

TICKETS FOR BIG GAME GOING FAST, TEAM LIMBERS UP

The Medford high school football team went through a limbering up practice this morning for the post-season game next Saturday with the Salem high school, for the championship of western Oregon, and Monday will start hard practice. Morgan and Neff, star linemen, out of the final Ashland slaughter, will be in the game, and Coach Callison will be able to throw his full strength against the Willamette valley champions.

The sale of tickets for the game started Friday with a rush, with a heavy demand for tickets and reservations will be made for Ashland, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls fans. The admission to the grandstand is $1. The general admission will be 75c. A report was circulated Friday that it would cost $1.75 to see the contest. It will cost $1 for the grandstand and 75c for general admission, the circulator evidently adding up all the available figures to get his total.

The contest is attracting state-wide attention outside of Portland, and the winner will be generally recognized as the champions of western Oregon, due to the reluctance of the Jefferson high school, Portland champions to accept challenges with liberal guarantees from both teams.

Work on the new grandstand is being rushed and will be completed in ample time for the game. The contractors posted a $250 forfeit to have it completed by noon, December 5th. The high school students next Friday afternoon will stage a rally and assembly in which members of the team, leading citizens, and fans will participate, to be followed by a street serpentine and bonfire in the evening. The officials for the game will be selected the first of the week.

VACANT HOUSE IS BURNED TO GROUND

Completely enveloped in flames when the fire department arrived, a four-room, untenanted box house on West Eleventh street near Hamilton, the property of George Wolff, was gutted by fire of unknown origin last evening at 7:30. The loss has been estimated at several hundred dollars including articles of furniture stored within.

The fire had reached such advanced stage before the alarm was sent in that the lurid glow of the flames were seen by the firemen when they left the station. However, after several streams of water from the pumper were played upon the flames, nothing but a black mass remained of what once had been a house.

The place had been vacant for some time and was very old and weatherbeaten. It sat some distance from the road in a spot more or less secluded from travel.

FOOTBALL FILMS AT COPCO 7.30 TONIGHT

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock local football fans will have an opportunity to see Medford's championship football team in the "movies." Through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company these films will be shown in the windows of the Copco building, the program starting at 7:30 and continuing for over an hour. The football films will cover several of Medford's recent victories including the Grants Pass, Marshfield and Ashland games—not only the team in action, but also the routing section and the crowd.

In addition to the football pictures, a number of other local films will be shown, including the Armistice Day celebration and auto races.

RADIO CONDITIONS IN MEDFORD IMPROVING

"More radio sets have been sold this year," said W. J. Virgin, local radio king. "More any other one year or combined since radio has been introduced in Jackson county. The people, locally, are beginning to realize that it is no experiment and that it is here to stay. To enhance the enjoyment of entertainment possibilities, national legislation, which will go into effect next June, will do away with regenerative sets and provides a fine for their operation. In addition," concluded Mr. Virgin "local receiving conditions have been improved by the cooperation of the power and telegraph companies by controlling the leaky transformers, which send interferences into the air."

Domestic Felicity.

CLEVELAND—Beatrice DeDominicis, who is being sued for divorce, has testified that she lashed her husband with a whip till he begged for mercy and apologized for a remark. Then he thanked her for teaching him a lesson, she averred.

The High Cost of Not Fighting. LOS ANGELES—Jack Dewey wants the city to reduce the $10 daily license fee on his gymnasium which with a state tax, he complains is denting his bank roll.

DARTMOUTH GETS 3 PLACES ON ALL AMERICAN TEAM

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(A. P.) Dartmouth's great eleven, generally regarded as the country's outstanding football team for the 1925 season, carries off the bulk of honors in an all-American lineup selected and published today by the New York Sun.

Three wearers of the green—Tully, Diehl and Oberlander—gain places on the Sun's first team, while a fourth, Captain Parker is put on the second eleven. The first and second teams, named by the vote of ten football writers who confined their selections to the territory between northern Maine and the Dakotas follows:

COLLEGE STUDENTS REFUSE TO STOP FOOTBALL RALLY

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 27.—(A. P.)—Students of the University of Nebraska celebrated yesterday's football victory over Notre Dame with a forced holiday today, which was officially declared after thousands of cheering students disrupted classes, forcing instructors out of the class rooms.

School was dismissed Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving but orders had been given by university authorities that the classes would be held as usual today. Students, having carried their celebration well into the night and morning, gathered in front of one of the larger class buildings instead of attending classes and the rally became more enthusiastic. A snake dance and parade were held in the various halls.

AGGIES WEAKENED BY LOSS OF WARD

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 28.—Dallas Ward, Oregon Aggie's first string end and star pass receiver, is definitely out of the lineup for the game with Southern California, Coach Paul Schissler announced today. Ward was injured in the first half of the Oregon game and was not used at all against Idaho. It was thought the injury was healing satisfactorily but hope of his return next Saturday was abandoned when his attempt to participate in practice revealed that he could not safely be used.

With Ward out, Robbins and Logan, both in their first year, on the regular squad, will fill the position. Loss of Ward, materially lessens the Aggie's chances against the strong Trojans. Every other first string man is expected to be in top form.

BEAVERS PURCHASE STAR ST. PAUL INFELDER

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 28.—(A. P.)—Emile Johnson, infielder of the St. Paul American Association club was sold today to the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league. Johnson came from the New York Yankees as part payment for Mark Koenig. Johnson may manage the Pacific Coast club next season.

Scion of Respectable Family Admits Crime. OGDEN, Utah, Nov. 28.—Fred John Noorlander, scion of a respectable Ogden family, confessed the perpetration of the conspiracy in crimes leading from violation of the traffic laws to murder. Noorlander admitted striking Walter Scadden of Jackson, Idaho, over the head with a flashlight, inflicting wounds from which Scadden later died. Mike Noorlander, his brother and accomplice, was seriously wounded in the robbery of Scadden's store and is in a local hospital.

RANCH FIRE AT TALENT PUT OUT BY PASSERS-BY

TALENT, Nov. 27.—The ranch home of M. A. Clinton caught fire Sunday morning after the family had left for church, the trouble starting from behind the kitchen stove, although the Clintons were very sure that no fire was left in the house. Passing tourists and Ashland parties detected the fire from the highway and stopped, successfully managing to check and extinguish it. The house was not very badly damaged.

Miss Beard and Dr. Geory, county health officers, both of Medford, examined the eyes, ears, and throats of all the school children Wednesday of last week. The high school has decided to hold assembly every two weeks, the four classes taking turns with the programs. The freshman class will give the first program Friday, December 4th. The committee appointed for arranging it is Olive Hart, Ira Hart and Frank Denham.

The girls of Talent High school have just organized their basketball team. Mr. C. L. Ward will be their coach this year. Mr. and Mrs. E. Lester Newbery and children returned from Spokane last Friday noon. They have been visiting Mrs. Newbery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kincaid and Charles, and Mrs. H. Walker and Evelyn Barratt attended the Thanksgiving program given at the Nell evening. The Kincaids were formerly of the Nell Creek district. A new graphophone has been purchased by the Siskiyou Confectionery. Mr. Anderson, the proprietor, entertains the young people evenings with the new records.

The seventh and eighth grade glee club met at the home of Cogh Ward last Friday evening to practice. The Glee club met with their teacher, Earl Newbery at the church last Friday evening. The boys are moving the upstairs into a club room.

Sylvester Decker, who is working for the railroad at tunnel number nine near Hugo was home for the week end. He returned to his work Sunday evening. L. L. Crawford installed a new radio at his home last week. Paul Demmer and son, Cecil, left for Oakland, California, Thursday. Cecil will attend a boarding school there, but his father returned to Talent.

The school had a fine Thanksgiving program this afternoon at the auditorium. The M. E. church young people's choir practices every Thursday night at 7 p. m., at the church. Miss Beulah Burnette is at home after spending the past three months in Medford, where she has been employed. Charles Chapman's aged mother of Ashland died at her home Monday of last week. She was buried the following Wednesday at the Wagner Creek cemetery.

The Alford estate was appraised last Saturday morning, when M. L. Alford and his lawyer, Gus Newbury, were in Talent. The appraisers were L. L. Crawford, C. W. Long and Riley Newnamer. A radio demonstration was made at the home of Ed Robinson on Wagner creek Saturday night. L. L. Crawford made the demonstration. Cliff Garvin and C. W. Long are overhauling Mr. Garvin's truck. Mr. and Mrs. James Dopp of Phoenix called at the C. W. Long home last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Jennings has brought his truck over from Beatty, where he has been working this summer and fall. At his return the family moved into the Lucy hotel.

Mrs. John Herring was on the sick list the first of the week. Jess Fowler of Hill, California, spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Boone. Mrs. Jennings is now staying with Grandma Hubbard, who is quite ill. The crowd of flour demonstrators made the waffles for the waffle supper at the Community club last Friday. James Wilson left for Crescent City Monday afternoon to spend the winter. Laurence French accompanied him. Medford visitors Saturday included Mrs. Frank Sullinger, Mrs. Will Ferns, Mrs. C. Walters, Wm. Oatman, Lavella Long, Margaret Higgins and E. E. Evans. Mr. Sandlin and Mr. C. L. Ward have both traded their Fords in for Dodges.

Last Saturday a big box was packed and sent to the State Boys' and Girls' All Society at Portland. The box was filled with clothing and canned food donated by school pupils. Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Ward of Ashland spent Sunday evening with their cousins, the E. P. Hughes. Buford Childers and Scott Kerns attended the show in Medford Sunday night, while Luther Crosby, Floyd Burnette and Charles Williams went to the theater in Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Boone have moved up on the place formerly occupied by the Jim Pellets, south of Talent.

The M. E. Parsonage was kalsomined last week. The new cabinet of the Epworth League met at Miss Ruth Conway's last Saturday night. After business was attended to, the officers elected a social hour. The missionary department will have charge of the devotional services every fourth Sunday night. A social will be held at the church tonight at seven-thirty o'clock. Sunday evening a contest for the large attendance was announced. William Vincent and Alec Bowman will lead the contesting sides until January 2, when the contest ends. The second department committee was appointed as follows: Alec Bowman, Edna Newby, Ruth Bowman. The fourth department committee consists of Everett Barragh, Ida Newby and Mrs. Gus Beck. Other announcements will be made tonight. H. L. Turnbaugh and Mrs. Turnbaugh returned from Portland Monday night. Miss Lucile Holdridge, science and history teacher of Talent high school, left Wednesday evening for Corvallis to visit her brother, Wayne, Miss Helen Pentilla and other friends. The Talent Epworth League came out to the C. W. Holdridge home Sunday evening to listen to the radio. The Talent health unit met at the home of Mrs. Everett Beeson last Friday, November 26. Mrs. I. C. Williams has gone to Eugene, where she will spend a few days with her father, and her sister, Verna. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Holdridge entertained at Thanksgiving dinner Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed, Mrs. Martha Matteson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holdridge and family, Miss Ruth Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moore and Mr. Andrew Moore, and Mr. Delos Churchill. The W. H. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. E. T. Newby Thursday, December 3, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Frank Holdridge is leader. The Talent Rebekah club will meet Friday, December 4 at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fos, Mrs. R. E. Robinson assisting. Come early and come prepared to tie a comfort. The Thanksgiving program at the high school auditorium was a great success. A very large audience saw the performance which consisted of the following numbers: 1. Song, "Thanksgiving"—1st and 2nd grades. 2. "Story of the Month"—Floyd Long. 3. "Counting the Blessings"—3rd grade. 4. Dialogue, "An Old Fashioned Thanksgiving"—1st and 2nd grades. 5. Song, "Thanksgiving Time"—4th grade. 6. Recitation—Hubert Sandlin. 7. Hill; Albert Perkins, Verne Spiers; the Reverend Mr. Sage, Wm. Oatman; Bob, grocery boy, Wayne Mason; Mrs. Perkins, Elsie Newbery; Miss Susan Crocker, Evelyn Barragh; Sally, the maid, Lavella Long.

WALNUTS NOW A COMMERCIAL CROP ON TALENT RANCH

By MARY O. CAREY. EDEN PRECINCT, Nov. 27.—We are proud to see the ad in the Mail Tribune for Foss Rogue walnuts. The Foss grove is one of the finest in this country. It is also the heaviest producer. It consists of a number of acres, which were formerly a mixed orchard, but the floss were walnut trees, and after they came into bearing, the other trees were pulled out and were gradually replaced with nut trees. The grove is of such commercial proportions that it was necessary for Mr. Foss to build his own dryer and prepare to handle his crop on a large scale. The locality of this grove is almost in a frost resistant zone which insures an almost annual crop. Talent is thus made notable for this product, as well as its artesian wells, which are the largest in the county. Miss Irene Chandler entertained several of her girl friends at dinner on Thanksgiving and during the evening at her home on Pacific highway south of Phoenix. About twenty-five guests assembled at the A. S. Furry home on Thanksgiving day and enjoyed a bountiful feast. Most of the guests were relatives of the family. Mr. and Mrs. John Hilderbrand were at the home of Mrs. Hilderbrand's foster mother, Mrs. Donna Graffes for Thanksgiving dinner. Mrs. Hilderbrand was formerly Miss Maggie Mote. Mr. and Mrs. Dopp and little daughter Florence spent Thanksgiving at Eagle Point. Mrs. Jack Allen and her father Mr. Riley, made a flying trip to Klamath Falls last Friday, and brought back Mrs. Allen's sister, Mrs. R. E. Dalen, and little son. The child being ill, Mrs. Dalen wished to come over to the valley with him. They are now at the Allen home. Aubrey Furry arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Furry of Phoenix, in time to spend Thanksgiving at home. Mr. Furry is one of a trio who under the auspices of the Ellison White company, are playing some of the smaller towns of the valley after Thanksgiving time. The trio are working in Chautauqua engagements. Music, reading and an unusually gifted whistler comprise the programs. We understand that Mrs. L. O. Caster of East Eden, dressed a number of fine turkeys last Friday and sold them to local markets. Those who raised these festive birds this season, are fortunate, as the price is almost prohibitive now, at Thanksgiving time, so the Christmas prices will most likely be much higher. Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pruett, former East Eden residents, but now located at Oroville, Calif., that they are very busy now, picking oranges, and that they like it down there very well. Mrs. J. W. Pruett returned to her home in East Eden last Wednesday, after a three weeks' stay in north Medford at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Lester, while Mrs. Lester and daughter, Jevies, visited relatives near Sacramento, Calif. Charley High, brother of Will High of Talent, came in from Dorris, California, to spend Thanksgiving with their son, who has moved into Ashland to school their children. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wakefield spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruett in East Eden. Mrs. E. O. Caster and daughters, of East Eden spent last Saturday in Medford, where they did shopping. Talent people are mourning the loss of one of their old residents, who it seems, took a romantic fit and eloped a few days ago. Jack Lovelady, who is boarding with Mr. Bell of Talent, has gone to the Willamette valley to visit relatives and spend Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pruett of Inlet Falls spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pruett. Dr. and Mrs. Miller of Phoenix spent Thanksgiving with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wertz of Ashland. Mrs. Sbel Furry of Phoenix returned from a week's stay at Corvallis, where she was the guest of Miss Mildred Ward, former Phoenix girl. A house party among the students was the event of the week. Miss Furry reports a most pleasant time. Miss Furry also visited with Miss Ruth Miller who is a student at Corvallis. Miss Marie Miller of Phoenix left Medford Monday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Smith of Seapoose. Miss Ruth Miller will join her sister and both will go together.

FOOTS CREEK NEWS

L. T. Galligan and wife ate supper with the Carles last Friday. Mr. Galligan had just finished cutting down all the pear trees on the Jones ranch by order of the county court to destroy blight. Sunday morning he went to Klamath county to hunt ducks in company with Chas. Gray and Wm. Hittle. F. D. Elman has been cutting down a large section of his apple orchard. A goose ranch seems to be the prospect. J. B. Short sold five fat turkeys to Mrs. Abbie J. Champlin Saturday. The Foots Creek Sunday school sent a collection of canned goods and vegetables last Sunday to help a sick man in Rogue River. The school will meet Friday evening at Short's to practice songs for Christmas. The Bible class last Sunday had ten adults, besides the teacher, and three babies. Our school takes the premium for babies, and they are nearly always well behaved. Mr. Tarbell brought home a bull calf from Mr. Brasher's Monday. Mr. Carle has been working for Geo. Martin building a cow shed with feed racks and stanchions. If you are not a subscriber to The Mail Tribune why not get yourself a year's subscription for a Christmas present. Wm. M. Carle is authorized to receive money for new subscriptions or for renewals. If you know anything of interest about your neighbor, tell Mr. Carle and help to make this column enjoyable to all in the district. Mr. Galligan returned from Klamath Tuesday with seven ducks and five geese which he got in Tule lake. But he declares he will never do it again as he carried the load about two miles thru mud knee deep. The writer was presented with one of the ducks. Thank you, Mr. Galligan. F. D. Elman has let a contract to P. E. Clark of Rogue River to build a thousand dollar greenhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wahl were scheduled to start home from their Iowa trip on Tuesday. Mrs. Henry Vieux accompanied by her two children and by Mrs. Bertha who has been visiting at the Vieuxs, started afoot last Friday to see Mrs. Lester Boling at the Prefontaine place. After a rest at the Carr home they took Mrs. Carr's directions and started on in the fog to find the house which they wanted and which was only a few rods distant. After a hard climb up the mountain they found a house and asked a miner who lived there, "Ho," replied Fred Drabham. They were nearly a mile from their destination, but with Mr. Drabham's directions and the lifting of the fog they succeeded with the next effort. Mr. Vieux was brought up to supper by Mr. Boling and later took the women and children home in his car. Mr. and Mrs. Carle ate Thanksgiving goose at Rev. Mr. Smith's after attending the services at the church at Rogue River.

Miss Marie Miller of Phoenix left Medford Monday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. S. E. Smith of Seapoose. Miss Ruth Miller will join her sister and both will go together.

The outlook is for normal temperature; unsettled weather with rain in California; rain in west portions of Washington and Oregon, and rain or snows in eastern parts of Washington and Oregon.

WORTH SAVING FOR

The man with a home of his own is well repaid for the effort he made to get it.

First, he built up a home fund of several thousand dollars.

Next, he made a loan from us for building.

Then, he paid it off, the same as rent.

Any family can do the same.
