pleasant evening.

'MA' FERGUSON FACES INQUIRY BY TEXAS SOLONS

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—Governor Miriam Ferguson for the second time in a few weeks, today faced the possibility of a special session of the legislature to investigate her state departments.

Representative T. Irwin of Dallas used the word "impeach" in an appeal for a special session, without naming any state department or officer. He issued the call, he said, to "impeach any state officer who has aided or abetted in any way this gigantic fraud on the people of the state."

Irwin said he referred to the highway situation. The call follows judgment for $600,000 rendered yesterday in the district court at Austin, Texas, against the American Road company in the suit brought by Attorney General Dan Moody to cancel the company's road contracts in this state.

PEGGY JOYCE AVERS SHE LOVES COUNT

PARIS, Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—Court records show that Peggy Joyce introduced a demand for a divorce from her fourth husband, Count Morner, some weeks ago. Following the usual procedure, the magistrate sent both parties summons to appear before him in reconciliation proceedings. Count Morner failed to appear, and the court registered a document showing "non-reconciliation."

Precedents all show that a divorce decree follows the registration of such a document automatically within 60 days.

Upon her arrival in New York on the Mauretania yesterday, Miss Joyce denied that she had any intention of divorcing Count Morner. She said she was as much in love with her husband "as any woman after two years of marriage."

FOOTS CREEK NEWS

C. W. Stumbo sold a fat hog to Ed Woodcock Monday. Marion Lance and wife went to Medford Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Wilson surprised the Foots creek people by being at the school house last Sunday, a week ahead of his regular time. He will not be present next Sunday owing to some special services at Rogue River at that time, hence the break in the order of his coming to us. We are to expect him again on the 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl went to Medford Saturday to do shopping. While between Central Point and Medford a man walked deliberately in front of their car as if he was wanting to commit suicide. A sharp use of the brake prevented an accident, but it was pretty hard on the nerves of the driver. A cow on the highway is bad enough for a motorist, but the human fool is worse.

Harry Vienax has taken partnership in the Black Chunnel mining operations and work has now started. Plenty of rain has now started.

The Ladies Bros. made a present of two feet of wood to our Sunday school which will supply our needs for the winter. The act was highly appreciated by those present when the fact was made known.

The Bible class of our Sunday school, owing to discussion which has arisen, will take a topic of their own in place of the regular topic on review day. They will try to find the Bible answer for the question: "Is it possible to be as sure that you are saved as you are sure that taxes and death are coming, and how may we know it?" The date will be December 27. The class has a lively discussion every Sunday. If you are not there you are missing a good time. Bring your Bible and join in exploring its wonders.

Frank Elliott took his radio to G. W. Lance's home Tuesday evening and the following persons enjoying a radio concert: Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vienax, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lance, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott and sons, Adelbert and Donald. Mrs. Lance served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Vienax.

Mrs. Mary Hosmer sold a nice beef to the Rogue River meat market this week. Joe Woodcock has moved his household stuff to Rogue River since he recently bought a half interest in his father's meat market. J. H. Short went to Grants Pass Tuesday and engaged market for about two dozen turkeys. The price agreed on was 23c live weight for all birds, regardless of size. He has some nice birds, in good condition. He expects to invest the proceeds in sheep.

Rev. Mr. Wilson and wife and Rev. Mr. Smith and wife of Rogue River were dinner guests at the Carl's Tuesday. Mrs. John Short took a walk up the creek Wednesday, calling on Mrs. Marion Lance, Miss Amy Koenig, Mrs. George Lance and Mrs. Mary Mattis.

AUTOIST HELD UP AFTER REFUSING TO ACCEPT ASSISTANCE

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 21.—Apparent kindness in response to a plea for help turned out to be a holdup on the Pacific highway north of Eugene last night when E. A. Lewis of Klamath Falls was robbed of $52 and forced to walk three miles to Eugene. Lewis was returning from Portland and was sporting a leaky tube in one of his rear tires. It was at about 9:39 o'clock.

A touring car drew up alongside. "Need any help?" queried the driver. "No, thanks, just a slow leak, I'll be in town in ten minutes and have it fixed," Lewis replied.

But the driver's companion alighted and walked around back of Lewis' machine. "Sure you don't need any help?" he asked.

"No, thanks just the same," was Lewis' reply as he beamed on his benevolent friend.

"Then if you're quite sure you don't need any help, we do—stick 'em up," Lewis felt the muzzle of a gun in his back and he reached for the sky. Four cars passed during the process of robbery but none of them stopped. As each car neared Lewis was forced to lower his hands, and to raise them again as soon as the cars were gone.

After robbing Lewis of all the money he had the bandit tore out part of the distributor on Lewis' car and then climbed back in the car with his companion, who had not left the holdup automobile. The bandits then sped on their way.

Lewis walked to town.

ROYAL DEAFNESS IS BALKED BY DEVICE

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—An American invention enabled Queen Alexandra to hear during the last 23 years.

The death of the queen mother in London has enabled a secret long kept to be disclosed.

Miller Reese Hutchison, once associated with Thomas A. Edison, invented an electrical device to enable the deaf to hear. Queen Alexandra, however, died of a cold, and it was not until she was 70 that she was able to hear.

HINDENBURG PLAYED FOR PEACE MOVE

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—General Erich Ludendorff is attacking his wartime chief, President Von Hindenburg, for supporting the Locarno treaty. But since the socialists in the reichstag have definitely decided to vote with the government to accept the treaty, it seems certain that a representative of the reich will be in London when the documents are signed, formally to give his country's adherence to them.

The bill now due to come up in the reichstag on Monday and are expected to be quickly passed by an extremely large majority. After signature in London, the cabinet of Chancellor Luther will resign and be reconstituted with a personnel in full sympathy with the obligations of the treaties.

Oregon News in Brief

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 21.—State Treasurer Ray today sold $302,029 Oregon Irrigation District interest bonds to the Anglo-London-Paris company of San Francisco for a premium of $1012. The bonds bear 4 1/2 per cent interest. There were two bidders.

"What Price Glory?" to be presented at Hunt's Craterian Monday night, November 23, is a war play, written by two New York newspaper men.

There are no heroes in it as the usual stage hero is imagined. The characters are genuine American soldiers—the kind who helped to topple the kaiser from his throne.

People who have wandered west the American soldier felt and how he reacted in the supreme test of war will find an answer to their curiosity in "What Price Glory?"

TROUBLE IN SYRIA SHIFTS TO HILLS FROM DAMASCUS

DAMASCUS, Syria, Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—The center of interest in the Syrian trouble has shifted from Damascus. Most of the insurgents are reported to have migrated to the north toward Homs or to the southwest toward southern Lebanon.

The fall of Merj Ayoun to the Druzes and Bedouins brings the southern Lebanon into the forefront because of the restlessness of the Metwallis, and it increases the danger of an important operation in that area should the Metwallis join the Druzes.

The tendency of the inhabitants to defend their villages against Druze invasions is a factor, but this defense quickly evaporates if the Druze appear in strength.

Said Arash and his followers have been accused of committing excesses in Kawkaba, where it is alleged they killed women and children, but it is difficult to obtain reliable information and stories of such excesses should be received with reserve.

Druze notables informed the correspondent today that the report that they were prepared to negotiate peace was nothing new as they recently had expressed the willingness to enter such negotiations with the French on a basis of complete autonomy.

SPORT BRIEFS

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—Vic Foley, Canadian bantamweight champion, won a unanimous decision over Bud Hildley, Seattle, in a ten-round bout here last night. Foley led the bout well in hand after the second round. He picked up a big margin on points by ripping in body blows to Hildley's mid-section and following up this attack with a straight left to his opponent's jaw. The Canadian shook the Seattle boy several times with hard right hand smashes to the head.

SAN JOSE, Cal.—(A. P.)—A football game between teams of girls ended in a 6 to 6 tie. One of the fair contestants pulled a real play when she sneaked into the backfield of the opposition and grabbed the pass from center to score a touchdown. The play was allowed by the referee.

Charge Film Firm With Monopoly

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(A. P.)—The Famous Players-Lasky company and affiliated distributing and exhibiting motion picture companies were charged with suppressing competition in many sections of the country in a brief filed with the federal trade commission today by W. H. Fuller, its chief counsel. The brief was in reply to those previously filed by the motion picture companies. It was the final one to be submitted to the commission before arguments are heard next week on the charges of unfair methods of competition aimed at setting up a monopoly.

The commission counsel asked the commission to issue an order against Famous Players banning certain business practices such as the system of block booking and requiring the company to separate its exhibition and distributing facilities.

High Boy Dies in Suicide Pact

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 21.—(A. P.)—William Strauss and James Rosenberg, 17-year-old Cincinnati high school boys, drove to a quiet spot in Clearmont county late yesterday and shot themselves through the head after signing a death pact, in which it was declared "life is not worth the effort to live."

Strauss died almost instantly. Rosenberg was taken to a Cincinnati hospital where it was said he had a chance to recover.

Rosenberg is the son of a department store proprietor and Strauss' father is president of a local mortgage company.
