'SMUDGE POT' PERRY STARS IN H. S. FILM

It is anticipated that Arthur Perry will soon be leaving for Hollywood now that he has seen himself in the "movies." The "Smudge Pot" conductor appears in several scenes in connection with the local films of recent football games and shares the limelight with the Medford team. In one scene, however, he "bogs" the camera by excluding the team when he backs up directly in front of the picture machine and shuts out the play. This picture appears under the title "Smudge Pot Perry Breaks Into the Movies Through the Back Way," and causes a burst of applause (or laughter) whenever shown.

Perry attended the free show at the Copel building Saturday night and it is rumored that he threatened to break up the show unless the producers paid him a royalty on his films.
