TABLE ROCK GETS READY FOR TREE CHRISTMAS EVE.

TABLE ROCK, Dec. 4.—Thanksgiving day was spent in this district in about the usual way, nearly every one ceased actual work for the day and at noon gathered around the festive bird containing the national holiday bird or some other less popular barnyard fowl and feasted until they were "full up," probably very few giving any thought to the real meaning of the day as set aside and first observed by the pilgrim fathers.

At the last meeting of the Community club the various committees were appointed to arrange for the annual Christmas tree and entertainment to be held on the night of Christmas eve.

Dr. Nuding representing the Jackson County News was a business visitor in this section last week.

E. B. Day of Sams Valley moved his cattle last week from the Nealon ranch where they were on pasture to his feed yard at his home place where they will be given a ration of onilage and alfalfa until they are ready for beef.

Eva Nealon who is attending the U. of O., spent Thanksgiving and the three days following with relatives and friends here.

Con Devore of Medford was a visitor at the Nealon ranch Monday where he made arrangements to have his beef cattle fed during the winter.

Mrs. O. E. Wilson and two sons spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends in Eugene.

H. B. Olson who has taken over the management of a large orchard and dairy property at Hood River, is offering for sale his lease on the Bynum ranch together with stock, tools and hay.

Property owners in the west end of the district are circulating a petition asking the county court to furnish aid in doing work to protect their property from flood waters which are diverted from their natural course by the new road built a year ago as a short cut to the Beagle and Meadows districts.

Donald Hutness, manager of the hardware department in Montgomery Ward's, Portland store visited Table Rock friends during the Thanksgiving holidays.

H. M. Blain sent in a truck load of hogs Monday to join the Farm Bureau shipment to Portland.

J. L. Nealon and Hershel Harper returned Sunday from a two days duck hunt in Klamath county. They did not like the looks of the country or the taste of the ducks.

The sympathy of the neighborhood is extended to Mrs. S. M. Tuttle who received the sad news Tuesday morning of the death of her father, Phillip K. Gorden at Carmel, Calif.

Several from this district attended the Grange Thanksgiving dance in Sams Valley Thursday night.

John Cameron butchered a fat hog last week that tipped the scales at 129 lbs. after being dressed and at current prices was worth about $70.

Mrs. M. D. Lydard and friend Mrs. Lawrence left last Saturday for southern California where they will spend the greater part of the winter.

Wm. Pomeroy and O. Gains, prominent stockmen from the Meadows and Trall districts were brief callers in this district Monday.

L. S. Schaffer went to Portland last Saturday where he is working at his trade.

Wm. Lewis has bought his winter's supply of hay from Mrs. Lydard and will winter his sheep in this district, which he says has the best winter feeding grounds in the valley.

W. E. Morris is serving as a juror in Jacksonville this week.

It was previously reported in these items that the Dunlap-Hilton sheep would be wintered at the Hilton ranch near Medford, but Mr. Hilton informs us that they will be wintered on the pasture land leased by him from the Moeck orchards.

The cold, disagreeable weather has somewhat slowed down building operations in this district where several large barns are under construction.

Also the frequent purchasing of hay by stock men is rapidly diminishing the supply of surplus hay.

ANDERSON CREEK

Our teacher, Miss Stevens, went home to spend Thanksgiving. Deck Hale was up to his ranch Tuesday. He has just returned from a trip to California.

Deck Taster was called to Medford Wednesday on account of his daughter's death.

E. J. Center is oiling the school house floor during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mrs. Schneider's sister, Mrs. Wasco, spent Thanksgiving with them.

Mrs. Bailey's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Delsman, spent Thanksgiving with her.

Dad Baker passed away Thursday afternoon, after a long illness.

Jack Gill and wife were up to his ranch Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Schneider and children spent Sunday afternoon at the Mays home.

Mrs. Mays made a business trip to Ashland Monday and called on her father, F. M. Centers, who is still quite sick.

Little Margaret MacDowell spent Sunday with Ruth Mays.

Mr. Crawford put up a radio at Steve Lunek's Saturday evening. It sure was great.

Walter Blazing was up to Mr. Maultby's Friday for wood.

We sure have nice warm weather up in the hills now. No fog.

Wilson and Tesreau Wiling, SAN FRANCISCO.—A joint telegram was received from George Wilson and Elmer Tesreau, backfield stars of the University of Washington football squad, saying that they will participate in the Shrimers' east-west football game here if the Huskies do not play at Pasadena New Year's day.
