WEDDINGS ARE ORDER OF DAY IN SARDINE CREEK

SARDINE CREEK, Dec. 4.—Dan Cupid seems to have been very busy in our midst recently and weddings are quite the order of the day.

John Smith, our genial road supervisor surprised many of his friends by slipping away Sunday, November 22, and being married at Grants Pass to Miss Errol Bigham of Applegate, after which they immediately left for a week's honeymoon at Eugene and other northern points. John has recently had his bungalow on his ranch here newly repainted, repapered and furnished for the reception of his bride where they are now at home to their many friends. We all join in wishing them much happiness and prosperity through life.

Another marriage of a well known former resident of this community, was solemnized at Oakland, Calif., on Thanksgiving day when William Newton was joined in wedlock to Mrs. Hazel Douglas of that place at the home of her mother, Mrs. Branstetter. After the bounteous wedding dinner and a reception during the afternoon and evening to their many friends, they left on the Shasta Limited on their way to Vancouver, B. C., where Mr. Newton returns to his work of engineering the electrical wiring, etc., of the new factory being built there by the American Can Co. The bride and groom stopped off in Ashland, where they were entertained at dinner Friday evening at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. H. H. Elhart, then Saturday evening at the home of another sister, Mrs. S. A. Dusenberry, and Sunday at a third sister, Mrs. P. L. Wait, both of this place, where a general family reunion was held, consisting of almost the entire family except the mother, Mrs. Eva Kimball, who is still visiting in Los Angeles. The newly weds left Monday morning on their way to Portland, Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., where they expect to remain until spring. Mr. Newton was born and raised on Sardine Creek, but has been a resident of California for the past 15 years, having been in the employ of the American Can company for about 10 years, is now electrical engineer of all coast factories from Los Angeles to Vancouver, B. C. The bride is a native of California, and has been in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph company in Oakland for the past eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Householder, who have been in eastern Oregon for some time past, stopped over a few days last week on their way to Los Angeles, to visit the former's sister, Mrs. Nina Dusenberry. They were going to Los Angeles to visit his father, "Doc" Householder and wife, former residents of Medford. Mrs. Householder we regret to learn, is a native of this place, and has been in the employ of an operation for the removal of one leg caused from blood poison from man infection, resulting from a corn. Little hope is held for her recovery as her whole system is badly poisoned.

Pauline Greaves and mother, Mrs. Greaves, and brother, Jack, and his wife of Medford, visited old friends here Sunday. The Greaves family were residents of Sardine valley some 18 years ago, when they lost their home and contents by fire and soon after went to Medford to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutherland of Portland, drove up from that city Thanksgiving day to visit relatives here and also to meet the latter's brother, W. T. Newton and wife of Oakland. They returned to Portland Monday, accompanied by the latter who expected to spend a day or two there on business.

J. U. Smith, and son, John Smith, are each the possessor of a fine new player piano, recently purchased from Weeks & Orr, of Medford.

Mrs. Greaves, Hurt, our popular young teacher, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home in Medford.

Mrs. Nina Dusenberry spent Tuesday afternoon and evening attending the Rebeekah's convention being held in Gold Hill.

Messrs. McLaren and McLean, who are employed on the Mount Crest farm near Hit, Calif., were in this valley one day recently looking for a location.

We are glad to note the change of time in the schedule of the Gold Hill school bus which transports some of our pupils to the high school at that place, so they do not have to go so early in the morning or return so late in the evening, as it was with the days growing shorter they would almost be compelled to carry a lantern to light their way ere long.

We are sorry to learn that "Dad" Ring, who was removed from his home here some time ago to be nearer medical care, is not regaining his usual rugged health very rapidly.

friends in Waterloo and Fairbanks, Iowa and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cook of Portland visited a few days with Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Elliott. Mr. Cook is a brother of Mrs. Elliott.

Miss Muriel Matthews who is teaching near Canyonville, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Matthews.

A. J. Davis of Portland visited his father, John Davis who is staying with his sister, Mrs. Chas. Wahl, for a short time Wednesday.

The annual Thanksgiving dinner was a very enjoyable affair. Covers were laid for forty-two people at tables prettily decorated with Oregon grape, laurel berries and large red apples. All did ample justice to the turkey dinner furnished by the club ladies. The evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by a five-piece orchestra.

Georgia Kettle, F. C. Champlin and Emmet Crest were in Medford Friday.

Miss Nellie Jacobs of Riverside called on Mrs. Chas. Wahl on Sunday. James Campbell of Los Angeles, stopped enroute to Seattle to visit his friend, Adelbert Elliott of Riveria.

Miss Aletha Gray who is attending the normal school at Monmouth, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray. Mrs. Maude Champlin was a Rogue River visitor Wednesday.

EAGLE POINT IS HOLDING A BAZAAR TO OPEN HOLIDAYS

EAGLE POINT, Dec. 4.—The ladies of the Parent-Teacher association met at Mrs. Thos. Cingade's on Tuesday and practically finished the sewing for the bazaar, which will be held next Friday, December 4, from 2:00 to midnight. The ladies "tidied up" a comfort which they pieced last week and also finished some aprons, laundry bags, gym bags, pillow slips and stuffed animals which will help to make a fine display of holiday gifts. The girls also planned to have a home-made candy booth and offer home-made candies, which would make fine Christmas presents, too. Eats consisting of salad, sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served at six and a lunch will be served after the fun of the evening is over. Everyone is invited to come and have a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Weidman visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G.

Stowell last Sunday. The men were greatly interested in a new Paper cutter, which has been installed on the Stowell ranch recently, while the ladies enjoyed a long-promised "visit."

The Civic Improvement club will meet with Mrs. S. B. Holmes and Mrs. Rader on Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Charles Cingade was in town Tuesday, getting some floral pieces for the funeral of the Charley infant at climax, which was to be interred Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ward motored over to Klamath Falls to visit with Mrs. Ward's parents. The next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held at the school Friday, December 11 at 3:00.
