Favor Dana or Shall for Bert Haney's Position

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 4.—(A. P.)—Frank L. Shull, republican, and Marshall N. Dana, democrat, were today recommended by the Portland chamber of commerce to Senator McNary for submission to President Coolidge, who is considering a selection of a successor to Bert Haney, a member of the shipping board.

"IN THE LIMELIGHT"—THE 20th Century Stores

like others, are closely scrutinized by a very critical, though just, judge—The Public. This very fact has contributed largely to the steady growth of these stores. Their economical method of food distribution has met with both genuine public approval and support—it's the saving on every item in these 20th Century Stores that counts.
