

BIG SOCIAL EVENT
ON THANKSGIVING
AT ROGUE RIVER

By MRS. E. W. SCOTT.
ROGUE RIVER, Dec. 4.—One of the most enjoyable events in the social line was held at the Odd Fellows hall Thanksgiving night when between 10 and 75 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families with a few friends gathered with well filled baskets and enjoyed supper together. The table was loaded with roast turkey and chicken and all the good things that go with them. After supper the crowd amused themselves in various ways until a late hour when they all departed with their many homes, hoping to all meet again soon at another happy gathering.

Prof. Oliver and wife and small son spent Thanksgiving with Portland relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Carter were Jacksonville business visitors Tuesday.

Frank Strahan has purchased a small piece of land from his brother, Phil, and has lumber on the ground to build a four room cottage. James Wiley is also building a small house on the Wiley-Carter place on the Evans Valley road.

The members of the Riverside Community club held supper at the club house Thanksgiving, with a dancing party later in the evening. Several from Rogue River attended and report a good time.

On Monday night a special joint meeting between Etna Rebekah lodge of Grants Pass and Live Oak Rebekah of Rogue River was held at Grants Pass. The president of the Rebekah assembly, Miss Myrtle James, paid the two lodges an official visit. A very pleasant evening was had by all present. Those who attended from Rogue River were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott, Mesdames Frances Burkhardt, Emma Hall, Jesse Burkhardt, Martha Seaman and Eliza Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. St. John and family of Ashland were dinner guests Thanksgiving day at the Wiley-Carter home.

Miss Evelyn Carstens was a week end visitor at McCloud, Calif., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie Nichols, prosperous Klamath county ranchers, stopped over Monday while en route to Roseburg and visited with Willys and Carters.

The annual convention of the Rebekahs met at Gold Hill Tuesday, December 1, with a large crowd in attendance and the meeting was a successful and interesting one. Not enough praise can be given the Gold Hill ladies for the manner in which they entertained the visitors, also for the bountiful banquet which they served at 6:30 o'clock. Those who attended from Rogue River were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burkhardt, Emma Hall, Frances Burkhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Strahan and Frank Strahan and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott.

Mrs. Oney Schirmer entertained the Civic Improvement club at her home Friday afternoon. At roll call each member responded with a tested recipe. Mrs. Shepherd demonstrated the baking of the angel food cake. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

H. A. Martins entertained at dinner Thanksgiving to many of their friends and relatives. Covers were laid for eighteen.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strahan and family were Thanksgiving visitors with their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Mathes and family at Talent.

Miss Meda Marshall spent the week end at the Strahan home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Magerle had as their guests Thanksgiving Mrs. Bessie Burkhardt and Betty Jean and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seaman and small son of Medford.

The Live Oak Grange will meet in regular session Saturday evening. All members are asked to be out as it is election of officers, also the losing side in the membership drive is to serve the banquet to the side who won. All visiting Grangers welcome.

CLIMAX CLIMBS

There was a wedding anniversary dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coy, as well as a Thanksgiving dinner, of which it was their 13th anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Grissom's 15th anniversary. It was well attended by 23 home residents. All seemed to have all they wanted to eat with plenty left.

A. J. Grissom caught a coyote the first of the week. One sheep eater less.

Our community was stricken by death visiting the home of Walter Charley Monday and taking away their baby daughter, Patricia Ethel, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Charley. Born September 15th, 1924, died Nov. 30th, 1925, age one year, two months and 14 days. Gone, but not forgotten. Mr. Charley and family have the sympathy of our little community.

Mrs. A. J. Grissom has been away visiting her sister, Mrs. Herbert Grissom, the past week.

Lester Wertz, who is working at the Owen-Oregon logging camp, visited his wife Sunday, who is staying with her father, N. P. Hanson, this winter. Mr. Hanson says it is great to have a cook after batching so long.

Andy Smith invited to Stay.
BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 4.—Andrew L. Smith, head football coach of the University of California, was offered a four-year extension of his present contract.
